Beauty: Illustrated Chiefly by an Analysis and Classification of Beauty in Woman Alexander Walker, 2022-09-15 In Beauty: Illustrated Chiefly by an Analysis and Classification of Beauty in Woman, Alexander Walker delves into the intricate interplay of aesthetics and societal perceptions of beauty. The text is notable for its pioneering approach to categorizing beauty, blending philosophical inquiry with vivid illustrations that enrich the narrative. Walker employs a meticulous analytical style that reflects the cultural context of the early 19th century, where beauty became a subject of scientific scrutiny and artistic fascination. His exploration navigates both the subjective and objective elements of beauty, seeking to establish a framework for understanding its significance in women's representation and cultural ideals. Alexander Walker, a Scottish author and advocate for the aesthetic arts, draws on his experiences and observations from a rapidly changing society. Influenced by the Romantic ideals of the time, Walker's work reflects a deep engagement with both art and science, as he seeks to unify these fields through the study of beauty. His commitment to exploring the aesthetic qualities of women is likely informed by his insights into societal norms, as well as a devotion to the artistic traditions that prioritize beauty in female form. Beauty: Illustrated Chiefly by an Analysis and Classification of Beauty in Woman is essential reading for those intrigued by the intersections of art, philosophy, and cultural studies. Tragic Beauty in Whitehead and Japanese Aesthetics Steve Odin, 2016-05-19 The present volume endeavors to make a contribution to contemporary Whitehead studies by clarifying his axiological process metaphysics, including his theory of values, concept of aesthetic experience, and doctrine of beauty, along with his philosophy of art, literature and poetry. Moreover, it establishes an east-west dialogue focusing on how Alfred North Whitehead's process aesthetics can be clarified

by the traditional Japanese Buddhist sense of evanescent beauty. As this east-west dialogue unfolds it is shown that there are many striking points of convergence between Whitehead's process aesthetics and the traditional Japanese sense of beauty. However, the work especially focuses on two of Whitehead's aesthetic categories, including the penumbral beauty of darkness and the tragic beauty of perishability, while further demonstrating parallels with the two Japanese aesthetic categories of yûgen and aware. It is clarified how both Whitehead and the Japanese tradition have articulated a poetics of evanescence that celebrates the transience of aesthetic experience and the ephemerality of beauty. Finally it is argued that both Whitehead and Japanese tradition develop an aesthetics of beauty as perishability culminating in a religio-aesthetic vision of tragic beauty and its reconciliation in the supreme ecstasy of peace or nirvana.
