"You're keeping well" vs "You keep doing well" Feb 23, 2016 · No, they mean different things. "Keeping well" means "keeping healthy". So "I hope you're keeping well" is a slightly old fashioned greeting. It might be addressed to an older person (for whom being "well" might be in some doubt). I can't imagine a child using it with their friends. To "keep doing well" is not an idiom. "Well" is the adverb related to "good". The ... "I'm rubber; you're glue" - English Language Learners Stack ... Aug 11, 2019 · I don't really understand the rubber and glue reference in the idiom: I'm rubber, you're glue. Whatever you say bounces off me and sticks to you. since as we all know glue does stick on rubber. difference - You look good vs You are looking good - English ... How do I look? How am I looking? Both are grammatical and fine to use in conversation. I use "looking good" when I'm encouraging someone to keep doing whatever it is they're doing. For example, "You're looking good! The time you're spending at the gym is making a difference." or "You're looking good in the ring Ali, just watch out for Frazier's left hook." (a boxing reference if ... Which is the correct one "You idiot" OR "you're an idiot" Apr 2, 2019 · "You idiot" OR "You're an idiot" I want to know which one is correct because in the first one there is no auxiliary verb. As I know if I wanted to say that someone is like someone/thing I'll say... word choice - "You gonna" vs "you're gonna." - English Language ... For the usage "you are," "You're gonna" is more common. "You gonna" is not unheard of but it's pretty sloppy. Note that in some situations, like ebonics, "you gonna" is considered perfectly natural if not grammatical. The more casual the situation, the more you gonna hear "you gonna." Note also that these two words, "you" and "you're" sound similar. You gonna find situations ... Reply to someone who says "you are the best" [closed] Someone appreciated my work and wrote "You are the best, thanks." As it's currently written, it's hard to tell exactly what you're asking. Which one is right? "You've been doing great!" or "You are doing ... Sep 26, 2020 · As I mentioned in my comment, the usage depends in reference to the context of where it is used. Both sentences are grammatically correct and can be used. But then again, it depends on where you are using it. You are doing great. This sentence uses present continuous tense. It represents an action that is happening now and might continue in the near future. You ... "You are" vs. "you're" — what is the difference between them? Sep 22, 2017 · There is no difference. You are is normally contracted to you're in speech, because English doesn't like two vowels without a consonant to separate them, and one of them gets deleted. Either you're or you are can be used; speaker's choice. The same thing applies to I'm, he's, she's, we're, and they're, among other contractions. It's just colloquial English, that's all.
