Living By The Script Deji Ajibade,2021-06-26 If at the end of everything, we all have the chance to reflect on the life we led, the most common question would be: Did I make the most of my life? For many, I am afraid, the answer would be no, followed by a pang of regret. Yes, many of those answering no would be people with well-paying jobs. They were rich and comfortable, but deep down in their soul, there was an aching emptiness they just could not fill. Why? Beyond their jobs and career, they had nothing more to live for, nothing noble or greater to dedicate their lives to. LIVING BY THE SCRIPT: MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR LIFE is a book written to inspire perspective on life. This book will help people develop clarity of purpose and show them how they can make the most of their life.

Happy As Lisa Portolan, 2018-06-01 In a world where data is the new currency, social media is turning us all into walking, talking billboards and brands and we're meant to be mindful, manifesting and present, isn't it a bit rich to be expected to be happy too? After a lifetime spent actively searching for happiness as well as studying it, communications executive and yogi Lisa Portolan shares valuable insights into how we made happiness a science and an industry, created products around it and supported it with a whole heap of advertising to ensure that works, but is 'brand me' just a recipe for unhappiness? 'Lisa points the way to an alternative approach where instead of performing or pursuing an artificial construction of happiness, we can discover our authentic, holistic selves, and learn that this is enough.' - Tom Dawkins 'A big call, but coming from a practitioner of the dark arts of advertising and persuasion Lisa's insights are f*cking surprising and enlightening.' - Paul Bongiorno AM 'Lisa Portolan's fascinating exploration of happiness reveals fresh insights into this much-lauded but little-examined condition. Startling in its insight and surprising in its scale, Happy As sheds light into the darker corners of people's search for joy. And, oddly enough, it is an unbridled joy to read.' - Tim Ferguson

The Creative Spark Michael Shapiro, 2019-11-09 "Knowledgeable, probing, and thoughtful." —Foreword Reviews Smokey Robinson • Barbara Kingsolver • Francis Ford Coppola • David Sedaris • Jane Goodall and other luminaries reveal the secrets to their creative success. Amy Tan talks about how she finds truth by writing fiction. Melissa Etheridge tells us how she channels her fire into her music. Pico Iyer shares how seeking stillness enhances his creativity. And Coppola discusses how he found the courage to make groundbreaking films. In The Creative Spark, a collection of interviews prefaced by brief biographies, these luminaries join dozens of other voices to create a symphony of inspiration. Lucinda Williams talks about honesty and making every word count; Jane Goodall cites the value of persistence and believing in yourself; and Smokey Robinson heralds the timeless power of love songs. For more than a decade, award-winning author Michael Shapiro (A Sense of Place) has interviewed many of our brightest creators. In The Creative Spark, musicians, authors, explorers, and chefs speak about what drives them, what helps them see the world in fresh ways, and what inspires them to turn their visions into art. Shapiro's work as a music journalist has led to interviews with legends including Graham Nash, Lyle Lovett, Melissa Etheridge, Jake Shimabukuro, Merle Haggard, and Jethro Tull bandleader Ian Anderson. And he's spoken with creative masters in other fields, such as comedian Joan Rivers and author Frances Mayes. Yet it's not simply that Shapiro has had access to so many supremely talented people—it's that he gets them to go deep. Moments into his penetrating conversation with Lucinda (her fans call her by her first name), she tells Shapiro about how decisions made about her mother's funeral led to fissures in her family. From this achingly personal conversation, readers can glean fresh insights into why Lucinda has such a devoted following and why her songs open listeners' hearts. Unexpected revelations pop up in every chapter of The Creative Spark. Iowa folksinger Greg Brown isn't a household name, but his fellow musicians revere his poetic compositions. Then there's San Francisco Giants announcer Mike Krukow, who turns every broadcast into a work of art. Chefs, including SingleThread's Kyle Connaughton, discuss how they're transforming the way we approach fine dining and why social responsibility is essential. Each chapter starts with a short biography of the creative person being profiled, then segues into Q+A. This collection brings together some of the best-known artists of our time with others who may not be as famed but who have valuable insights about living an artful life. The Creative Spark stands as a testament to human achievement, showing how creativity illuminates our world. And how it resides in each and every one of us, just waiting to break out.

