Friedrich Schleiermacher's Philosophy of Religion Stefan Lang, Klaus Viertbauer, 2025-07-09 This volume provides a comprehensive account of Friedrich Schleiermacher's philosophy of religion. The contributors cover the historical context of Schleiermacher's work, specific aspects of his philosophy of religion, and the ways that his work can contribute to contemporary debates. Friedrich Schleiermacher is considered one of the outstanding representatives of 19th-century Protestant theology. This volume brings together scholars from both continental and analytic traditions to explore Schleiermacher's preeminent role in post-Kantian philosophy of religion. The chapters are divided into three thematic sections. The first section situates Schleiermacher in the context of the 18th- and 19th-century philosophy of religion. These chapters analyze his relation to thinkers such as Kant, Fichte, Hegel, Schelling, and also to Kierkegaard and Heidegger, as well as to prominent theologians in the Protestant and Catholic traditions. The second section explores different aspects of Schleiermacher's philosophy of religion such as absolute dependence or religious feeling. Finally, the third section addresses how Schleiermacher's insights can contribute to contemporary philosophy of religion. These chapters address current debates, particularly on religious experience, feminism, and philosophy of emotions. Friedrich Schleiermacher's Philosophy of Religion will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of religion, history of philosophy, and 19th-century religious thought.

The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy Burt Hopkins, Steven Crowell, 2015-03-24 The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy provides an annual international forum for phenomenological research in the spirit of Husserl's groundbreaking work and the extension of this work by such figures as Scheler, Heidegger, Sartre, Levinas, Merleau-Ponty and Gadamer.

Philosophy, Phenomenology, Sciences Carlo Ierna, Hanne Jacobs, Filip Mattens, 2011-02-01 The present volume contains many of the papers presented at a four-day conference held by the Husserl-Archives in Leuven in April 2009 to commemorate the one hundred and fortieth anniversary of Edmund Husserl's birth. The conference was organized to facilitate the critical evaluation of Husserl's philosophical project from various perspectives and in light of the current philosophical and scientific climate. Still today, the characteristic tension between Husserl's concrete and detailed descriptions of consciousness, on the one hand, and his radical philosophical claim to ultimate truth and certainty in thinking, feeling, and acting, on the other, calls for a sustained reflection on the relation between a Husserlian phenomenological philosophy and philosophy in general. What can phenomenological reflection contribute to the ongoing discussion of certain perennial philosophical questions and which philosophical problems are raised by a phenomenological philosophy itself? In addition to addressing the question of the relation between phenomenology and philosophy in general, phenomenology today cannot avoid addressing the nature of its relation to the methods and results of the natural and human sciences. In fact, for Husserl, phenomenology is not just one among many philosophical methods and entirely unrelated to the sciences. Rather, according to Husserl, phenomenology should be a "first philosophy" and should aim to become the standard for all true science.

Romanian Studies in Philosophy of Science Ilie Pârvu, Gabriel Sandu, Iulian D. Toader, 2015-05-29 This book presents a collection of studies by Romanian philosophers, addressing foundational issues currently debated in contemporary philosophy of science. It offers a historical survey of the tradition of scientific philosophy in Romania. It examines some problems in the foundations of logic, mathematics, linguistics, the natural and social sciences. Among the more specific topics, it discusses scientific explanation, models, and mechanisms, as well as memory, artifacts, and rules of research. The book is useful to those interested in the philosophy of real science, but also to those interested in Romanian philosophy.

Logic in the Husserlian Context Johanna Maria Tito, 1990 Tito defines the relationship between the formal structure of Husserlian logic and experience.

Wittgenstein and Nietzsche Shunichi Takagi, Pascal F. Zambito, 2023-12-19 This volume brings together essays that explore the intersections between Nietzsche and Wittgenstein from various perspectives. While some chapters focus on the philological and biographical connections of Wittgenstein's reading of Nietzsche, others reflect on the ideas that are implicitly shared by the two thinkers. For Nietzsche and Wittgenstein, philosophy is inextricably connected to ethics and the arts and therefore takes a peculiar method that differs from the sciences. Nevertheless, their thinking strives for knowledge and truth by means of discursive text forms, however unconventional they may be. The first group of chapters contextualize explicit references to Nietzsche in Wittgenstein's writings and clarify their philosophical function. In Part II, the contributors take a philosophical problem as their starting point and show how it can be illuminated by comparing or contrasting Wittgensteinian and Nietzschean arguments and methods. Together the chapters trace Nietzsche's influence on Wittgenstein's thought concerning the critique of language, ethics, aesthetics, religion, and philosophical method. Wittgenstein and Nietzsche will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in the history of philosophy and intellectual history.

