Terry C. Jones

Safe Harbor K. Sinko, 2023-06-20 Melanie's twin brother made a life-altering mistake, and now her entire world is about to change. After years of getting straight A's at Garrison Prep so she could have a shot at getting into Yale, Melanie's parents announce they are moving to Haverport, a small beach town off the Connecticut coast, to give her brother Duncan a fresh new start. Skeptical that anything will actually change at home, Melanie decides to spend that summer before her senior year working at the local ice cream shop, Scoops By The Sea, where she meets Calvin-tall, broody, and pretty much on a mission to make Melanie's training absolutely miserable. Yet while her job and the people at Scoops were meant to be a distraction from her life that was falling apart, Melanie finds them to be a lifeline in the torrential sea of terror she faces at home. And even if Calvin may seem reclusive, Melanie soon learns what it means to truly open up her heart and share the pain that torments her, especially when disaster completely shatters her life once again. Safe Harbor is a sweet young adult romance featuring the intensity of two people falling in love for the first time, a pack of fiercely loving co-workers that feel like family, and a small town that has an obsession for festivals, fireworks, bonfires, and 32 delicious flavors of ice cream.

Call Of The Loon K. Sinko, 2025-06-05 It's 2020. Tea Richards sold off all of her apartment furniture and watched her master's graduation on Zoom, with no future job prospects and nowhere to go. Her mother is on the front lines working at hospitals to fight the disease, so going home to New Jersey wouldn't be safe. Instead, her mother suggests joining her grandparents at their cabin up at Silver Falls in Minnesota for the summer, a place she has avoided since her last visit when she was eighteen. It's the only choice she has, even if it forces her to finally face her grief. But at least there's open air, blue skies, golden sunsets, and less people she'll have to deal with. Until the boy next door knocks on the screen door. Archer Vincent has spent every summer at the lake helping his family run Wild Pines Resort, and this year is his first as the resort's manager. But throw a global pandemic into the mix, and nothing seems to be going to plan. Especially now that Tea Richards is back for the summer, and even though he hasn't seen her in years, his boyhood crush on her remains. Despite his best made plans to keep everyone at the resort safe, Archer can't help breaking his own rules over and over again, all so he can get one step closer to the girl that got away. Set during the highs and lows of that first summer during the COVID-19 pandemic, Call Of The Loon is a heart wrenching tale of what happens after you lose everything you once loved, and to follow your heart when a far off call leads you back home.
