Book of Edward Christian Mythology (Volume III: Itching Christian Ears) Edward G. Palmer,2005-06 Today, Christianity is steeped in mythology and Christians are unwittingly headed towards Hell instead of Heaven. They are far away from God and HIS Word. How would you answer these three questions: 1) Do you pray to Jesus? 2) Do you worship Jesus? 3) Do you give all the glory to Jesus? If you've answered yes to even one, you do not know God, HIS only human begotten Son or HIS Word. Many Christians have been programmed with mythology as explained in 2 Timothy and 2 Thessalonians. However, Jesus taught: 1) Pray to God the Father [Matthew 6:6]. 2) Worship only God the Father [Matthew 4:10]. 3) That he comes in his Father's glory [Mark 8:38]. Inside Volume III (Itching Christian Ears), you'll learn that prophecy is fulfilled in Christianity today through the apostate teachings on healing, who owns the church, tithing, abortion, sexuality, and politics. You'll also learn why it is mythology that everyone gets to go to Heaven. Let Scripture educate your heart. Volume III of a four volume set that deals with Faith, Prophecy and Christology. Over 1367 Scriptures are cited and there are 238 illustrations/tables/lists in the entire four volume set.

Before 30 Discipleship English Version Philip Mantofa, Mulyadi Budiyo, M.A, Robert Kusnadi Bsc., Maria Lusiana M.Pd., 2024-02-01 It is my heart's desire to see the rise of this generation, burning with fires of revival. A generation that hungers for the presence of the Holy Spirit and a personal encounter with Christ. A generation that is filled with power to do mighty works: to heal the sick, to mend the wounded, to help the poor, and to be an answer for the nation's. A generation whose work and influence are not bounded only within the church vicinity—rather, their impact can be felt by their immediate families, communities at-large, the entire nation, and even by other nations. Churches will experience revival, school and campuses will be filled with an excellent generation, the market place will be revamped with trustworthy leaders, the nation's will rise up from economic, social, cultural setbacks - and shine. I dream to see history being altered by this superior generation. I want to invite you to share the same dream with me in this journey of faith. A journey that alters the history of a generation and nation. Will the dream come true? The answer is with you and me. When we decide to respond to God's calling, be faithful in everything that we do, walk in His holiness and plan, we will see God work wonders. Through this discipleship book, I believe that a new generation will rise and light up the nation. The principles contained in this book emanate from my direct personal experience with God. It is not a theoretical teaching, but a walk of faith that I have gone through with Him. I want to share my life experience with you and invite you to join in. Prepare your luggage, fasten your seat belt, we will fly together and enter God's training camp—and come out as history changers! Yours for revival. Ps. Philip Mantofa

The Collapse of the Local Church Dr. Lazaro Vega-Sanabria, 2024-09-06 Having retired after a teaching career of more than thirty years, having taught across multiple grade levels and various content areas, The Collapse of the Church: Reversing the Challenges That Threaten the Gospel Message is the product of an enriching ministry experience in the local church, having served as a teacher, deacon, and pianist for both Spanish-speaking and English-speaking congregations. It is a research-based study with a pragmatic and practical perspective on the current needs and issues of the believers of the twenty-first century. The gospel message is clear, and the members of the body of Christ have a responsibility to encourage one another and build each other up (1 Thess. 5:11 NIV). The message of our Lord Jesus Christ is as real today as it was centuries ago: I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest (John 4:35 NIV), and this includes believers in the local churches. Many believers in the local congregations need the support of other members of the body of Christ, an attitude and practice that has been neglected and abandoned for superficial religious activities. Observe and listen to their silent cries as revealed in The Collapse of the Church: Reversing the Challenges That Threaten the Gospel Message. Jesus knew the importance of reaching out to those who were in distress, debilitated, and desolate: Now he had to go through Samaria (John 4:4 NIV). In Samaria, he met the Samaritan woman, and through her, her village and her town received the good news about the Messiah: Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony (John 4:39 NIV). His own disciples were blind to her need; they were subject to the day's misconceptions and misinterpretations and biases. Many believers in the local congregations are experiencing similar hurts. Paul said, Carry each other's burdens, and, Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers (Gal. 6:2, 10 NIV). The Collapse of the Church: Reversing the Challenges That Threaten the Gospel Message is an invitation to attend to the needs of individuals who have been abandoned, forgotten, and rejected by addressing their spiritual, social, emotional, psychological, and financial needs. Solomon said, Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to act (Prov. 3:27-28 NIV).

The Noah Chronicles Lambert Sands,2014 Without doubt, judgment is here! As in the days of Noah-when torrential rains flooded the earth and destroyed every living creature, leaving only Noah, his family, and the animal inhabitants of the Ark-our end-time religious apostasy has devastated the church, leaving few spiritual survivors. Noah found grace and mercy in his time, and we must also. Gospel-truth Demonstrated George Fox,1706

To Know Him Is to Love Him Gloria Marcella Perry-Hewitt,2024-04-29 Christianity among the African people, whether on the soil of Africa or in diaspora, is perceived and defined differently by different people. For instance, among African traditional religious people and Muslims, Christianity is a foreign religion that must not be allowed to thrive in Africa. To several Africans who profess Jesus, Christianity is good, but it is not adequate and effective enough to handle all human needs. Still, among some Western Christians and missionaries, African Christianity is superficial and lacks total commitment to Christ. Of course, the Africans are a cultural people with profound religious inclinations. Their traditional religion (ATR) has tremendously shaped their worldviews and socioeconomic and political activities. Consequently, when traditional Africans are converted to Christianity, they do not break ties with their traditional religions completely. The examination of relevant biblical texts on syncretism, however, reveals that God condemns the worship of many gods and places a curse on anyone who offers sacrifices to carved images and bows to them in worship. Therefore, this work investigates the root cause of religious syncretism among African people. In the attempt to find answers to why the average African Christian finds it difficult, if not impossible, to abandon his/her traditional religious belief systems completely to embrace Christianity, the author concludes that unless the issues surrounding the African forgotten and secret covenants are exposed and decisively addressed in the light of biblical teaching, syncretism will continue to be a stigma on the fabric of African Christianity. Therefore, to overcome the threats of syncretism in African Christianity, there is a need to establish a sound theological and missiological framework that can address the problems associated with the African worldviews and belief systems. This task must be carried out under the searchlight of Scriptures.
