Joseph Julius Bonkowski, Jr.

Quote Me the Book of All New Quotes Joseph Julius Bonkowski, Jr., 2009-07 Born 8-30-58 in Cleveland Ohio, graduated from Lincoln-West high school in 1977 (Honor Roll), and was on the chess and track team, and started working for the city of Cleveland water dept. in 1977 and retired in 2007. I write short stories, slogans, saying, philosophy, songs, and comedy, restore paintings and comic books, and I can invent almost anything technical. I jog and it seems like I don't age; do to mixing a Fountain of youth type concoction when I was 20 years old. My parents are Joseph and Dorothy Bonkowski. I wrote The secrets of mind reading revealed (Howell Press), and Casablanca 2 (Unpublished), the Theory of Relativity 2, which expands on Einstein's Theory of Relativity (Only 200 copies printed.) My future plans are to keep on writing, and start a career in comedy. I still have thousands of unpublished quotes and saying, and if this book sells well I will write a second book lord willing.

The Strong Delusion John W. Milor, 2017-02-20 John Milors fascinating work is based on the Bible telling of a powerful deception that will overshadow the Earth, a deception so intense that only those with a genuine love relationship with God will be able to endure it. Events from the authors own life, including a series of supernatural encounters, have revealed some key components of this strong delusion, which he believes will initiate a grand display of open contact with extraterrestrials. It will also involve the global rise of Islam. Its no mistake that the faiths of four billion people (Christians and Muslims) include two versions of prophetic visions that are nearly identical, yet they represent opposite sides of a global conflict that will end in the Battle of Armageddon. This book delves into myriad topics, including: Encounters with angels, otherworldly beings, and Jesus Christ; Encounters with demons, ghosts, nephilim, jinns, and mythical creatures; The Bibles explanation of ET good guys and bad guys; The Quran and Hadiths ET connection: Was Muhammad abducted as a boy, and operated on? Was the angel that abducted Muhammad really Gabriel? Were the mysterious jinns of Islam actually surviving nephilim? Is the Quran and Hadiths ideology specifically tailored for the Antichrist? These and other topics harken to ancient times and peer into a not-too-distant future, when the author believes we will see a return to the days of Noah, as prophesied by Jesus.

Christ's Enthronement at God's Right Hand and Its Greco-Roman Cultural Context D. Clint Burnett, 2021-01-18

Given the dearth of non-messianic interpretations of Psalm 110:1 in non-Christian Second Temple Jewish texts, why did it become such a widely used messianic proof-text in the New Testament and early Christianity? Previous attempts to answer this question have focused on why the earliest Christians first began to use Ps 110:1. The result is that these proposals do not provide an adequate explanation for why first century Christians living in the Greek East employed the verse and also applied it to Jesus's exaltation. I contend that two Greco-Roman politico-religious practices, royal and imperial temple and throne sharing—which were cross-cultural rewards that Greco-Roman communities bestowed on beneficent, pious, and divinely approved rulers—contributed to the widespread use of Ps 110:1 in earliest Christianity. This means that the earliest Christians interpreted Jesus's heavenly session as messianic and thus political, as well as religious, in nature.

Faith and God's Word in a Wondering World of the 21st Century Marilyn Huggins Holcombe, 2025-06-03 The author wrote four sections called "books". The first section or "book" points out the need to give more up-to-date interpretation to the early chapters of Genesis. There is a very strong parallel of the first chapters of Genesis and science's steps of creation and this is set down in the first section. Four thousand years before scientists could plot the ages of very ancient life, before telescopes and microscopes were invented, and DNA to help study ancient mankind, this amazing book had a record of this history, and it was written down in God's Holy Scripture. In "Book Two" the author set down a precise list of the parts of a strong faith. How would the reader picture God? What image of God did God give His human creation? Why did God create the Universe, the Earth, and all life? For success in Christian living a person must know God's Word, the Bible. So, the author wrote a simple commentary of each of the books of the bible. This provides a clear foundation of understanding on which to build a lifetime of Bible study.

