Love: the Most Precious Gift of Life Pejman Aghasi,2007-08 Love is the only hope. It is only because of love that man finds it possible to reach god. If there were no love there would be no religion, no prayer. If there were no love there would be no creativity, no music, no dance, no art, no poetry. If there were no love there would be no beauty, no friendship, no happiness, no intimacy. All that is valuable in life comes through love. Love is the source of all that is nourishing and fulfilling. Love is the only heavenly phenomenon on this earth. Everything else is earthly; therefore it is only through love that one can reach to god and heavenly states of being. Without love, life becomes dull, repetitive and unfulfilling. Love: The Most Precious Gift of Life shows us that we must live with love, because that is the only way to really live. The deeper and realer your love is, the deeper and more meaningful your life is. We must think of love and life as being the same and synonymous. If love has so many blessings, why do many couples struggle and face so many difficulties in their relationships? In the second part of Love: The Most Precious Gift of Life, the root social and psychological causes of these conflicts are uncovered, and a solution for solving each problem is also presented. And in doing so it helps us to keep our relationships healthy and intimate, and enable us to embrace love, and through love, reach to our highest potential which is self-realization and enlightenment.

And you'll find out right away the one thing they really hate--being preached to. Here in My Faith, My Life, teenagers learn all about the Christian faith they've been baptized into - and the Episcopal Church that offers them a spiritual home. With lively writing that's always informative and never condescending, the book gives them all the basics they need to know to understand their faith - and claim it as their own. Closely linked to the Book of Common Prayer, My Faith, My Life covers everything from scripture, church history, and sacraments, to the meaning of prayer and ministry in the lives of real teens today. This is the essential handbook for teens in the Episcopal Church - an excellent resource for confirmation classes, youth study groups, and high school Christian education programs.

A Word for Life Devotions Dr. Bernard A. Jones, 2016-05-26 It was that great worshipper David that said, In Thy Presence is fullness of joy, at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore (Ps. 16:11). A good devotional will help you get in the presence of God. This devotional will enhance your time of devotion, your special time with the Lord away from your local church. In order to worship God, you must first know God. A Word for Life Devotions will give you the knowledge and the understanding that is needed to really worship God. Each topic is designed to address specific times and places in our lives when it looks like we are far from God, when it looks like God has abandoned us. A good devotional will reveal God in your situation and calamity. God is with his children in good and in bad times, but occasionally we need a little help hearing from God. These devotions will help you hear from God through his word. Our quiet time with God should be a time of peace no matter the conflicts around us. Each of these devotions will help you see yourself in specific situations, causing you to properly adjust and realign your life. Each of these devotions ends in prayer, reminding us to take everything to God in prayer, to pray without ceasing. These devotions will help you get into Gods presence, know God in a powerful way, worship God in spirit and in truth, and help you end your devotion in earnest prayer to God. This devotional will minister to every season of your life. Most of these devotions are quoted from the King James Version of the Bible. However, some of the difficult scripture are quoted from the Amplified and Common English Bibles. If at all possible, keep this devotional with you at all times.
