A Message from the Mountain Laurence S. Griffis,2018-11-07 This devotional has tried to present God the loving Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit as our personal friends. God cares so much for us that he is interested in every part of our lives. No matter what we do, Jesus is walking with us. Even though it may appear that Jesus is not there, Jesus is really walking beside us all the time. In our journey, we have to listen, to learn and be ready to speak to those people Jesus brings into our life. It is not the start or the end of the journey that is as important as the journey itself. It is in our journey that we will touch people. We have a chance to tell people how much God loves us. We have a chance to speak of God blessing our life.

Walking in the Fullness of I Am Gary R. Maness,2022-07-07 Pursuing the Fullness of God Did you know that according to John 17:22, God the Father wants to share his glory with you? The same glory the Father gave his Son, Jesus has given to you, so that the essence of who he is works within you to transform you into his image. The story of man is much bigger than you imagined. In a period known as the ancient of days, God planned creation, a kingdom, and your life. While our world has been devastated by an angelic rebellion and the fall of man, God is in the process of restoring all things to his original design. All of creation eagerly awaits this restoration and the revealing of the sons and daughters of God. While attending a conference in 2015, the Holy Spirit spoke to Gary and said, "Walk in the fullness of I AM." This book was born out of that experience and 7 years of research and encounters with God that provided the insights for what you are about to read. Journey with the author back in time to discover the story of us and mysteries and secrets of the kingdom hidden in God from the beginning. Discover God's ways and how you can live and walk in the fullness of who he is.

Francis Chris Park, 2010-10-04 Francis of Assisi, one of the most popular saints and the patron saint of ecology, is an enigma. He was born into a wealthy family but gave it all up when he felt called by God to live a life of extreme poverty. He dreamed of becoming a knight but ended up preaching peace and reconciliation. He sought spiritual solitude but found himself head of a large religious order. He was a radical but remained loyal to the Catholic Church. His life and works hold many lessons for us today, as we seek ways of living that are informed by the gospels and rooted in integrity.

The Sermon on the Mount R. T. Kendall, 2011-10-01 One of the most influential teachings in Christian history is Matthew 5-7, Jesus's Sermon on the Mount. Many pastors have delved into this passage, but none has offered such a comprehensive, up-to-date, and accessible exposition. Until now. Known for his keen insight and biblical understanding, Dr. R. T. Kendall offers an in-depth, verse-by-verse, and lay-friendly exposition of this matchless sermon. In fact, he gives the most thorough and comprehensive interpretation of this passage to date. His compelling, devotional-style writing brings the words of Jesus to life, and he shows readers how to put these teachings to work in their own lives. An unforgettable book for the lay reader and pastor alike.

The Practice of the Love of Jesus Christ Saint Alphonsus de Liguori, Aeterna Press, THE whole sanctity and perfection of a soul consists in loving Jesus Christ, our God, our sovereign good, and our Redeemer. Whoever loves me, says Jesus Christ himself, shall be loved by my Eternal Father: My Father loves you because you have loved Me. Some, says St. Francis de Sales, make perfection consist in an austere life; others in prayer; others in frequenting the Sacraments; others in alms-deeds. But they deceive themselves: perfection consists in loving God with our whole heart. The Apostle wrote: Above all things, . . . have love, which is the bond of perfection. It is love which keeps united and preserves all the virtues that render a man perfect. Hence St. Augustine said: "Love God, and do whatever you please;" because a soul that loves God is taught by that same love never to do anything that will displease him, and to leave nothing undone that may please him.

Jesus of Nazareth Pope Benedict XVI, Joseph Ratzinger, 2007-05-15 Pope Benedict XVI's iconic life of Jesus, a rich, compelling, flesh-and-blood portrait of the central figure of the Christian faith. "This book is . . . my personal search 'for the face of the Lord.'" —Benedict XVI In this bold, momentous work, the Pope seeks to salvage the person of Jesus from today's "popular" depictions and to restore his true identity as discovered in the Gospels. Through his brilliance as a theologian and his personal conviction as a believer, the Pope incites us to encounter Jesus face to face. From Jesus of Nazareth: ". . . the great question that will be with us throughout this entire book: But what has Jesus really brought, then, if he has not brought world peace, universal prosperity, and a better world? What has he brought? The answer is very simple: God. He has brought God! He has brought the God who once gradually unveiled his countenance first to Abraham, then to Moses and the prophets, and then in the wisdom literature—the God who showed his face only in Israel, even though he was also honored among the pagans in various shadowy guises. It is this God, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, the true God, whom he has brought to the peoples of the earth. He has brought God, and now we know his face, now we can call upon him. Now we know the path that we human beings have to take in this world. Jesus has brought God and with God the truth about where we are going and where we come from: faith, hope, and love."

Children in the Temple Henry Clay Trumbull, 1869

A Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels James Hastings, 2004-10 The purpose of this dictionary is to give an account of everything that relates to Christ - His Person, Life, Work, and Teaching. It is in a sense complementary to the Dictionary of the Bible, in which, of course, Christ has a great place. But a dictionary of the Bible, being occupied mainly with things biographical, historical, geographical, or antiquarian, does not give attention to the things of Christ sufficient for the needs of the preacher, to whom Christ is everything. This is, first of all, a preacher's dictionary. The authors of the articles have been carefully chosen from among those scholars who are, or have been, themselves preachers. And even when the articles have the same titles as articles in the Dictionary of the Bible, they are written by new men, and from a new standpoint. It is thus a work which is quite distinct from, and altogether independent of, the Dictionary of the Bible. It is called a Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels, because it includes everything that the Gospels contain, whether directly related to Christ or not. Its range, however, is far greater than that of the Gospels. It seeks to cover all that relates to Christ throughout the Bible and in the life and literature of the world. There will be articles on the Patristic estimate of Jesus, the Medieval estimate, the Reformation and Modern estimates. There will be articles on Christ in the Jewish writings and in the Muslim literature. Much attention has been given to modern thought, whether Christian or anti-Christian. Every aspect of modern life, in so far as it touches or is touched by Christ, is described under its proper title. James Hastings (1852-1922) was a distinguished scholar and pastor. He was founder and editor of the Expository Times and is also well known for editing the five-volume Dictionary of the Bible, as well as the Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics, the Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels, and the Dictionary of the Apostolic Church.
