Mikaela's Story Kathy Almeida, 2021-10-11 She's cute, adorable, and she's living her life, just the way she wants to. She has her own business selling from her old beat-up truck; produce and flowers that she's grown in her garden, plus old fixable stuff that she's repurposed and now people want and love. So, she has a steady income, a fixer upper house that's over a hundred years old, plus a cat, a dog, a rescued steer, and a crazy goat to keep her company on the five acres of land that she owns. Everything is old and broken down, but it doesn't matter because she loves her life, and she loves where she lives. And hopefully one day she will meet the man of her dreams. He will be Italian because everything is Italian in her scheme of things ... until she discovers on a whim and an ancestry test, that things are not what they seem. Suddenly there are three guys who capture her heart after no man has in maybe forever. Three she loves and one she really wants, who doesn't want her. What's a girl to do? Meet Mikaela...

Running Hott Serena Bell, 2025-07-14 A jilted bride. A jaded divorce lawyer. A full tank of gas. What could go wrong? Rhys: As a cutthroat New York City divorce lawyer, it's my job to end marriages. Lifetime commitment? It's for the birds. I do everything in my power to avoid it...until my grandfather's will says that to save our family's land, I have to become a wedding planner. Worse, my first client is Eden Becker. She's the sunshiny disaster whose ex-husband I represented a few years ago in their divorce. Eden's first marriage was a nightmare, so why does she think another one is a good idea? Turns out, I'm not wrong. Her jerkwad fiancé jilts her, and as her wedding planner, I'm also her getaway vehicle. Now we're on the road together—and all my complicated feelings about this beautiful, naive optimist are in the car, too. Along with a wild attraction I've been fighting since we first faced off across a conference table. If this road trip goes on too much longer, I'm going to do something I'll regret forever. Like fall in love. A spicy, grumpy-sunshine, jilted bride, enemies to lovers, standalone road trip romantic comedy set in the beloved small town of Rush Creek.

Television and Repetition James Walters,2023-06-02 Resisting some of the negative connotations that repetition can attract, this book illustrates how it has been used as a catalyst for creative expression across a range of television genres. Divided into two parts, the first three chapters contextualise repetition within related media and critical debates, before locating it as an important facet of television that is worth exploring in detail. The final three chapters discuss specific television shows that incorporate repetition creatively within their narrative structure and aesthetic composition, ranging from The Royle Family and Doctor Who to I May Destroy You and This is Going to Hurt. In each case, James Walters argues that repetition emerges as crucial to the expression of key themes and ideas, thus becoming a structural and compositional element itself. Exploring the ways in which repetition has featured in the work of figures such as Umberto Eco, Raymond Bellour and Bruce Kawin, and has influenced the approaches of television scholars like Raymond Williams, Roger Silverstone and John Ellis, this book is essential reading for scholars and students of film, television and media studies.
