The Magicians Songs And Stories vol 1 Rachel Lawson, 2024-05-14 The Magicians stories and songs lyrics by Rachel Lawson Good Quotes from : The People From The Center of the Earth Good Quotes from : The People From The Center of the Earth Glad you are open-minded most people just say I'm mad to believe in the star people! said the Chicken. I believe in aliens! said Blake. You do? said the Chicken his eyes widening. Of course we are aliens how could I not believe in us? said the not-so-human Blake. I am not a Flat Earther or a hollow Earther. Nobody lives in the center of any planet, said Blake. Blake the Star People are real! said the Masked Chicken. No they aren't real still! said Blake. The Chicken pushed a News Paper at Blake. Aliens from the center of the Earth take the Human race to court for ownership of the planet! Blake read. Did you get this made as a joke? asked Blake. I never thought I'd say this to anyone! Blake said, Take me to your leader? Who are you human I don't bother my leader with the rabble, said the star person. Because I am Alexandrite Argent the Chief Justice of Sapphirus Argent, said Blake. Whose that? asked the star person. He's my Grandfather he's only the Emperor of the Universe! said Blake getting impatient with the star person. I will judge your case, said Blake. You are biased, said the supreme leader. Yes but without me, your case cannot be legally judged I am the only one who can judge Planetary cases, said Blake. What's wrong with him, said the supreme leader seeing Lance's Emo son. Oh him he's just the Prince of Darkness, said Lance off-handedly. Hey! snapped the offended Emo. Why are everyone happy these strangers want to evict humans from the Earth? Jnr asked. It's our planet! said the Supreme Leader.

Walking home together after the meal, they watch in horror as Stephen is knocked down and critically injured in what Gamache knows is no accident, but a deliberate attempt on the elderly man's life. When a strange key is found in Stephen's possession it sends Armand, his wife Reine-Marie, and his former second-in-command at the Sûreté, Jean-Guy Beauvoir, from the top of the Tour d'Eiffel, to the bowels of the Paris Archives, from luxury hotels to odd, coded, works of art. It sends them deep into the secrets Armand's godfather has kept for decades. A gruesome discovery in Stephen's Paris apartment makes it clear the secrets are more rancid, the danger far greater and more imminent, than they realized. Soon the whole family is caught up in a web of lies and deceit. In order to find the truth, Gamache will have to decide whether he can trust his friends, his colleagues, his instincts, his own past. His own family. For even the City of Light casts long shadows. And in that darkness devils hide.

Am I just a shadow you drew? Am I just a shadow you drew? am I just a ghost you never knew? am I only a dream in your mind? why were you so unkind? If I am only a nightmare of your sleepless night, I am lost in your world of terror and fright. Am I just a shadow you drew?

Drumbeat John Martino,2021-05-03 As the twenty-first century unfolds society is confronted with the normalization of warfare and political violence and their growing allure for the young. Current global political events highlight the extent to which young people have become the target of both State and non-State actors in the prosecution of war and terror. The conduct of what we can refer to as social war has increasingly come to target the young through media (social media, the internet and video games) and more directly through acts of violence (the massacre of children, the reliance on child soldiers, and the use of children in martyrdom operations) as legitimate forms of conduct. The appropriation of the young as political and military materials through the processes of both radicalization and militarization warrants close examination. Drumbeat examines these issues within the context of the ongoing process of militarization and the establishment of a state of perpetual warfare. The book distinguishes between radicalization, which refers to the application of propaganda and ideological methods by non-State agents, and militarization, which refers to the application of propaganda and ideological methods by State agents in order to effectively prosecute war. The focus of this book will be an examination of the mechanisms through which forms of media and other digital and web-based artefacts – social media, video and video games – assist in the militarization and radicalization of the young. There is a growing body of evidence which points to the effectiveness of various forms of media in both the recruitment of young people and the promotion of ideological frames. For example, non-State actors (extremist religious groups and the Alt-Right) have been highly effective in appropriating new media to project their propaganda messages and their appeal to young people. The book also argues that militarization has become a powerful societal force, which is re-configuring the daily conduct of life in the West. Just as radicalization seeks to prepare the young for the conduct of war, militarization also functions to position the broader society for war. This is a new form of the civilizing process to which Norbert Elias referred. In this context new media provides the conduits through which this process is legitimized, celebrated and promulgated.

The Locket And The Thief And Other Stories Rachel Lawson,2023-11-05 Reworked Omnibus of stories from Rachel Lawson's The Magicians series, such as this Dark Fantasy-Gothic short story; The Locket And The Thief What if you lost the last physical thing that reminds you of a lost beloved child through theft, and it happens to be found upon the body of the now dead thief, and it is now in the hands of the police would you if you had access to would you take it back? Is stealing back your own stolen thing, really theft or is it? This is the situation where this coroner, Blake, finds himself in. On a lonely quiet misty night after midnight in Melbourne, anything can happen and it did. At that hour, only the reckless and unprincipled wander around. On such a night as this, a straggler from a theatre was wandering in the cool calming night remembering a lost daughter who he'd lost many years ago on a night like this. This day, to be exact, 28 years earlier. She was murdered with her husband as they walked the street he was in. He came as he always did this night to lay a rose for them. He did so unbothered, for all the times he had come. Before that night. He pulled out an old locket and looked at it sadly and opened it, looking at the pictures inside it. They were his daughter and her husband. The father pulled a red rose from his inside coat pocket and lay the rose on the wet road. As the father knelt laying the rose there was a noise nearby on the road like a splash in the puddle, he looked up and saw a man with a gun trained on him.
