Feeding Barcelona, 1714-1975 Montserrat Miller, 2015-01-12 The food markets of Barcelona host thousands of customers daily, from tourists eager to sample fresh fruits and grilled seafood to neighborhood cooks in search of high-quality ingredients. While other countries experienced major shifts away from the public-market model in the twentieth century, Barcelona's food markets remained fundamental to the city's identity, economy, and culture. Montserrat Miller's Feeding Barcelona, 1714-1975 examines the causes behind the extraordinary vibrancy and tenacity of the Barcelonan market system. Miller argues that recurrent revolutionary uprisings in Barcelona, beginning in the mid-eighteenth century, forced ongoing collaboration between the public and private sectors to ensure adequate and effective food distribution. Municipal support permitted small-scale food sellers in Barcelona to survive in a period more commonly characterized by increasing capitalization in food retail, while the importance of food markets to Barcelona's social networks enhanced vendors' ability to recognize and adapt to changing customer demands. In addition, a high number of stalls owned by women contributed both to the financial well-being of vendor families and to the sociability patterns that placed neighborhood food markets at the center of daily life in the city. The shared commitment of vendors, shoppers, and government officials to a market model of food sales created the lasting and unique market system that persists in Barcelona to this day. Drawing from extensive archival research and numerous interviews with individuals at all levels of the market system, Feeding Barcelona, 1714-1975 is the first detailed history of the historical and social influences that create urban food markets.

Digestible Governance Eugenia Afinoguénova, Lara Anderson, Rebecca Ingram, 2024-08-30 The term “gastrocracy” refers to the appropriation of discourses and practices related to the sourcing, preparation, distribution, and consumption of food for political purposes. The intersections of gastronomy and governance, dating in Spain to the last quarter of the nineteenth century, have become highly visible over the past decade, when political debates around nationalism in its different forms have taken the guise of discussions about regional and local cuisines. Concomitant with the rise of the “slow food” movement and following UNESCO’s addition in 2011 of “Gastronomic Meal of the French” to its list of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity, public and private associations all around Spain have been established with the goal of achieving recognition by UNESCO for Spanish, Catalan, and other national cuisines. In 2016, Gastro Marca España—an association and a web portal—was launched to raise the profile of food in Spain’s national brand. Eliciting wide public participation, co-opted for political purposes, regarded as a factor of economic development on any scale, and integrated into every so-called banal nationalism, the production, distribution, and consumption of food are highly relevant for historical analysis. Seeking to encourage a broader discussion about Peninsular gastrocracies, this book brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars from different sides of the Atlantic and the Pacific who have spearheaded research on gastronomy and governance in Spain.

La mujer en los discursos de género Catherine Jagoe, Alda Blanco, Cristina Enríquez de Salamanca, 1998 Esta obra presenta una recopilación de textos que fueron paradigmáticos en la configuración y el desarrollo de los discursos dominantes acerca del género y de la sexualidad femenina en la segunda mitad de siglo XIX español. A diferencia de ciertas corrientes historiográficas que utilizan la literatura como fiel reflejo de la sociedad, este libro asume que los discursos extraliterarios inciden en la producción de la literatura y en la construcción del concepto de feminidad. Esta antología provee de fuentes no disponibles fácilmente que ayudan a responder algunos interrogantes como: ¿existe una diferente representación de la sexualidad femenina por parte del hombre y de la mujer?, ¿qué forma tomó la figura emblemática del ángel del hogar en la cultura española y cuál era su función?, ¿cuáles eran los planes de estudio para las niñas en el hogar y en las escuelas?, ¿cómo se llamaban las revistas femeninas más importantes de la época y quiénes eran sus colaboradores?, ¿cuál era la situación de las mujeres españolas ante la ley en diferentes partes de España?

