The best preparation for IELTS: Writing academic module band 9 Ryan Wright,2015-11-19 BIG DISCOUNT - ONLY for this WEEKEND!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Writing Task 2 is designed to test your ability to write an academic style essay. You must present the information in your own words as complete sentences within paragraphs. You are required to write over 250 words, and the task should be completed in about 40 minutes (both part 1 and 2 must be finished in 1 hour). Types of Topics There are many different topics for essays in the exam, but typical topic areas include: education, crime, media, technology, social issues, technology and the future, and the environment. In this case it makes sense to build up vocabulary in these key areas in order to have sufficient language to write an essay well. Types of Questions There are three main types of essay questions that are included in the IELTS writing exam. It is important to learn how to structure each of these types. Each of these will be described more fully in the sections that follow. Briefly, they are an opinion essay, where you are asked to give your own personal opinion on a topic; a both sides and opinion essay, where you are required to discuss both sides of an argument and then give your own personal opinion on the topic; and a two question essay, which involves responding to two different questions.

GET IELTS BAND 9 In Academic Writing Task 1 Peter Swires, 2025-05-27 If you're taking the IELTS Academic test, are you ready for Writing Task 1? Can you describe a complex data chart in advanced English, comparing the elements and identifying the trends? Can you compare maps or diagrams, or write an essay about a manufacturing process or a flow chart? These are all things you may need to do in Task 1 - and, without practice, they can be difficult for even the strongest IELTS candidates. Written by experienced IELTS examiners, this book gives you a complete set of methods to manage Task 1 and maximise your band score, even if your English contains errors. Presented in clear modules, all the different task types are explained, together with the best ways to create an answer. There are multiple example tasks for each type, each example followed by an analysis of the task, a band 9 model essay, and comments from real IELTS examiners explaining how the essay reached band 9 - and, of course, how you can do the same. The task types covered in the book are: Module A - Data Charts including bar and pie charts, graphs and tables. How to analyse the data, identify trends and exceptions, describe fixed and changing timescales. Module B - Process Pictures including manufacturing and nature. How to sequence processes and use advanced English to paraphrase information. Module C - Flow Charts from organisations and companies. How to describe progressive stages and multiple outcomes. Module D - Maps including cities and locations. How to describe changes in places over timescales and different locations for decision-making. Module E - Plans and Diagrams including buildings and installations. How to describe proposed changes and 'before and after' situations in advanced English. In total, there are 26 example tasks - each with analysis, a band 9 model essay and examiner's advice on reaching band 9 yourself. Each module also has an IELTS practice task for you to start using the methods presented, so that you're ready for the real test. All in all, this book covers everything you need to get the highest score you possibly can in Task 1. This book is part of our popular series of guides on IELTS writing and speaking, which thousands of candidates have used to achieve the score they need. You deserve to join them!
