BEYOND EMOTIONS - The Path of Positivism Asha Sougajam, 2018-12-09 Helping oneself to think beyond that negativity can accomplish something worth for a lifetime. Sometimes we just got to accept that some things are never going to work out the way we want them to. We just need to pick ourselves up and keep rolling along through life. Let the past live in the past. Let bygones be gone and make space for better and new memories to create. Be gentle to yourself. Our thoughts and emotions are our psychological drama. One has the choice to use it to enhance one's life or to defeat oneself. To grow or to walk towards one's wellbeing and growth, has nothing to do with reality.

Love Letters Sandra Leigh Savage, 2011-09-26 When author Sandra Leigh Savages husband committed suicide in 1997, she went into isolation for a year. In this memoir, she shares her journey from the grief she experienced to her vision of a great new life. Love Letters, a collection of letters begun in September 2010, provides a snapshot of Savages sorrows, joys, and reflections. Through these vignettes, she says her good-byes, notes her thanks, and provides advice for those who may have experienced the death of a spouse. This collection provides insight into how she survived the death of her husband, came to know and believe in the saving grace of God, and made the decision to stay on this earth to fulfill God's wishes. Emotional and self-disclosing, Love Letters shares Savage's personal message of living each day with no regrets. Through her life events, she expresses how placing your trust in the Lord can guide you through life's bad moments and help you to fully appreciate life's good moments.

My Husband Has Died, but That'S Not the Funny Part Debra J. Blood, 2013-02-19 Losing her husband Dennis unexpectedly in 2011, at the young age of 47, Debra was faced with handling grief in the only way she knew how, with strength, grace and much laughter. Debra worked through her tears by posting to her husband each day (for one year) on a social media website after his passing. She credits her seeing the light of day by sharing funny stories of their time together and walking through the pain, not alone, but with her ever growing unshakeable faith in God and the resounding love of many who have taken this journey each day with her. Through her stories, her daily blog (thehappywidow.com) and her posts she has used her distinctively unique humor, desire to honor the love of her life, and her ability to tell it like it is to inspire, lift, and encourage others in a way seldom seen. Losing the one you love suddenly is like being put on a roller coaster ride (and I have always hated those). You rise slowly, fall fast, hold on for dear life, and scream not so nice words that you hope those around you didn't hear. But when you get off this ride, while you may not want to buy another ticket, you are so proud of yourself for just being able to say you let go, threw your hands in the air the entire time and you indeed lived through it. You will laugh, you will cry, at times you will pray you never personally know how she truly feels, but after you read this book that was written to her sweet husband Dennis and for her children Timothy and Sarah, you will believe that just maybe there is a way to face death and come out smiling.

A Thought A Day Bottles Belafonte,

Mysticism in Newburyport Peter James Ford, 2023-06-11 MYSTICISM IN NEWBURYPORT is a seven-book series revealing ancient secrets from masters of all cultures along with modern-day breakthroughs by scientists and quantum physicists of our times. These tales began flowing after Peter's powerful spiritual awakening in Newburyport, Massachusetts. Newburyport is a quaint little, historic seaport on the coast of Massachusetts heading towards New Hampshire. Peter had been sober in the 12-step recovery program for many years and had recovered from his alcoholism. Peter's love of Nature had brought him to the Newburyport area. This area is rich with Nature's treasures, Native American Heritage and many tales from the tall cargo ships of olden days. High street was lined with homes of these Sea Captains. Peter's awakening had given him new eyes and new highly evolved senses. Peter was to have powerful past lives experience with his Mystery Woman guide named Layne. Layne was a mystic that would tell people things about themselves that there was no way she could know. She would look you in the eyes and tell you your deepest secrets. She also knew about the Earth's electromagnetic grids and helped Peter understand what he was experiencing in Newburyport. Peter's new heightened senses could feel the electromagnetic flow of energy and the convergence right below Market Square in Newburyport. Market Square was one of the crossroads for these powerful electromagnetic energies that gives life to our planet. Peter was to share the secrets that were revealed to him in his writings.

