Luna de lobos Julio Llamazares,2023-01-12 Se aborda en ella, teniendo como escenario la Guerra Civil, el eterno conflicto humano de la animalización del hombre acosado por otros hombres, añadiendo un nuevo protagonista, el huido, el guerrillero maqui. Luna de lobos constituye una punta de lanza contra el olvido que la Transición dispuso alrededor de la represión franquista.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Spanish Civil War Antonio Cazorla-Sanchez, Alison Ribeiro de Menezes, Adrian Shubert, 2023-11-30 In 25 innovative thematic essays, The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Spanish Civil War sees an interdisciplinary team of scholars examine a conflict that, more than 80 years after its conclusion, continues to generate both scholarly and public controversy. Split into four main sections covering Military and Diplomatic Issues, Society and Culture, Politics, and Debates, the volume offers a number of unique features. It is unprecedented in its comprehensiveness and includes chapters on topics that are rarely, if ever, explored in the literature of the field: humanitarianism, children and families, material conditions, the decimation of elites, archives and sources, archaeological approaches, digital approaches, public history, and cultural studies approaches. Instead of discussing each of the two warring sides, Republicans and Francoists, separately, as is so often the case, the book's thematic structure means that these opposing forces are examined together, facilitating comparison and fresh understanding in numerous areas of study. Contributors from the UK, the USA, Canada, Spain and Denmark also analyse the major controversies and disputes surrounding each topic as part of a detailed exploration of one of the seminal events of the 20th century.

Beyond Human Maryanne L. Leone, Shanna Lino, 2023-10-02 Chronicling sixteenth-century Spain to the present day, Beyond Human aims to decentre the human and acknowledge the material historicity of more-than-human nature. The book explores key questions relating to ecological equity, justice, and responsibility within and beyond Spain in the Anthropocene. Examining relations between Iberian cultural practices, historical developments, and ecological processes, Maryanne L. Leone, Shanna Lino, and the contributors to this volume reveal the structures that uphold and dismantle the non-human-human dichotomy and nature-culture divide. The book critiques works from the Golden Age to the twenty-first century in a wide range of genres, including comedia, royal treatises, agricultural reports, paintings, satirical essays, horror fiction and film, young adult and speculative literature, poetry, graphic novels, and television series. The authors contend that Spanish cultural studies must expose the material historicity that entangles today's ecological crises and ecosocial injustices with previous, future, and contemporary entities. The book argues that this will require the simultaneous decentring of the human and of the Anthropocene as an ecocritical framework. By standardizing ecosocial analysis and widening avenues for ecopedagogical approaches, Beyond Human participates in the ecocentric transformation of Hispanic cultural studies.

The New Georgics, 2016-09-12 The human condition in rural, provincial locations is once again gaining status as a subject of European 'high fiction', after several decades in which it was dismissed on aesthetic and ideological grounds. This volume is one of the first attempts to investigate perspectives on local cultures, values and languages both systematically and in a European context. It does so by examining the works of a variety of authors, including Hugo Claus, Llamazares, Bergounioux and Millet, Buffalino and Consolo, and also several Soviet authors, who paint a grim picture of a collectivized - and thus ossified - rurality. How do these themes relate to the ongoing trend of globalization? How do these works, which are often experimental, connect - in their form, topics, language and ideological subtext - to the traditional rural or regional genres? Far from naively celebrating a lost Eden, most of these 'new Georgics' reflect critically on the tensions in contemporary, peripheral, rural or regional cultures, to the point of parodying the traditional topoi and genres. This book is of interest to those wishing to reflect on the dynamics and conflicts in contemporary European rural culture.

Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th – 21st Century Cristina Sánchez-Conejero, 2009-10-02
Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th-21st Century is an exploration of the general concept of "Spanishness" as all things related to Spain, specifically as the multiple meanings of "Spanishness" and the different ways of being Spanish are depicted in 20th-21st century literary and cinematic fiction of Spain. This book also represents a call for a re-evaluation of what being Spanish means not just in post-Franco Spain but also in the Spain of the new millennium. The reader will find treatments of some of the crucial themes in Spanish culture such as immigration, nationalisms, and affiliation with the European Union as well as many others of contemporary relevance such as time, memory, and women studies that defy exclusivist and clear-cut single notions of Spanishness. These explorations will help contextualize what it means to be Spanish in present day Spain and in the light of globalization while also dissipating stereotypical notions of Spain and Spanishness.

