David Kirk

MODELS - Organizing Engagement The Ladder of Children's Participation describes eight levels of decision-making agency, control, and power that can be given to children and youth by adults. Pathways to Participation - Organizing Engagement The Pathways to Participation model was developed by Harry Shier and first published in Children & Society in 2001. The model builds on Sherry Arnstein's Ladder of Citizen Participation and Roger Hart's Ladder of Children's Participation. Ladder of Children's Participation - Organizing Engagement Like Arnstein's earlier framework, Hart's modified ladder of participation became an influential and widely applied model in the fields of child development, education, civic participation, and democratic decision-making. About - Organizing Engagement About Us Organizing Engagement is an online publication dedicated to advancing knowledge, understanding, and practice at the intersection of education organizing, engagement, and equity.
