I've Been Here All the While Alaina E. Roberts, 2021-04-05 Perhaps no other symbol has more resonance in African American history than that of 40 acres and a mule—the lost promise of Black reparations for slavery after the Civil War. In I've Been Here All the While, Alaina E. Roberts draws on archival research and family history to upend the traditional story of Reconstruction.

Portraits of a Few of the People I've Made Cry Christine Sneed, 2013-02-12 Presents a collection of short stories that center around the theme of love and characters who must deal with its unpredictability and contradictions.

I've Been Matched Lexy Timms, 2019-10-11 Love Connects Us All... Even though she didn't grow up with much Amanda Iversen has a loving family, supportive friends and, after years of struggling to overcome her humble beginnings—the perfect job. The one thing that's truly missing is someone to share her life with. When her best friend pushes her into the crazy world of online dating, Amanda realizes that it's more than she bargained for. Especially after she's matched with tall, tanned, sinfully gorgeous Declan. For Declan Sharpe, nothing matters more to him than honoring his grandfather's memory by taking care of the family ranch. Life on the ranch means that he keeps to himself, too shy and solitary to go out into the world. That is until his friend signs him up for a dating app that promises to find the perfect match. Online dating is the last thing Declan wants to sign up for, and his life alone suits him just fine. Mostly. He's sure signing up is the worst idea, but then he meets Amanda. Amanda has been working her way up the corporate ladder for years. Declan spends his days on horseback. How can these two opposites ever make it past the first date? Sub City: Young People, Homelessness and Crime Julia Wardhaugh, 2017-07-05 Youth homelessness increased rapidly during the late 1980s and early 1990s, at a time when street homelessness in particular became increasingly associated in the popular mind with dangerousness and criminality. This book analyzes the construction of homelessness as a social and legal 'problem' and documents young people's own experiences of homelessness, crime and danger. Drawing on the authors' own field work in a range of urban and rural locations, the book addresses themes of home and homelessness, of exclusion and marginality and of risk and urban incivilities.

All Things to All People: Confessions of a Rebellious Preacher's Son Begees McFree, 2019-08-16 All Things to All People is an introverted narrative penned by the son of a Gospel preacher and his alter ego, Begees McFree. This playfully written autobiography of a simple, quiet, and peaceable man guides the reader through depression-induced insomniac confessions. Looking deep into the often-hidden places of the heart and mind, these confessions freed the writer from lies and misunderstandings that had been buried deep within. All Things to All People shares the spiritual struggle of a man after a divorce broke apart his life and separated him from his children. Begees uses freewriting to disentangle his poor choices from his good intentions, gaining more selfcontrol and growing closer to God while strenuously pushing unbelief out of his mind.

No Perfect People Allowed John Burke, 2005 How do we live out the message of Jesus in today's ever-changing culture? The church is facing its greatest challenge---and its greatest opportunity---in our postmodern, post-Christian world. God is drawing thousands of spiritually curious 'imperfect people' to become his church---but how are we doing at welcoming them? No Perfect People Allowed shows you how to deconstruct the five main barriers standing between emerging generations and your church by creating the right culture. From inspiring stories of real people once far from God, to practical ideas that can be applied by any local church, this book offers a refreshing vision of the potential and power of the Body of Christ to transform lives today. 'We now are living in a post-Christian America---and that means we must be rethinking ministry through a missionary mindset. What makes this book both unique and extremely helpful is that it is filled with real-life stories of post-Christian people becoming followers of Jesus---not just statistics or data about them.' Dan Kimball, Author, The Emerging Church ' . . . John's 'get it' factor with people, lost or found, is something to behold! Reading this book filled me with optimism regarding the next generation of pastors and faith communities . . . ' Bill Hybels, Senior Pastor, Willow Creek Community Church No Perfect People Allowed is a timely and necessary word for church leaders in a post Christian culture. John Burke serves up quite a tasty meal full of the rich nutrients that will strengthen the Body of Christ. Randy Frazee, Senior Pastor, Pantego Bible Church; Author, The Connecting Church and Making Room for Life