Breaking Faith E. Graziani, 2017-03-14 Faith Emily Hansen just wants to be loved and to live without the weight of addiction. But the relief that she gets from being wrapped up in the cozy little cotton ball of heroin is impossible to ignore. Faith's story starts in her earliest days, before drugs, before her family falls apart. She eventually becomes consumed by the need to "chase the dragon, the heroin addiction that seems to keep the Darkness at bay, but leads her to live on the street. The determination to find love and comfort that lures Faith to drugs is ultimately the same stubborn force that can drive her to recover.

Navigating COVID-19 Antara Pandit, Dr. Sonali Santhanam, 2022-02-22 COVID-19 has isolated women from friends and family, and the support systems that mothers rely on to deal with anxieties and share in the excitement of pregnancy and parenting. It has created unforeseen and unbearable situations for both mothers and fathers. But it has also been a hidden blessing for many. Navigating COVID-19 is an anthology that highlights the realities of bringing a new life into the world and raising them in the middle of a pandemic, as well as parenting children of all ages while adapting to the 'new normal'. The stories are ones of love, bonding, kindness, compassion, strength, survival, resilience, fear, isolation, stress, panic, anxiety and more. It will empower expecting, new and veteran parents in different ways. There is no better way to inspire others to share their stories than by acknowledging your own and sharing them with the world. It forges the most soulful and fulfilling human connections.

Friending Rosie Judith Wright Favor, 2021-10-15 In alternating voices, Judith Wright Favor and Rosie Alfaro take the reader on a frank, frustrating, and unforgettable journey. Friending Rosie: Respect on Death Row bridges the chasm between souls consigned to life behind bars, and souls enjoying the privileges of freedom. Rosie's letters from Central California Women's Facility, interwoven with Judith's reflections and questions, highlight perspectives from authors of different races, religions, and languages. Marginalized people stifle their stories when there is no one to hear, but mutual listening brings forth accounts of regret, doubt, humiliation, and grace. Some stories describe difficult encounters in prison. Family members with intimate knowledge of Rosie tell their stories. Other tales illustrate surprising parallels in the inner lives of both authors. Judith follows the friendly path of Quakers who began in the 1650s to value women's leadership and befriend prisoners. Rosie grew up Catholic, in a faith tradition that shaped her art and values. Both write stories interwoven with social challenges and spiritual practices intended to support readers in reaching out to persons behind bars. 8-12-20: It's yours, mine, and God's book. I've been lettin people know about our book and about you. People are very interested in our story, and I know this is a start of a great journey. I'm very proud of us, friend... I wanted to tell you that to me this means nothing, but to lots of people who like crime stuff, me being the youngest and the first Latina to get the d. penalty in Calif. is a big deal. I'm personally ashamed of it, but there's people who think it's cool. I love you and you stay safe. Tu Amiga, Rosie Incarcerating our way to safety does not work. Friendships do work. These stories, rooted in caring and respect, offer a warmly satisfying testimony to the power of friending. *****

God Had a Plan Orlan E. Thomas, 2017-10-30 God Had a Plan begins with a genealogy patterned much like the ones found in the Bible, with some early family history interspersed as was available. Once the genealogy is established, the author offers an examination of the seed, referring to the look see into the lives of those who produced the offspring in review. The life and times of the author and his beloved wife Marcella are explored from cradle to adulthood, journeying through his teaching positions and her position as soprano soloist with the Back to the Bible broadcast in Lincoln, Nebraska. Their union of husband and wife was unquestionably a divine appointment, as God truly had a plan. Indeed, education played a big part of Gods plan in each of their lives, though the road to the doctorate at the Eastman School of Music turned out to be a long, arduous trip involving many perils. Gods plan saw the writer through that rigorous quest with scriptural promises that, when claimed, brought deliverance. More than just a simple chronology of dates and facts, this touching autobiography about the authors faith offers guidance and hope to all his readers.
