Eco-Theory and Annihilation Evan Gottlieb, 2025-03-06 Eco-theory and Annihilation is part of the Film Theory in Practice series, which blends the explanation of a film theory with the interpretation of a film and provides discrete examples of how film theory can serve as the basis for textual analysis. This book offers a concise introduction to eco-theory in jargon-free language and shows how this theory can be deployed to interpret Alex Garland's controversial film adaptation of Jeff VanderMeer's hit novel Annihilation. Eco-theory is one of the most exciting and timely offshoots of contemporary critical theory, but it is too frequently treated as only a recent development. Covering historical developments in nature philosophy, geology, and organic chemistry, as well as contemporary critical methodologies like systems theory and new materialism, Eco-Theory and Annihilation introduces readers to the full extent of eco-theory's lively variations, as well as investigates the complications that arise when those variations are mediated by the generic expectations of filmic science fiction. This book illuminates the deep history of eco-theory, maps its contemporary coordinates, and demonstrates how it can shed light on Garland's provocative eco-sci-fi thriller.

New Weird Fiction and the Anthropocene Trang Dang, 2025-07-24 This book explores the development of ecological awareness in Jeff VanderMeer's New Weird novels, focusing specifically on the Southern Reach (2014-2024) and Borne (2017-2019) series. Examining the New Weird genre as an understudied part of climate fiction, the chapters investigate how these texts' language, content, and form develop unique and fascinating ways in which one can think and live more ecologically. As the first book-length study on VanderMeer's work to contextualize his novels through object-oriented ontology (OOO), an emerging branch of speculative philosophy that investigates how things exist, this work enables a uniquely experimental reading of VanderMeer: one that accentuates how his work unsettles what is perceived as normal and exposes the bounds of human reasoning, as well as how we understand ourselves and our relationships with nonhumans. Dang also engages with interdisciplinarity, situating VanderMeer's work within cultural discourse around the Anthropocene, environmental anthropology, prehistoric archeology, evolutionary biology, and Indigenous studies.

Engagements with Hybridity in Literature Joel Kuortti, Jopi Nyman, Mehdi Ghasemi, 2023-10-12 Engagements with Hybridity in Literature: An Introduction is a textbook especially for undergraduate and graduate students of literature. It discusses the different dimensions of the notion of hybridity in theory and practice, introducing the use and relevance of the concept in literary studies. As a structured and up-to-date source for both instructors and learners, it provides a fascinating selection of materials and approaches. The book examines the concept of hybridity, offers a historical overview of the term and its critique, and draws upon the key ideas, trends, and voices in the field. It critically engages with the theoretical, intellectual, and literary discussions of the concept from the time of colonialism to the postmodern era and beyond. The book enables students to develop critical thinking through engaging them in case studies addressing a diverse selection of literary texts from various genres and cultures that open up new perspectives and opportunities for analysis. Each chapter offers a specific theoretical background and close readings of hybridity in literary texts. To improve the students' analytical skills and knowledge of hybridity, each chapter includes relevant tasks, questions, and additional reference materials.

Espacios tecnoestéticos de ficción Aune, Karen, Peña Iguavita, César Augusto, García La Rota, Andrés, Rueda Fajardo, Santiago, 2020-05-01 Espacios tecnoestéticos de ficción es el resultado de una investigación desde la práctica creativa, que dio origen a Lapsus Trópicus, una obra que generó una especulación poética sobre la relación entre el ser humano, la tecnología y la naturaleza, a partir de la hipótesis ficticia sobre qué pasaría si un glitch —un error informático— transformara un ecosistema específico. En este contexto se tuvieron en cuenta distintos aspectos de un proceso creativo que dialoga con referencias como el arte, el diseño, la arquitectura, el cine de ciencia ficción y momentos históricos claves en el desarrollo de la ciencia, con el objetivo de crear una reflexión sobre las consecuencias de la era del Antropoceno. Lapsus Trópicus se materializó como una floresta digital, un ecosistema transformado por la tecnología, que pretende ser la matrix entre un mundo virtual y su simulacro: el biológicamente real. Este libro es una versión editada de la tesis realizada por la artista Karen Aune en el programa de doctorado en Estudios Avanzados en Producciones Artísticas de la Universidad de Barcelona. Esta obra cuenta con un prólogo de Julia Buenaventura y ensayos escritos por Andrés García La Rota, Santiago Rueda y César Peña.

