Sample Book Insights: #1 The old adage says that you can't understand someone else's situation unless you've walked a mile in his shoes. This is a good adage for entrepreneurs to remember, as they try to understand the situation of their customers, clients, and employees. #2 Out of touch with your customers or prospects. The more in touch you are, the more likely your success. Ask yourself some smart questions to help you understand your customers and prospects. #3 To write effective emails, you must first understand and connect with your customers. You can do this by analyzing their habits, desires, and frustrations. #4 You must determine in advance what your customers' priorities are, and address them, not your own. You must also consider the benefits to your company and the costs of giving before deciding to contribute to a cause.
