Things My Mother Didn't Teach Me Linnet Dave, 2025-02-01 The book emerges from personal experience and intense struggle against the norms that are accepted as a result of our conditioning while living in a patriarchal society. We wish to live in a society with no gender discrimination. Until and unless we teach our children to respect and value women, not only through words but actions, we cannot eliminate gender discrimination. Often mothers tell their children, "Girls should know how to cook," "Girls should not revolt against sexual harassment," "Women should always sacrifice," "Women are great at multitasking," etc. An underlying message goes out, clear and loud, to children that women are supposed to be submissive and should never raise their voices. Is this the kind of world we aim to create for our children? It's time to raise our children differently! The onus lies with each one of us, especially mothers.

I Can't Believe It's Not Buddha! Bodhipaksa, 2018-11-06 Quotes from the Buddha are everywhere: on Facebook, Instagram, coffee mugs, posters. There's only one problem: the Buddha didn't actually say most of them. This humorous and informative book takes these fake Buddha quotes as a launching point for a discussion on what the Buddha really did say, and is a great entry point for those interested in learning more about Buddhism--what it is, and what it isn't. Bodhipaksa, a well-known Buddhist teacher and the founder of fakebuddhaquotes.com, takes a look at some of the quotes that are erroneously attributed to the Buddha, explains the ways in which these disagree (or sometimes agree) with Buddhist teachings, and offers some genuine examples of the Buddha's words. The perfect gift for the Buddhist in your life and an essential addition to any Buddhist library, I Can't Believe It's Not Buddha! is at once humorous and scholarly, and a timely antidote to the fake news that can surround some of the Buddha's teachings.

Reaching the Resistant J. Dudley Woodberry, 1998-09-15 The lands where Muslims, Jews, and Christians have encountered each other are littered with the ruins of fortresses. Each faith community built barriers to keep out the enemies of their faith. The present studies look at the barriers erected by peoples considered resistant to the gospel, and the bridges God is using to carry the gospel to them.

Exodus ad Aeternum Tyson Teeple, 2023-10-11 If the fog in the valley has settled in, arise, and go to the mountain. If your existence feels like a fever dream of cyclic, secular sepsis, seek safety at the summit. If life is dark, it is time to seek the light in the night, conquer your demons, and find life lit by glorious abundance. It's time to not merely exist in the shadows, but to live in the light! Vivere est vincere: To live is to conquer. This is an archetypal tale of the hero embarking on a journey of self-discovery. You may see patterns from your own life journey in these pages. After all, the greatest story ever told of a hero on a journey . . . is the story of YOU.

Multiple Alterities Elie Podeh, Samira Alayan, 2017-12-18 This book highlights and examines the role of the textbook in legitimising established political and social orders. It analyses the way in which the 'other' is presented in school textbooks, focusing on a number of countries in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region, and argues that the role of textbooks in developing and maintaining a national identity should be afforded greater critical attention. Textbooks can help form national identities by developing a society's collective memory; this might involve a historical narrative which may be self-contradictory or even fabricated to a certain extent, including myths, symbols and collective memories that divide "us" from "them", and ultimately resulting in a dichotomy between the Self and the Other. As well as addressing a range of theoretical questions relating to the study of textbooks generally, the volume also covers a broad spectrum of Middle Eastern states and societies, with contributions from Turkey, Iran, Egypt, Cyprus, Lebanon, Iraq, Kurdistan, Jordan, Morocco, Tunisia, Israel and Palestine. It will be essential reading for researchers and students working in the fields of Education, Sociology and History, particularly those with an interest in national identities in the MENA region.
