Natural Skincare Barbara Beccaria, 2013-06-04 What Would You Say If You Could Have Clearer Skin In As Little As 24 Hours? Discover The Secrets That Celebrities, Models, and Actors All Use To Create and Maintain Beautiful and Vibrant Skin Without The Use of Expensive Cosmetics Expert in Dermatology Spills All Secrets On How You Too Can Have Beautiful Skin! Learn all the secrets of Natural Skincare from Barbara Beccaria. Lets face facts. No matter how good we are in the inside it's the way we look on the outside that people judge us by. The first thing we notice when we talk to someone is their face. In our society beauty is valued over other attributes. Studies have proven that those who are beautiful get further in their careers, earn more money, and ultimately live a better life. Unfortunately in our quest for beauty we are often preyed upon by skin-care professionals who sell us products that don't even work for us and chemical products that may even be harmful to our bodies. Is harming our own bodies worth the price of beauty? To prove my point let me tell you a story that one of my clients told me when she first met me. One day while my client was in a shopping center she noticed one of those mini-kiosks with skin care products from the top-brands in the industry. Out of curiosity, and from frustration with her acne problems she decided to check it out. She read the sign Free Consultation from afar so she believed she truly had nothing to lose. After being consulted with an expert dermatologist my client was told to sit down in a chair for a skin reading. The expert dermatologist strapped on some gloves and took out a testing kit to perform the skin evaluation. After 5 minutes of probing and touching her skin the dermatologist concluded that my client had moderate to severe acne and she recommended her company's acne line as a solution. What happened next no one could have predicted... The dermatologist gave my client a sample-kit to test their line before committing to a purchase and my client decided to have the dermatologist use the sample kit right then and there. At first my client noticed a strange, burning sensation but the dermatologist assured her that was normal and it was simply the product working it's magic deep into her pores. Shortly after the dermatologist wiped off the product off my client's face and my client was free to go. 15 minutes later my client started to scratch vigorously at her face and hives were forming out. She was having an allergic reaction Fortunately my client ended up being okay, and when she first met me we set her up on a real skin regimen but the message is still the same. What Is The True Price to Pay For Perfect Skin? I am sure you've guessed by now that the dermatologist in the shopping center wasn't even a real dermatologists. Did you know that over 75% of those claiming to be a skin-care professional in these shopping centers and malls aren't even legit.

Why put your skin, the biggest organ in the human body, at risk with shoddy marketers? Actors, Celebrities, and Models are in the spotlight 24/7 and you rarely see them with a tick or blemish. Hundreds of people have used my skin care secrets to get the skin that they've desired for years. Confidence, Self-Esteem, Positivity, Ambition, Success, these are just a few of the words used to describe the after-effects of how people felt with clear and vibrant skin. By following the regimens Barbara Beccaria has laid out in this easy-to-read book you can become your own expert skin doctor today. No more going to weekly expensive facial visits No more chemical products that may be doing more harm than good No more bad skin! You owe it to yourself to have the skin you've always wanted, and when you see how much we are offering our skin care guide for you'll jump for joy
