Traducción y traductología Amparo Hurtado Albir,

The Latin Qur'an, 1143-1500 Cándida Ferrero Hernández, John Tolan, 2021-10-25 In 1143 Robert of Ketton produced the first Latin translation of the Qur'an. This translation, extant in 24 manuscripts, was one of the main ways in which Latin European readers had access to the Muslim holy book. Yet it was not the only means of transmission of Quranic stories and concepts to the Latin world: there were other medieval translations into Latin of the Qur'an and of Christian polemical texts composed in Arabic which transmitted elements of the Qur'an (often in a polemical mode). The essays in this volume examine the range of medieval Latin transmission of the Qur'an and reaction to the Qur'an by concentrating on the manuscript traditions of medieval Qur'an translations and anti-Islamic polemics in Latin. We see how the Arabic text was transmitted and studied in Medieval Europe. We examine the strategies of translators who struggled to find a proper vocabulary and syntax to render Quranic terms into Latin, at times showing miscomprehensions of the text or willful distortions for polemical purposes. These translations and interpretations by Latin authors working primarily in twelfth- and thirteenth-century Spain were the main sources of information about Islam for European scholars until well into the sixteenth century, when they were printed, reused and commented. This volume presents a key assessment of a crucial chapter in European understandings of Islam.

(Inter)Cultural Dialogue and Identity in Lithuanian Literature Irena Ragaišienė, Adelheid Rundholz, 2023-10-09 This book illustrates that the idea of a 'national' literature is profoundly problematic. Chapters on boundaries and crisscrossing show how a nation and its writers' works do not exist in isolation from their history. Stressing migration and (inter)cultural dialogue, authors explore how the characters in the texts establish a sense of belonging both within the context of migrations and within the context of Lithuania since its independence. The final series of essays in this book discusses Lithuanian literature abroad that is in translation.

The Translator, the Interpreter and the Dialogue of Languages in the Digital Age Adriana Neagu, 2020-07-06 This volume offers a comprehensive, multilingual approach to the practice and profession of translation and interpretation as shaped by global markets, advanced technologies and digital literacy. It offers a joint, scholarly-pedagogical, practice-oriented perspective taking stock of recent developments and topical concerns in the field. The book provides a transdisciplinary overview of multilingualism as a phenomenon inextricably connected with the global condition of the subject, with emphasis on cross-cultural communication and the professions of translation and interpretation. As such, it constitutes an accessible and productive pedagogical resource.

Fraseología, Diatopía y Traducción / Phraseology, Diatopic Variation and Translation Pedro Mogorrón Huerta, Antonio Albaladejo-Martínez, 2018-11-15 In all languages, humans frequently use linguistic combinations called phraseological units (PUs) in communicative acts. These PUs are characterized by their institutionalized fixation and, in many cases, by their opacity. Traditionally, the work on phraseology has placed the emphasis on the total fixing of components and structures of verbal expressions. Variation in PUs is currently an uncontested fact and has been extensively studied and analyzed. In addition, in the case of languages like Spanish, English, French, spoken in many countries, new creations or diatopic variants arise. While these diatopic expressions have been collected or analyzed in their territory of influence, no comprehensive collection showing all the expressions and contrastive analysis to observe the similarities and differences between these diatopic creations with all their idiosyncratic and cultural references have been made so far. The content of this volume deals with numerous linguistic, lexicographic and translational problems in the context of language variation in general, as well as specifically related to diatopic variation. The aim is to make progress in these challenging and highly interesting areas which still pose many comprehension and translation problems.

Innovation and Expansion in Translation Process Research Isabel Lacruz, Riitta Jääskeläinen, 2018-01-15 Cognitive research in translation and interpreting has reached a critical threshold of maturity that is triggering rapid expansion along exciting new paths that potentially lead to deeper connections with other disciplines. Innovation and Expansion in Translation Process Research reflects this broadening scope and reach, emphasizing ongoing methodological innovations, diversification of research topics and questions, and rich interactions with adjacent fields of research. The contributions to the volume can be grouped within four loosely defined themes: advances in traditional topics in translation process research, including problems in translation, translation competence or expertise, and specialization of translators; advances in research into the emotional or affective aspects of translating and translator training; innovations in machine translation and post-editing; expansion of cognitively-oriented translation studies to include editing processes and reception studies. This timely volume highlights the burgeoning growth, diversification, and connectivity of translation process research.

