Bloodline Deliverance Mike and Andrea Brewer,

BAPTISM AND FULLNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT JENUS JUNIMEN, 2024-09-18 In contemporary Christianity, there seems to be no common ground regarding the view of the baptism of the Holy Spirit between the two major streams of today, namely the Pentecostal and the Reformed Protestant churches. Both appear to be at odds, making it seem almost impossible to find a meeting point in terms of both the concept and practice of the baptism of the Holy Spirit itself. The Holy Spirit indeed works dynamically and actively in this New Testament era, but is it wrong if the Holy Spirit works “a little differently” or “more variably” compared to the time of the Apostles in the first century, as written in the New Testament? Is it true that someone baptized with the Holy Spirit must be marked by speaking in tongues? What are the characteristics of a person baptized with the Holy Spirit? Does a person filled with the Holy Spirit have to speak in tongues? Are the tongues in the book of Acts (Chapter 2 about the day of Pentecost) the same as in 1 Corinthians 12 and 14? Are tongues still present, or have they ceased in today's times? Is it permissible to speak in tongues during church services? Are tongues meant only for private prayer, or can they also be used in corporate worship? Are manifestations of the Holy Spirit, such as falling to the floor and body trembling, wrong? Can tongues be learned? Is it appropriate to make speaking in tongues a requirement for someone to serve in the church? Is speaking in tongues a sign of a person's spirituality? What about the other gifts of the Holy Spirit? This book aims to provide a proper understanding of the baptism of the Holy Spirit, offering clear explanations regarding the baptism of the Spirit, speaking in tongues, and other dynamic works of the Holy Spirit in today's era. This book will inevitably present differences that might raise some debates. However, the goal is not to show which stream is right or wrong but to enrich our perspectives on the baptism of the Holy Spirit itself.
