The Cocoa Panyols of Trinidad Sylvia Moodie-Kablalsingh, 1994-06-15 The panyols (from espanoles) are descended from farmers living in Trinidad and eastern Venezuela during the period of Spanish-American rule. A mix of Spanish, Amerindian and African, the panyols were a community unique to Trinidad in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. They resolutely preserved their cultural and linguistic heritage, fortifying their position by an almost exclusive involvement in cocoa growing. Today, however, the Panyol community is fast disappearing in Trinidad's increasingly multi-ethnic society.
