Program Notes for the Solo Tuba Gary Bird, 1994-07-22 This volume is a guide to 88 of the most important works for the solo tuba. Most of the program notes were written by the composers themselves; a few, describing works by composers who are now deceased, were contributed by distinguished musicians familiar with these compositions and their composers' styles. Program Notes for the Solo Tuba includes works for the tuba alone, tuba and piano, and tuba with other types of accompaniment - woodwind quartet, string quartet, orchestra, etc. Each entry gives the name of the publisher; the dates of composition, publication, and premiere; the titles of the movements; the instrumentation; the history of the piece; and a description of its musical structure and characteristics.

A College Level Tuba Curriculum Geoffrey Ian Whitehead, 2003 This study begins with a brief history of the tuba, focusing on its development from its instrumental precursors, as well as the development of solo and ensemble literature for the tuba. The second chapter contains an in-depth study of pedagogical techniques and materials required for the implementation of a college level tuba program. It contains essential technical information such as tone production articulation concepts, etc., as well as essential administrative information such as grading procedures, equipment choices, etc. The final section contains annotated tuba literature lists, divided into solo, orchestral, band, and etude works, and a listing of solo tuba recordings.