God's Strategy in Human History Paul Marston, Roger Forster, 2001-07-01

They Never Said It : A Book of Fake Quotes, Misquotes, and Misleading Attributions Paul F. Boller Jr. Emeritus Professor of History Texas Christian University, Oklahoma John George Jr. Professor of Political Science and Sociology Central State University, 1989-05-18 Abraham Lincoln never said, You cannot fool all the people all the time. Thomas Jefferson never said, That government is best which governs least. And Horace Greeley never said, Go west, young man. In They Never Said It,

Paul Boller, Jr., and John George examine hundreds of misquotations, incorrect attributions, and blatant fabrications, outlining the origins of the quotes and revealing why they should be consigned to the historical trashcan. Many of the misquotes are quite harmless. Some are inadvertent misquotes that have become popular (Shakespeare actually said, The best part of valor is discretion), others, the inventions of reporters embellishing a story (Franklin Roosevelt never opened a speech to a DAR group with the salutation, My fellow immigrants). But some of the quotes, such as Charles Darwin's supposed deathbed recantation of evolution, are blatantly dishonest and falsify the historical record. And others are chillingly vicious, filled with virulent racial and religious prejudices that completely distort the views of the person supposedly quoted and spread distrust and hatred among the gullible. These include the forged remarks attributed to Benjamin Franklin that Jews should be excluded from America, and the fabricated condemnation of Catholics attributed to Lincoln. An entertaining and yet thought-provoking book, They Never Said It sorts out a great deal of history and sets it right, going beyond a mere catalog of popular misconceptions to reveal how conservatives and liberals, atheists and evangelists, all have at times twisted and even invented the words of eminent figures to promote their own ends. It is the ultimate debunking reference, a perfect complement to handbooks of quotations.

Worldview of the Christian Faith Joseph Charles Beach, 2022-10-27 Worldview of the Christian Faith explores the differing worldviews of our society against the backdrop of what Christians should believe. Joseph Charles Beach, a devoted believer in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, answers questions such as: · Why do morals and values matter? · Is the Bible still relevant in today's modern world? · How can Christians stand up for the truth instead of caving in to the whims of society? · Can Christians defend their faith amid so many assaults on God and the Bible? The author also explores whether science and the Bible can coexist and argues that skeptics of the Word should give Christianity another look. It may surprise you how accurate the Bible is, despite what you may have heard. Only the Christian faith can offer hope, truth, and value to you as an individual. Whether you have lost your faith, want to ignite it, or are confused about what to believe, you'll find valuable guidance in this book.

The Kabbalah of Time Nilton Bonder, Nilton Bonder, 2009-11 The Kabbalah of Time is an interactive investigation of two fundamental mysteries: the Absolute (God) and the Infinite (time-space). Everything that has form was shaped by the transitory nature of time. God, devoid of form, as presented in the Biblical text, is a God that does not belong to time. Using mystical teachings within Judaism to learn from the perspective of beyond time, Rabbi Nilton Bonder presents some intriguing questions and mysterious answers that can contribute to a better intimacy with reality. Viewing Creation as the Creation of time itself he proposes a countdown for the establishment of sequential time as we know it. Day 1: The Everlasting produces the Now. Day 2: The Now produces existence. Day 3: Existence produces death. Day 4: Death produces feelings. Day 5: Feelings produce intelligence. Day 6: Intelligence produces the past. Day 7: The past produces the future.

Why would a Creator by nature be hidden and invisible? Can something exist without being inside time? Where did we come from and where do we go when we leave time? What if time could be understood as a place, a place that has no direction?

Uncontrolling Love L Michaels,Gloria Coffin,Craig Drurey,Chris Baker,Donna Fiser Ward,Graden Kirksey,2017-08-07 What if God is not in control? And what if, instead, God always expresses uncontrolling love? Eighty leading thinkers explore the implications of a new way to think about God, the world, and our everyday lives. Their conclusions are radical, whether their writing is in story form or more academic. Essayists take ideas in Thomas Jay Oord's award-winning book, The Uncontrolling Love of God: An Open and Relational Account of Providence (IVP Academic). Each contributor explores how we might think and live in light of uncontrolling love.