La traducción humanístico-literaria y otras traducciones especializadas Soledad Díaz Alarcón, Eva Parra-Membrives, 2016 El avance de los estudios traductológicos se ha desarrollado a un ritmo vertiginoso en las últimas décadas, no solo en lo que concierne a la teoría e historia de esta disciplina, sino especialmente en lo relativo al ejercicio de la práctica profesional. La prolija investigación en torno a las diversas modalidades de traducción ha motivado la especialización de los estudios, que trata de responder a las necesidades en auge de un mercado laboral, que aunque no obvia la ya tradicional traducción humanístico- literaria, desde hace unos años incluye, con gran pujanza, el resto de vertientes de la traducción especializada, como son los casos de la traducción jurídico-económica, científico-técnica, la localización, etc. El presente volumen ofrece una variada muestra de trabajos de todas estas modalidades de traducción, que tratan de ser aportaciones significativas en el marco de la traducción especializada.

La traducción en la didáctica de las lenguas clásicas de Asia: Luis O. Gómez Rodríguez, 2019-01-14 En este ensayo, el autor analiza el papel que pueden desempeñar los ejercicios de traducción de la enseñanza de las lenguas extranjeras, en particular en los cursos dedicados a las lenguas clásicas de Asia. Enfocándose en tres lenguas asiáticas clásicas: el sánscrito, el tibetano y el japonés, el autor pretende demostrar que hay más de una manera de conducir estos ejercicios y que es necesario repensar su utilidad a la luz de lo que sabemos hoy sobre la pedagogía de la enseñanza de las lenguas extranjeras en general.

The Neurocognition of Translation and Interpreting Adolfo M. García, 2019-06-15 This groundbreaking work offers a comprehensive account of brain-based research on translation and interpreting. First, the volume introduces the methodological and conceptual pillars of psychobiological approaches vis-à-vis those of other cognitive frameworks. Next, it systematizes neuropsychological, neuroscientific, and behavioral evidence on key topics, including the lateralization of networks subserving cross-linguistic processes; their relation with other linguistic mechanisms; the functional organization and temporal dynamics of the circuits engaged by different translation directions, processing levels, and source-language units; the system's susceptibility to training-induced plasticity; and the outward correlates of its main operations. Lastly, the book discusses the field's accomplishments, strengths, weaknesses, and requirements. Its authoritative yet picturesque, didactic style renders it accessible to researchers in cognitive translatology, bilingualism, and neurolinguistics, as well as teachers and practitioners in related areas. Succinctly, this piece establishes a much-needed platform for translation and interpreting studies to fruitfully interact with cognitive neuroscience.

La traducción a través de los tiempos, espacios y disciplinas Silke Jansen, Martina Schrader-Kniffki, 2013-11-07 La traducción ya no se considera como la simple transferencia de contenidos de una lengua a otra por medio de equivalencias léxicas, sino como un proceso constructivo, en cuyo centro actúa el sujeto del traductor. El volumen tiene el propósito de abrir, desde una perspectiva constructivista, el diálogo entre las diversas disciplinas que alimentan la traslatología (sobre todo la lingüística, la literatura, las ciencias culturales, y la didáctica). Los trabajos se apoyan en una gran variedad de géneros textuales y contextos mediáticos, y abarcan diferentes épocas de la historia del español. Para hacer justicia a la condición de la traducción como práctica, se incluyen también tres testimonios de traductores, que, desde su perspectiva personal, dan cuenta de los retos y tareas que emanan de la traducción.

Aspects of Literary Translation Eva Parra Membrives, Miguel Angel García Peinado, 2012

The Metalinguage of Translation Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2009-10-07 "Let the meta-discussion begin," James Holmes urged in 1972. Coming almost forty years later – years filled with fascinating and often unexpected developments in the interdiscipline of Translation Studies – this volume offers the reader a multiplicity of meta-perspectives, while also moving the discussion forward. Indeed, the (re)production and (re)use of metalinguistic metaphors frame and partly determine our views on research, so such a discussion is vital as it is in any scholarly discipline. Among other questions, the eleven contributors draw the reader's attention to the often puzzling variations of usage and conceptualization in both the theory and the practice of translation. First published as a special issue of Target 19:2 (2007), the volume runs the gamut of metalinguistic topics, ranging from terminology, localization and epistemological questions, through the Chinese perspective, to the conceptual mapping of the online Translation Studies Bibliography.

