structure - Does "save time" go with "on something" and "Ving" to ... Jun 9, 2024 · "saving time on (something)" means shaving time from it, not completely eliminating it. "I can save time on commuting if I take the earlier train, which is an express with fewer stops". But "save time (doing something)" can mean the same, but also to eliminate it. "I can save time doing laundry if I join a nudist colony". prepositions - Care off/for/about something or somebody - English ... What is the difference between Care of something or somebody Care for something or somebody Care about something or somebody It seems to me there's no the difference. Defining a project "on", "in", or "about" something Oct 27, 2021 · To raise capital, our company defined a project on/in/about solar panels. For defining the scope of a project, which preposition is correct? Confusion regarding "to doing something" vs. "to do something" Many people are confused with stuff like this. The problem is thinking of to doing as being a unit. To and doing are just two words that might come together accidentally, whereas to do is a unit, a constituent, an infinitive verb with an infinitive complementizer to What's the correct usage of "something of something" and ... BUT parts of a car can also be understood as: the engine, the hood, the roof, the chassis, and not something replaceable as in something you can buy at an auto parts' store. "Need to do something" versus "need doing something" 0 in active sentences we use need to do something while in passive we use need doing. I need to clean my shoes. my shoes need cleaning. Make + someone + something - English Language Learners ... Nov 6, 2020 · Is it correct to say? Can you make me some tea? or Can you fry me some eggs? I already know about "Can you make some tea for me?" etc variation. What's the difference between something and some thing? It has to be something she would like. Another possibility is that the writer uses separate words to emphasize the "thing" part (in contrast to some one). To quote Jim Carrey quoting Shatner from an old "Twilight Zone": There's someone on the wing! Some ... thing! Still, it is rare and the example you quote is more likely a typo than intentional. prepositions - provide something for or to sb - English Language ... Aug 8, 2024 · With transitive provide sth to/for sb, I think answer 2 is closer - to is more about giving or handing off something to someone, while for is more about something being made available to someone. *infinitive vs gerund - to afford doing something - English ...* 1) They can't afford to go out very often. 2) They can't afford going out very often. A native speaker has said that the second usage can be heard in a colloquial speech, but it is incorrect. ...