Fourth Wave Feminism in Science Fiction and Fantasy Valerie Estelle Frankel, 2019-10-29 Fourth wave feminism has entered the national conversation and established a highly visible presence in popular media, especially in cutting-edge science fiction and fantasy films and television series. Wonder Woman, the Wasp, and Captain Marvel headline superhero films while Black Panther celebrates nonwestern power. Disney princesses value sisterhood over conventional marriage. This first of two companion volumes addresses cinema, exploring how, since 2012, such films as the Hunger Games trilogy, Mad Max: Fury Road, and recent Star Wars installments have showcased women of action. The true innovation is a product of the Internet age. Though the web has accelerated fan engagement to the point that progressivism and backlash happen simultaneously, new films increasingly emphasize diversity over toxic masculinity. They defy net trolls to provide stunning role models for viewers across the spectrum of age, gender, and nationality.

Annihilation Jeff VanderMeer, 2014-02-04 Area X has claimed the lives of members of eleven expeditions. The twelfth expedition consisting of four women hopes to map the terrain and collect specimens; to record all their observations, scientific and otherwise, of their surroundings and of one another; and, above all, to avoid being contaminated by Area X itself.

Per farla finita con la famiglia Angela Balzano, 2021-02-11 T00:00:00+01:00 Il binomio “biologia e capitalismo” ha condizionato la riproduzione della vita sul pianeta in modo devastante. I danni che la riproduzione dei ricchi e bianchi sapiens arreca agli ecosistemi hanno provocato l'estinzione di troppe forme di vita. Invece di curare e riprodurre la sola popolazione occidentale bisognerebbe generare parentele postumane e decoloniali con persone razzializzate, legami transgenere che superino la dicotomia maschio/femmina, ma anche parentele transspecie con gli animali non-umani, con le piante, con le forme di vita create nei laboratori del tecno-capitalismo globale: dalle mucche clonate alle cellule immortalizzate. Ricorrendo alle analisi e alle utopie fantascientifiche femministe ci libereremo dalla “misura di tutte le cose”, l'Uomo, e dalla sua incubatrice, la famiglia eterosessuale.

Annihilation (10th Anniversary Edition) Jeff VanderMeer, 2024-07-30 SPECIAL TENTH ANNIVERSARY EDITION The Southern Reach Trilogy begins with Annihilation, the Nebula Award-winning novel that “reads as if Verne or Wellsian adventurers exploring a mysterious island had warped through into a Kafkaesque nightmare world” (Kim Stanley Robinson). Area X has been cut off from the rest of the world for years. Nature has reclaimed the last vestiges of human civilization. Expeditions into Area X have ended in disaster or death. In Annihilation, the first volume of Jeff VanderMeer's Southern Reach Trilogy, we join the latest expedition. The group is made up of four women: an anthropologist; a surveyor; a psychologist, the de facto leader; and the narrator, a biologist. Their mission is to map the terrain, record all observations of their surroundings and of one another, and, above all, avoid being contaminated by Area X itself. They arrive expecting the unexpected, and Area X delivers—they discover lifeforms that surpass understanding. But it's the secrets they carried across the border with them that change everything.

Animal Husbandry: Bestiality in Medieval Culture, 2025-08-28 How was bestiality perceived in the Middle Ages? The answer is far from simple. Depending on the context, it might be a kingmaking ritual, a boys' game, a pact with the devil, a peccadillo or a capital offense. As dangerous as it could be to be suspected by one's own neighbors of committing bestiality, medieval literature and art are full of often exhilarating erotic interspecies encounters. In the end, this volume suggests that there is a zoophilic streak in all humans – the medievals as well as ourselves. Contributors are Crystal Beamer, Bailey Flannery, Katherine Leach, Marian E. Polhill, Anna Russakoff, Joyce E. Salisbury, Andrea Schutz, Jacqueline A. Stuhmiller, Larissa Tracy, and Tess Wingard.

Authority Jeff VanderMeer, 2014-05-06 After thirty years, the only human engagement with Area X—a seemingly malevolent landscape surrounded by an invisible border and mysteriously wiped clean of all signs of civilization—has been a series of expeditions overseen by a government agency so secret it has almost been forgotten: the Southern Reach. Following the tumultuous twelfth expedition chronicled in Annihilation, the agency is in complete disarray. John Rodrigues (aka Control) is the Southern Reach's newly appointed head. Working with a distrustful but desperate team, a series of frustrating interrogations, a cache of hidden notes, and hours of profoundly troubling video footage, Control begins to penetrate the secrets of Area X. But with each discovery he must confront disturbing truths about himself and the agency he's pledged to serve. In Authority, the second volume of Jeff VanderMeer's Southern Reach trilogy, Area X's most disturbing questions are answered . . . but the answers are far from reassuring.

Annihilation Alex Garland, Following on from the success of Ex Machina, Alex Garland returns to cerebral sci-fi with his adaptation of Jeff VanderMeer's cult novel: a tale of a biologist attempting to uncover the mystery of her husband's disappearance into a restricted zone. What she and her fellow scientists discover is a world populated by mysterious life forms that might offer answers, but which exposes them to madness and death.--
