Sustainable Poetry Leonard M. Scigaj,2014-07-11 Focusing on the work of A.R. Ammons, Wendell Berry, W.S. Merwin, and Gary Snyder, author Leonard Scigaj shows that just as a sustainable society does not depreciate its resource base, so a sustainable poetry does not restrict interest to language. Over the past thirty years many poets have shown an increasing sensitivity to ecological thinking. But critics trained in poststructuralist language theory often fail to explore the substance of ecopoetry. Scigaj is the first to define ecopoetry as separate and distinct from nature or environmental poetry, marked by its concern with balancing the interests of human beings with the needs of nature. Just as science learned that the earth was not the center of the universe, ecopoetry insists on the recognition that humans are not at the center of the natural world.

Life Door Nancy Lynn Martin, 2009-11 My book Life Door is about balancing mind, body and soul. It includes journal pages after each chapter for you to write your feelings and agreements with yourself on how you are going to change yourself and your life and take care of your unfinished business. Read my simple philosophy of life and write yours in the journal and maybe we can all toss ideas around to heal individually and globally. It is intended for ages 13 to 100 plus! Join me in remembering your childhood dreams and passions and bring them to the surface once again. As long as you just peek into the past and not dwell there, you will learn and relearn things that may need to be changed. You are not going backward-but you are going forward if you learn and grow from the ideas that were put into your head as a child. We all need to act on our dreams and passions and relearn and undo what we were taught as impressionable young people. Gain your power by being aware of: Reactions, thoughts, attitudes, choices, feelings, messages, experiences. Learn the answer to : Why am I here? Journal your feelings to issues such as: Attachment, boundaries, creativity, emotional baggage, forgiveness, gratitude, health, love and relationships, what peace really means to you, spirituality, simplicity, solitude, understanding. A crossword puzzle is included at the end and there are many quotations, book references, stories and even lyrics to connect my simple philosophy of life. Bring your spirituality and new thoughts on life out from within you and feed your mind, body and soul - all of your unfinished business. Healing begins with you.