Practice Makes Perfect Mary Bass Gray,2025-05-20 In the Book of Matthew, Jesus says to the multitude that gathered, “Be perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect.” For thousands of years, this crowd had been waiting and longing for the Messiah to deliver them and bring them hope and freedom, and now their Messiah stood before them teaching “perfection” that could only be found in Him. How can sinful humanity live up to that expectation? What would it take to be that perfect? To answer those questions, Practice Makes Perfect is a Bible study that is built around the context of this one verse, interpreting it through many other God-breathed scripture passages and presented through imperfect men and women found in scripture. With the guidance of Bible teacher Mary Bass Gray, be challenged as we imperfect people pursue and practice God’s “perfect” by developing Christ-like character in us. This is an insightful, uplifting study that explores how we, as imperfect humans, can pursue godly perfection, striving to be more Christ-like in our thoughts, actions, and relationships.

In the Form of a God Andrew Perriman,2022-11-04 The central question addressed in this book is whether Paul thought that Christ Jesus pre-existed in heaven, in the form of God, through whom all things were made, before being sent into the world to be born of a woman, in the likeness of sinful flesh. A significant body of scholarship these days, both conservative and critical, supports the view that he did. Andrew Perriman examines the assumptions and reasoning that underlie this consensus, and makes a thorough and innovative case for reading the relevant texts from the narrow and distinctive perspective of the gentile mission. How would pagans and post-pagan believers have heard and retold the back-story of the one whom they knew only as the exalted Lord who would one day rule the nations? Such an angle of enquiry sheds fascinating, and sometimes quite startling, new light on the many exegetical difficulties that attend this aspect of Paul's Christology--not least in respect of the opening lines of the extraordinary Christ encomium in his letter to the Philippians. But it also yields compelling insight into the significance of Jesus for the Pauline mission and, indeed, for the ancient pagan world.

A House Divided Geoffrey W. Sutton, 2016-03-29 A House Divided helps answer the question, how do Christians form moral judgments about sex-linked issues? After analyzing key differences between conservative and progressive Christians on such divisive issues as abortion, sex education, and same-sex marriage, readers will learn how a combination of four factors can lead to principled Christian morality. First, a review of diverse interpretive comments on relevant Scriptures can help identify a foundation for agreement as well as sharpen differences. Second, a review of psychological factors can help identify prejudices, personality traits, and powerful emotions that intensify and color public debate. Third, new research on moral psychology will add six dimensions of analysis to appreciating the reasons conservatives and progressives draw upon when forming moral judgments. And finally, knowledge about sexual attraction, sexual orientation, conception, and sexual health is vital to thinking ethically about the specific issues addressed in this book.

A Critical Review of a Work by J. S. Backus John Mather Austin, 1849

The Divine Plan of the Ages and the Corroborative Testimony of the Great Pyramid in Egypt, God's Stone Witness and Prophet Charles Taze Russell, 1886

Godless in America George Ricker, 2006-03 I spent the most of the first half of my life believing in Christianity and regarding belief in God as an essential component of human existence, George Ricker says. I've spent the last 30 years trying to understand why I ever thought that way. This book is about how and why that process occurred. It's also about the danger posed to our democratic society by fundamentalist religion. Godless in America is a testimonial about the advantages of life without gods and religions. It's also a no-holds-barred look at some of the problems with both concepts. Written in a style that is conversational, yet provocative, it is a candid assessment of the real culture war being fought in America today: the attack being waged by the Religious Right on the values of personal freedom, democratic government, and the necessity for all Americans to be treated as equals before the law and by their government. At times humorous, at times outrageous, Godless in America treats religion and religious concepts as ideas that should be evaluated with the same standards used to evaluate all other ideas and concepts, not from the privileged position claimed by so many of a religious persuasion.

And I Quote, Revised Edition Ashton Applewhite, Tripp Evans, Andrew Frothingham, 2003-03-19 The popular guide to quotable quotes returns in a totally revised and updated edition including all-new material.

WHY DO HUMANS WORSHIP GODS? Wilberforce Reid, 2024-02-12 According to United Nations statistics, 25,000 men, women, and innocent children worldwide die from starvation each day, yet the majority of us give praises and thanks to God every day for providing us with our daily bread. We do know (or should know) that millions of people were killed, including being burned at the stakes, because they did not conform to the official doctrine of the Christian Church. In spite of this, each day we sing about how loving and merciful God is to mankind. In the creation of our conscious mind, are we more susceptible to indoctrination than to logical and objective analysis of a subject? By exposing stories swept under the rug because of our unconscious bias, this book will uncover many uncomfortable truths.
