A Message of Love Ms. Sandra,2015-07-29 Are you searching for real love? Do you have dreams and goals that you have not yet accomplished? This book will guide you on love, what it is and what it is not. Guided activities at the end of each chapter will help us with the understanding of true love. Our lives are journeys, filled with purpose and promise. We must be diligent, get over ourselves, and help one another. We can start by refocusing on all areas of our lives at the beginning, with love. A Message of Love will help us refocus on what is really important to ensure that we live happy and healthy lives. My heart goes out to so many people. I talk to many people about love and the common phrase that I often summarize as I am searching for love. My challenge to them is Do you know what love is? As we search for love, we are really and truly searching for God because, simply put, He is love. Once we grasp that He is love, He is all we need and all we should desire, everything else in our lives will fall into place. So, I challenge everyone in search for love to stop searching and focus on building a relationship with God. He will show you love, because it is the very essence of Him.