The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía,Alex Pinar,2018-05-18 Under the Franco regime (1939-1976), films produced in Spain were of poor quality, promoted the regime's agenda, or were heavily censored. After the dictator's death, the Spanish film industry transitioned into a new era, one in which artists were able to more freely express themselves and tackle subjects that had been previously stifled. Today, films produced in Spain are among the most highly regarded in world cinema. The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films features nearly 300 entries on the written by a host of international scholars and film critics. Beginning with movies released after Franco's death, this volume documents four decades of films, directors, actresses and actors of Spanish cinema. Offering a comprehensive survey of films, the entries address such topics as art, culture, society and politics. Each includes comprehensive production details and provides brief suggestions for further reading. Through its examination of the films of the post-Franco period, this volume offers readers valuable insights into Spanish history, politics, and culture. An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas, The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films will be of interest to students, academics, and the general public alike.

Memory and Trauma in the Postwar Spanish Novel Sarah Leggott,Ross Woods,2013-12-11 In recent years, much Spanish literary criticism has been characterized by debates about collective and historical memory, stemming from a national obsession with the past that has seen an explosion of novels and films about the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship. This growth of so-called memory studies in literary scholarship has focused on the representation of memory and trauma in contemporary narratives dealing with the Civil War and ensuing dictatorship. In contrast, the novel of the postwar period has received relatively little critical attention of late, despite the fact that memory and trauma also feature, in different ways and to varying degrees, in many works written during the Franco years. The essays in this study argue that such novels merit a fresh critical approach, and that contemporary scholarship relating to the representation of memory and trauma in literature can enhance our understanding of the postwar Spanish novel. The volume opens with essays that engage with aspects of contemporary theoretical approaches to memory in order to reveal the ways in which these are pertinent to Spanish novels written in the first postwar decades, with studies on novels by Camilo José Cela, Carmen Laforet, Arturo Barea and Ana María Matute. Its second section focuses on the representation of trauma in specific postwar novels, drawing on elements from trauma studies scholarship to discuss neglected works by Mercedes Salisachs, Dolores Medio and Ignacio Aldecoa. The final essays continue the focus on the theme of trauma and revisit works by women writers, namely Carmen Laforet, Rosa Chacel, Ana María Matute and María Zambrano, that foreground the experiences of female protagonists who are seeking to deal with a traumatic past. The essays in this volume thus propose a new direction for the study of Spanish literature of 1940s, 1950s and early 1960s, enhancing existing approaches to the postwar Spanish novel through an engagement with contemporary scholarship on memory and trauma in literature.

El relato de la Transición. La Transición como relato José Luis Calvo Carilla, Carmen Peña Ardid, Carmen Juan Carlos Ara Torralba, 2013-05-14 Pese a su brevedad -pues apenas abarca una quincena de años-, la Transición política española de la dictadura a la democracia sigue constituyendo en muchos aspectos un tramo temporal complejo y contradictorio que resume y replantea toda la historia colectiva previa. Por otra parte, los problemas que se fraguaron en esos lustros siguen vivos y son objeto de periódicos y nuevos planteamientos que llegan a nuestros días. Esa misma complejidad puede constatarse en los productos culturales y literarios que surgieron aquellos años. Lo demuestran las catas de profundidad de los protagonistas y estudiosos que colaboran en este libro, quienes, desde distintos enfoques y metodologías y a partir de un concepto amplio de relato, clarifican distintas dimensiones, no siempre atendidas, de la literatura y de la vida cultural de la época.

