Learn how to apply the main ideas and principles from the original book in a quick, easy read! We live in a culture that highlights the importance of democratic values, of fitting into a group, of knowing how to cooperate with other people. We are constantly trained and prepared for peace, but we're not at all prepared for the perpetual war that we must fight in the real world. This war occurs not only on the military battlefield, but on multiple levels of society. In business, politics, sports, even the arts, we find ourselves facing ruthless opponents that are willing to do anything to gain an edge. More troubling, however, are the battles we face with those who claim to be on our side--those who seem to play the team game, who act friendly and agreeable, only to sabotage us behind the scenes, to use the group to secure their own selfish interests. On the surface everything seems peaceful and harmonious, but just below it, it is often every man and woman for themselves. Our culture may deny this reality, but we all know it and feel it in our daily lives. As equally important as The 48 Laws of Power and The Art of Seduction, The 33 Strategies of War by Robert Greene is a comprehensive guide to human interaction which reveals how the most ingenious and effective principles of warfare can be applied to the battles and conflicts of everyday life. Each chapter is a strategy aimed at solving a particular problem that you will often encounter in your daily struggles. The strategies range from the basic strategies of classical warfare to the dirty and unconventional strategies of modern times, and can be applied to struggles of any kind: organized warfare, business campaigns, the politics of a group, or personal relationships. SELF-DIRECTED WARFARE War, like any kind of conflict, is waged and won through strategy, which originates from your mind. A mind that is weak—that gets easily distracted and overwhelmed by emotion, is rooted in the past instead of the present, and cannot see the world for what it is—will only create strategies that always miss the mark. 1. DECLARE WAR ON YOUR ENEMIES There are always people out there who are more ruthless, devious, and aggressive than you are. These types might seem charming and cooperative, but their greed has no limits, and they're simply trying to disarm you. With such people, there is no middle ground, no hope of conciliation. Know these dangerous enemies by their past: look for quick power grabs, sudden rises in fortune, or previous acts of treachery. Once you suspect you are dealing with such an enemy, do not lay down your arms. You are the last line of your own defense. Always keep the search for enemies under control—you want clarity, not paranoia. It is the downfall of many tyrants to see an enemy in everyone. They become hopelessly embroiled in the emotions fueled by their paranoia and lose their grip on reality. By keeping an eye on possible enemies, you are simply being... To be continued...
