Navarajo Reading is fundamental to every child's growth. It expands their creative experiences and allows them to venture into the unknown. It also expands their vocabulary and develops concepts that are going to help children with communication skills and prepare them for academic success. Reading is the critical foundation for learning. All children should have the opportunity to learn and have the right to excel to the best of their ability, especially in reading. Children come to school with different needs, and because of this, it is a challenge to get through to all of the children. If the expectations are high for everyone, then everyone will have a better chance of reading to their potential. A teacher has to be open to and on the lookout for many ways to teach the same objective because children come to school from different backgrounds, experiences, and abilities. The more the teacher knows of a child's background and language experiences, the more insight there is into his/her learning process. In Learning to Read in English and Spanish Made Easy: A Guide for Teachers, Tutors, and Parents, Susie G. Navarajo shares the unique methods she developed over three decades of teaching reading in the first grade. She also shares experiences she has had in trying to help children with special needs and backgrounds. Her insight and experiences are sure to be of help to anyone who wishes to help children of all ages and abilities.

Constelaciones narrativas de discriminación y resistencia: jóvenes oaxaqueños en contextos migratorios Susana Vargas Evaristo, 2022-12-09 El libro aborda la experiencia de vida de jóvenes descendientes de trabajadores agrícolas en regiones migratorias del Valle de San Quintín, B.C. y Madera y Fresno, en California, con presencia en el mercado de trabajo agrícola al que, por década, se han insertado familias oaxaqueñas procedentes de comunidades rurales. Desde una perspectiva biográfica se analiza el proceso de incorporación de las y los jóvenes oaxaqueños a los contextos migratorios, más allá de las visiones clásicas asimilacionistas o integracionistas. En la narrativa encontramos trayectorias interseccionadas por condiciones de etnicidad, raza, clase y género, que atraviesan la experiencia de los sujetos en el continuo proceso de apropiación de los contextos de llegada y reproducción de su vida cotidiana. Se parte de los estudios de la subalternidad y la poscolonialidad, para plantear el proceso de incorporación de sociedades indígenas en contextos migratorios, desde las condiciones de dominación que históricamente han impactado sus subjetividades; pero también desde la enunciación y posicionamiento con construyen narrativas de resistencia elaboradas por las y los jóvenes como sujetos protagonistas de este estudio.