Manual de traducción Tomo II Akrobou Agba Ezéchiél, 2017-09-25 El manual de traducción Tomo II, trata de los métodos de traducción de textos literarios y técnicos en francés y en español, teniendo en cuenta tanto el aspecto teórico como práctico. La actividad traductora necesita también una aproximación histórica y pragmática. Al final del estudio aparece una parte dedicada a unos ejercicios de textos técnicos y literarios traducidos.

Linguistic and Translation Studies in Scientific Communication M. Lluïsa Gea Valor, Isabel García Izquierdo, María José Esteve, 2010 This volume offers a collection of papers which seek to provide further insights into the way scientific and technical knowledge is communicated (i.e., written, transmitted, and translated) nowadays, not only in the academic sphere but also in society as a whole. Language in science has traditionally been valued for prioritising objective, propositional content; however, interpersonal and pragmatic dimensions as well as translation perspectives are worth exploring in order to better understand the mechanisms of specialised communication. Accordingly, the contributions in this volume cover topics of special interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of linguistics and translation, such as the popularisation and transmission of scientific knowledge via ICTs; terminology and corpus-based studies in scientific discourse; genres and discourse in scientific and technical communication; the history and evolution of scientific language; and translation of scientific texts.

Contemporary Research in Foreign Language Teaching and Learning Dana Di Pardo Léon-Henri, Bhawana Jain, 2020-07-20 This volume is focused on the teaching and acquisition of language for special, professional or general purposes, as well as the needs and challenges associated with foreign language pedagogy in English for Specific Purposes (ESP) or, more generally, Language for Specific Purposes (LSP). It presents innovative methodology and technology-integrated approaches that will serve to benefit teacher development and assist language practitioners in enhancing student investment and motivation. A pragmatic tool for utilization at the local level, this collection provides an international panorama of language pedagogy that is of great use to both junior and senior researchers. It will also serve as a source of inspiration for future and seasoned language practitioners and in-service teacher educators.

The Routledge Handbook of Spanish Translation Studies Roberto Valdeón, África Vidal, 2019-05-28 Written by leading experts in the area, The Routledge Handbook of Spanish Translation Studies brings together original contributions representing a culmination of the extensive research to-date within the field of Spanish Translation Studies. The Handbook covers a variety of translation related issues, both theoretical and practical, providing an overview of the field and establishing directions for future research. It starts by looking at the history of translation in Spain, the Americas during the colonial period and Latin America, and then moves on to discuss well-established areas of research such as literary translation and audiovisual translation, at which Spanish researchers have excelled. It also provides state-of-the-art information on new topics such as the interface between translation and humour on the one hand, and the translation of comics on the other. This Handbook is an indispensable resource for postgraduate students and researchers of translation studies.

Traducción, mediación, adaptación Eva Parra Membrives, Ángeles García Calderón, 2013-05-25 Los estudios traductológicos han avanzado considerablemente en los últimos años, tanto en materia de teoría de la traducción como en avances técnicos, convirtiéndose el traductor especializado en un personaje cada vez más relevante en nuestro actual contexto social. El presente volumen pretende mostrar algunos de los avances más destacados en el ámbito de la investigación traductológica, presentando nuevas ideas en torno a las múltiples posibilidades que ofrece esta disciplina. Los estudios aquí recogidos abarcan así desde reflexiones en torno al papel que debe desempeñar el traductor como mediador cultural que es, a la adecuada traslación de contenidos en casos de diferencias geográficas o temporales muy acusadas de los textos con los que se trabaja, pasando por propuestas de uso de herramientas tecnológicas innovadoras. _Contracub.

Empirical studies in translation and discourse Mario Bisiada ,2021 The present volume seeks to contribute some studies to the subfield of Empirical Translation Studies and thus aid in extending its reach within the field of translation studies and thus in making our discipline more rigorous and fostering a reproducible research culture. The Translation in Transition conference series, across its editions in Copenhagen (2013), Garmersheim (2015) and Ghent (2017), has been a major meeting point for scholars working with these aims in mind, and the conference in Barcelona (2019) has continued this tradition of expanding the sub-field of empirical translation studies to other paradigms within translation studies. This book is a collection of selected papers presented at that fourth Translation in Transition conference, held at the Universitat Pompeu Fabra in Barcelona on 19-20 September 2019.