Satori Haikal Sean, 2021-01-29 At the heart of all pursuits lies the longing for wholeness. The journey of the seeker isn't about adventure – it's about unlearning and unbecoming, a shedding away of all that isn't original. Let the reflections in this book be the signposts that point the way back home.

Studio Anywhere 2: Hard Light Nick Fancher, 2017-01-20 In Studio Anywhere 2: Hard Light, photographer and author Nick Fancher builds on the success of his previous book (Studio Anywhere: A Photographer's Guide to Shooting in Unconventional Locations) as he continues to offer candid, practical, and valuable lessons on how to create successful and fresh photographs armed with only minimal gear, a resourceful mind, and a creative spirit. The heart and soul of Studio Anywhere 2: Hard Light resemble its predecessor, but this time Nick focuses his approach on hard light, demonstrating how to use it in innovative and flattering ways, working with subjects ranging from products to people. You'll learn: • How to work with both available light (e.g., the sun) and manufactured light (such as inexpensive small flash) • How to shape, bounce, and manipulate your unmodified flash to get the results you want • The importance of proper light placement and ambient balance • How to create dramatic, intentional photographs with hard light • DIY techniques for making your own gobos and photo hacks (such as with a reflector) • How to incorporate colored gels into your work to create expressive and innovative imagery • Post-processing tricks and techniques that Nick uses to achieve the final look of the image Included in the book are behind-the-scenes photos, lighting diagrams, and Lightroom settings for every scenario, so the reader can follow along from idea through the shoot and on to the final edit. There is also a feature throughout the book called "Making a Scene" where, upon being presented with an "empty" scene, you're challenged to figure out where you might place your subject and your light(s) in order to achieve a specific effect or result. At the back of the book, Nick shows you how he chose to tackle each scenario. The goal is to train yourself to look at the everyday, commonplace locations and scenarios you encounter and begin to see them full of photographic potential.

#MillennialTruths: A Journey Through Wit, Woe, and Wi-Fi Alexander Paul Burton, 2025-03-19 Millennials—hailed as digital natives, raised on participation trophies, and promised a world where passion would pay the bills—have instead found themselves navigating a chaotic landscape of economic instability, digital addiction, and existential dread. In #MillennialTruths, Alexander Paul Burton dismantles the myths of modern adulthood with biting wit, self-aware sarcasm, and unfiltered honesty. Through a series of deeply personal yet universally relatable reflections, this book explores what it means to come of age in a world that never quite lived up to its promises. From the illusions of higher education (Education: Or How to Waste Four Years of Your Life) to the disillusionment of the workforce (Getting a Job: Spoiler, It’s Not What You Thought), from the crushing realities of social media (Digital Natives, Digital Prisoners) to the desperate search for meaning (Adulthood: The Longest Scam in History), Burton takes readers on a journey through the absurdity of modern existence—offering both laughter and an existential crisis along the way. Each chapter concludes with a list of MillennialTruths—sharp, satirical takeaways that encapsulate the paradox of being a millennial: hopeful yet jaded, independent yet lost, connected yet lonelier than ever. Part memoir, part social critique, #MillennialTruths is not a guidebook to success—it’s a survival manual for anyone who has ever felt like they were winging it, waiting for life to start, only to realize no one actually has a clue what they’re doing. If you’ve ever wondered whether adulthood is just a series of elaborate scams, why your degree turned into an expensive wall decoration, or whether we will ever truly escape the algorithmic grip of our screens—this book is for you. Interlude Devangshu Anchalia, 2020-09-15 'Interlude' is an attempt at going all the way and letting the imagination run wild in response to whatever life throws at us. It is an attempt at exploring the thoughts that engulf and emotions that overwhelm. Some of these poems were surprisingly, ahead of their times. While the whole world was unsure of what was to come next, I decided to go for a quick walk and savor the old world for one last time before it changes completely. Stories, anecdotes and passages in the form of a verse on rhyme and meter, in the form of songs and alliterations or in the form of a verse as free as the birds uncaged into the sky, this is a collection of poems from the time when life is explored with passion, zeal, honesty and an unwavering dissent. Compiled at the time when the whole planet was locked down, this is my interlude between the old world and the new.
