Start Where You Are Pema Chödrön, 2001-08-21 The perennially helpful guide to transforming our pains and difficulties into opportunities for genuine joy and personal growth, from the beloved Buddhist nun and author of When Things Fall Apart. We all want to be fearless, joyful, and fully alive. And we all know that it's not so easy. We're bombarded every day with false promises of ways to make our lives better—buy this, go here, eat this, don't do that; the list goes on and on. But Pema Chödrön shows that, until we get to the heart of who we are and really make friends with ourselves, everything we do will always be superficial. In this perennial self-help bestseller, Pema offers down-to-earth guidance on how we can go beyond the fleeting attempts to "fix" our pain and, instead, to take our lives as they are as the only path to achieve what we all yearn for most deeply—to embrace rather than deny the difficulties of our lives. These teachings, framed around fifty-nine traditional Tibetan Buddhist maxims, point us directly to our own hearts and minds, such as "Always meditate on whatever provokes resentment," "Be grateful to everyone," and "Don't expect applause." By working with these slogans as everyday meditations, Start Where You Are shows how we can all develop the courage to work with our own inner pain and discover true joy, holistic well-being, and unshakeable confidence.

GO! Start “Where” you are Walter R Reyes,2023-07-31 This book is a reminder that God has called you for “such a time as this”. The time to pursue your call is not in some far off distant future where everything is lining up perfectly for you and it all makes sense. This is the time that God is calling his people to take action in the here and now. The enemy would love to have us ignorant and oblivious to the fact that the Bible says, “life is but a Vapor”. Sometimes we live as if we have all the time in the world to pursue the purposes of God, but the truth is that “life is but a vapor”, so God urges us to cease the moment. I give specific instructions on how to cease the moment and how to implement and take action steps towards your high calling. Ephesians 5:15-17 (TPT) says “ ... Take full advantage of every day as you spend your life for his purposes. And don't live foolishly for then you will have discernment to fully understand God's will." This book instructs on how to: *Take full advantage of every day * What it means to spend your life for his purposes * Get discernment to understand God's will for your Life The Starting point for God's plan in your life is closer than you think.

Summary of Pema Chödrön's Start Where You Are Everest Media,2022-05-10T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 We have everything we need. We don't need to improve ourselves. All the trips we lay on ourselves, the heavy-duty fearing that we're bad and hoping that we're good, the identities that we so dearly cling to, the rage, the jealousy, and the addictions of all kinds - none of these things touch our basic wealth. #2 The practice of meditation, called shamatha-vipashyana, helps us to know ourselves. It helps us to know our rough parts and our smooth parts, our passion, aggression, ignorance, and wisdom. #3 In shamatha-vipashyana meditation, we sit upright with legs crossed and eyes open, hands resting on our thighs. We simply become aware of our breath as it goes out. We are not grasping or fixating on it, but instead we are opening and letting it mix with the space around us. #4 The lojong practice is based on the notion that we can make friends with what we reject, and that we can share our joy and insights with others. It encourages us to embrace what we experience, instead of fearing that it will end.