A History of Greek Philosophy: The Presocratic tradition from Parmenides to Democritus. The Eleatics William Keith Chambers Guthrie, 1965

Habitus des Denkens - Prüfstein des Glaubens Angeline van Doveren-Kersten, 2018 Entgegen der negativen Bestimmung von Verzweiflung, die in der Theologie als Anlass zum Sprung in den Glauben instrumentalisiert wird, betrachtet Van Doveren Verzweiflung als Habitus des Denkens und befragt sie nach ihrem Potenzial für den religiösen Glauben. Indem sie die negative Bestimmung von Verzweiflung aufschiebt, sucht sie nach einer Alternative für die Instrumentalisierung von Verzweiflung, die über die Skylla und Charybdis von Rationalismus und Fideismus hinausführt.

The School of Franz Brentano L. Albertazzi, M. Libardi, R. Poli, 2013-04-17 The central idea developed by the contributors to this book is that the split between analytic philosophy and phenomenology - perhaps the most important schism in twentieth-century philosophy - resulted from a radicalization of reciprocal partialities. Both schools of thought share, in fact, the same cultural background and their same initial stimulus in the thought of Franz Brentano. And one outcome of the subsequent rift between them was the oblivion into which the figure and thought of Brentano have fallen. The first step to take in remedying this split is to return to Brentano and to reconstruct the 'map' of Brentano's thought. The second task (which has been addressed by this book) is to revive interest in the theoretical complexity of Brentano's thought and of his pupils and to revitalize those aspects that have been neglected by subsequent debate within the various movements of Brentanian inspiration. We have accordingly decided to organize the book into two introductory essays followed by two sections (Parts 1 and 2) which systematically examine Brentano's thought and that of his followers. The two introductory essays reconstruct the reasons for the 'invisibility', so to speak, of Brentano and set out of his philosophical doctrine. Part 1 of the book then examines the essential features of six of Brentano's most outstanding pupils (Marty, Stumpf, Meinong, Ehrenfels, Husserl and Twardowski). Part 2 contains nine essays concentrating on the principal topics addressed by the Brentanians.

Ancient and Medieval Theories of Intentionality Dominik Perler, 2021-08-16 This volume analyses ancient and medieval theories of intentionality in various contexts: perception, imagination, and intellectual thinking. It sheds new light on classical theories (e.g. by Aristotle and Thomas Aquinas) and examines neglected sources, both Greek and Latin. It includes contributions by J. Biard, M. Burnyeat, V. Caston, D. Frede, R. Gaskin, E. Karger, C. Michon, D. O'Meara, C. Panaccio, R. Pasnau, D. Perler, Ch. Rapp, P. Simons, R. Sorabji, and H. Weidemann.

Gesammelte Aufsätze A. Schutz, 2012-12-06 Im vorliegenden Band ist eine Reihe von Aufsätzen zusammengefasst, in denen Alfred Schütz sich bei der Behandlung verschiedener Fragen immer wieder einem der wichtigsten philosophischen Probleme zuwendet: dem Problem der Sozialität. Der Grossteil dieser Aufsätze ist bereits anderswo erschienen: doch sind sie weit verstreut und oft schwer zugänglich. Alfred Schütz hatte Maurice Natanson, seinen Schüler und Freund, als Herausgeber der zahlreichen Schriften, die seit seiner Ankunft in den Vereinigten Staaten Anfang des 2. Weltkriegs entstanden sind, vorgesehen. Er konnte die Verwirklichung dieses Vorhabens nicht mehr miterleben. Die Herausgabe seiner Schriften, die wir mit diesem Band in getreuer Befolgung seiner Anweisungen beginnen, soll einen Denker, dem wir freundschaftlich verbunden waren, in angemessener Weise ehren und dazu beitragen, seine hervorragende Bedeutung für die Phänomenologie herauszustellen - eine Bedeutung, die auf Grund der dramatischen Umstände seines Lebens und wegen seiner grossen Bescheidenheit zu seinen Lebzeiten nicht hinreichend gewürdigt wurde. Ich möchte hier von Schütz als Menschen sprechen und die Feinsinnigkeit seines Geistes darstellen, seine durchdringende Ironie, die Gelassenheit und seinen Mut in der Emigration, den weiten Bereich seiner Interessen, seine jugendhafte Begeisterung und das Einfühlungsvermögen, das ihn befähigte, sich noch im Alter von 40 Jahren in eine neue Kulturwelt einzuleben - und sich in ihr auszuzeichnen. In der Befürchtung, nicht alles sagen zu können, was zu sagen wäre, bezw.