Telling Tales Anne L. Walsh, 2015-04-01 This volume delves deeply into the role played by stories and storytelling in shaping, controlling and mapping present-day Spain, and examines fiction in various manifestations and genres, especially written and filmic. It contrasts such stories and their context with the past, investigating the differences and similarities between spatially and geographically varying narrations in order to tease out the link between the time of telling and the act of living. Throughout the book, scholars look separately at this phenomenon, and their findings reveal a close bond between events occurring in the real world and the relating of fictional stories. Particularly in Spain, the geographic space of interest here, storytelling is used both as catharsis and didactically. Authors and filmmakers find inspiration in everyday occurrences, and, while there is nothing unusual in that, the interest here lies in the consequent transformation of these occurrences into fascinating stories that attempt to make sense of chaotic events, connect those events temporally, and explore the meaning of the consequent coherence. Stories are at the very essence of humanity, be they fictional or based on everyday reality. This collection focuses specifically on Spain where easily identifiable features of history (such as the Spanish Civil War, the Franco Dictatorship, transition, democracy, and the global economic crisis) have had a major impact on everyday life. The narratives emerging show clear evidence of that impact, with an emphasis on such themes as the significance of memory, the impossibility and instability of such memory, the chaotic nature of life, and the place of the nation/state in the psyche of the individual, with emerging themes investigating the role of solidarity and empathy in the empowerment of the individual. This volume is informed by the shift that occurred in the twentieth century towards a world of unstable parameters, whereby whatever knowledge that is received must be questioned as to the extent of its authenticity since that knowledge is always affected by memory, experience, and time, all subjective phenomena in themselves.

Nuevos derroteros de la narrativa española actual Geneviève Champeau, 2011 El siglo nos ha traído nuevos nombres y obras, así como la consolidación de autores con una trayectoria dilatada, pero también el auge de la narrativa breve, del cuento y el microrrelato, además de la predominante novela y de apabullantes superventas. Un grupo de profesores universitarios, entre los que se encuentran muchos de los mejores especialistas europeos en la materia, dan cuenta en este libro de los últimos rumbos de la prosa narrativa en castellano, desde la literatura de la identidad y la memoria hasta el relato documental o reticular, sin olvidarse de la narrativa histórica, los mitos de la cultura popular o la novela gráfica. Quien quiera saber cómo ha sido y cómo es la narrativa española de las últimas décadas encontrará en este volumen una respuesta tan rigurosa como matizada, fundada en el estudio de los principales autores actuales

Archaeologies of Totalitarianism, Authoritarianism, and Repression James Symonds,Pavel Vařeka,2020-08-19 This book offers new insights into the mechanisms of state control, systematic repression and mass violence focused on ethnic, political, class, and religious minorities in the recent past. The geographical and temporal scope of the volume breaks new ground as international scholars foreground how contemporary archaeology can be used to enhance the documentation and interpretation of totalitarian and authoritarian regimes, to advance theoretical approaches to atrocities, and to broaden public understandings of how such regimes use violence and repression to hold on to power.

Literatura española desde 1939 hasta la actualidad Francisco Gutiérrez Carbajo,2011-07-13 Este libro revisa las etapas más ricas que ha experimentado el fenómeno literario en los últimos tiempos. En primer lugar se presenta el contexto político y cultural, señalando lo más característico de las distintas décadas que integran este interesante período, con referencia a la mediación, la recepción y la recreación del hecho literario. A continuación se estudian la novela del exilio y de la posguerra, la realista, la nueva narrativa, la novela de finales del siglo XX y principios del siglo XXI, el relato breve, los principales movimientos poéticos desde 1939 hasta nuestros días y el teatro desde finales de la guerra civil española hasta la actualidad. En este apartado se analizan también las asociaciones y agrupaciones teatrales, las salas alternativas y los grupos independientes. En todos los géneros se presentan las principales aportaciones en catalán, gallego y vasco, se aportan ejemplos de análisis y se insertan textos significativos. Por último se revisan las interconexiones de la literatura con la prensa, la radio, la televisión, el cine y las nuevas tecnologías. En la época actual manifestación artística o literaria se entiende de una manera más completa si se pone en relación con dichos medios.

A New History of Spanish Writing, 1939 to the 1990s Chris Perriam,2000 A New History of Spanish Writing, 1939 to the 1990s explores the diversity of some sixty years of imaginative writing by Spaniards, its interactions with Spain's peculiarly dramatic history since the end of its Civil War, and its wider thematic significance. It covers the famous and canonical texts of the most recent in Modern Spanish literature but also explores areas less well-known outside Spain (essays and editorials, queer narrative, new poetry, comics, and texts of the militant and reactionary Right). More space than is usual in literary histories is allowed for commentary on famous texts, but the book also makes room for the marginalized and for socially contextualized explorations of the interconnectedness of various forms of writing. The overall structure is not chronological but thematic, dealing with abstract and topical issues such as silence, the family, or realism.