Las mujeres en el antiguo régimen Isabel Pérez Molina, 1994 Colección de estudios sobre temas diversos de la condición femenina, en especial en cataluña, en el antiguo régimen. El primero se ocupa de un tema legal: El trato discriminatorio que reciben las mujeres en la ley catalana en cuanto al régimen matrimonial en la época en cuestión (las mujeres y el matrimonio en el derecho catalán moderno). El segundo mujeres artesanas en la Barcelona moderna analiza las tentativas femeninas para modificar de facto las rígidas leyes que articulaban la actividad de los gremios. Imágenes de la maternidad en la pintura barroca es un estudio sobre la iconografía de la Virgen María utilizada como instrumento de propaganda de una serie de valores patriarcales, dirigida a las mujeres. Aproximación a los conceptos de honor y prostitución en la Barcelona del siglo XVIII estudia los diferentes modelos en la realización de este oficio así como el cambio de tratamiento dado al tema por las instituciones en la transición del s. XVII a XVIII. La colección se completa con el estudio de un caso de petición de separación matrimonial por parte de una mujer por los malos tratos recibidos de su conyuge, ante los tribunales eclesiásticos, por la excepcionalidad de su resolución a favor de la demandante.

Estrategias creativas en Educación Nedda Cárcamo et al., 2010 La educación en Chile pareciera estar en crisis, y esta constatación genera inquietud y desazón en la ciudadanía. No obstante, si analizamos el significado de crisis, descubrimos con entusiasmo que es el necesario proceso de cambio hacia un nivel superior: crisis es crecimiento y desarrollo en pos de una meta deseable. Bienvenida entonces esta crisis, si ella se acompaña de voluntades que creen en un cambio de mirada. Esta crisis educacional invita a un análisis desde diversas ópticas, todas las cuales provienen de análisis intersectoriales que enriquecen la discusión. Entre ellas, mirar la interacción entre las estrategias pedagógicas imperantes, la efectividad del profesor y un alumno a menudo dominado por la desmotivación resulta imperativo. Hoy se insiste en que ha quedado atrás la pregunta acerca del qué enseñar, centrada en el currículo, para indagar acerca de qué debe aprender el educando; en esta perspectiva cobra aún más vigencia preguntarse cómo aprenden los niños, de qué modos es posible despertar su motivación y activar esa mente creativa y a la vez crítica que es la base de los verdaderos aprendizajes. El alumno no es una mente vacía que el maestro debe transformar en una mente llena de contenidos predeterminados por un currículo; es una mente abierta, un potencial creativo, un ser humano en búsqueda de expresión, caminando hacia su autorrealización. En consecuencia, colaborar a sembrar en el período de máxima plasticidad de los talentos humanos, dotando al maestro de habilidades pedagógicas que le permitan ingresar a esa mente ampliamente abierta, despertando su potencial creativo y su propia capacidad de descubrimiento de sus talentos, es un espléndido aporte a la transformación de la educación en este siglo.

Local Societies and Peasantry Agencies in Medieval Iberia Juan Antonio Quirós Castillo, 2025-01-26 Despite the significant attention medieval scholarship has devoted to the study of peasant societies, these groups have traditionally been depicted as passive and homogeneous, merely able of resisting pressures from the state or powerful individuals. However, in recent years, the availability of new records, the widespread adoption of microhistorical analyses, and the renewal of conceptual frameworks have enabled scholars to undertake more detailed and nuanced investigations. This collective volume aims to explore the political, economic, and social practices of Iberian medieval peasant societies. A key finding of this multivocal analysis is the revelation of the relative subalternity of medieval ruling groups and the constraints on peasant actions across various geographical and chronological contexts.

Mined lives. 25 years Gervasio Sánchez, 2023-10-19 [...] A heartfelt cry against terrible injustice and daily tragedy: how the everlasting physical injuries that severed their bodies affect these wounded people. An ongoing project of the most current photojournalism, like the infinite aftereffects caused by antipersonnel mines. Gervasio Sánchez has been working with victims of this scourge since September 1995, a job that has been running through most of his professional life. The devastation the mines cause is lifelong. The eleven victims in this project were selected randomly in African countries such as Angola and Mozambique; in Asian countries like Cambodia, Afghanistan, and Iraq; El Salvador, Nicaragua, and Colombia in Latin America; and European countries such as Bosnia-Herzegovina. Gervasio knows we need the wounded voices if we hope to write the complete history. And to do so, it is vital to advocate, faced with the hate that mines, the courage that observes.
