Lonely Planet Korea Lonely Planet,

Libreria Hyunam-dong. Rimedi per l'anima Hwang Bo-Reum, 2024-10-09 Un romanzo potente e curatissimo, in cui niente è lasciato al caso. Un balsamo per la vita di tutti i giorni. Yeongju ha fatto tutto quello che ci si aspettava da lei: andare all'università, sposare un brav'uomo e trovare un impiego rispettabile. Ed è andata avanti così per molti anni... ma quando ha cominciato a svegliarsi con il terrore di recarsi in ufficio, ha capito che c'era qualcosa che non andava. Si chiama sindrome da burnout e travolge le persone portandole al limite. Esaurita dallo stress e da un matrimonio insoddisfacente, Yeongju decide allora di abbandonare tutto per realizzare il suo sogno più grande, quello di aprire una libreria. Hyu in coreano vuol dire riposo, quindi non può che essere un segno del destino l'aver trovato un fondo nel quartiere di Hyunam- dong. Scaffale dopo scaffale, volume dopo volume, Yeongju avvia la sua nuova attività creando un luogo caldo e accogliente, dove i suoi clienti possano rifugiarsi. Ognuno con le proprie delusioni e i propri problemi. C'è Minjun, il barista che cerca di dare senso alle sue giornate; Jeongseo che usa il lavoro a maglia per sfogare la rabbia; Mincheol, un giovane pieno di dubbi e domande sul suo futuro; e infine Seungu, blogger e scrittore, che sembra avere un interesse particolare nei confronti della bella proprietaria. Gestire una libreria non è però così semplice, e tra presentazioni, contenuti per i social e quotidiana amministrazione, il rischio è quello di perdere nuovamente l'equilibrio e farsi sopraffare, perciò è importante non perdere di vista l'obiettivo: diventare una persona migliore.

Every Day I Read Hwang Bo-reum, 2025-10-23 From the internationally bestselling author of Welcome to the Hyunam-dong Bookshop comes a warm and reflective collection of essays about reading, language and life. Why do we read? What is it that we hope to take away from the intimate, personal experience of reading for pleasure? Rarely do we ask these profound, expansive questions of ourselves and of our relationship to the joy of reading. But in this gentle, philosophical collection celebrating books, reading and language, Hwang Bo-reum doesn't just tell us, but shows us what living a life immersed in reading means. Every Day I Read provides many quiet moments for introspection and reflection, encourages book-lovers to explore what reading means to each of us. While this is a book about books, at its heart is an attitude to life, one outside capitalism and climbing the corporate ladder. Readers and non-readers will take away something from it, including a treasure trove of book recommendations blended seamlessly within.

The Moon Glow Bookshop Dongwon Seo, 2025-11-06 What if you could turn the pages of your own life, like the pages of your favourite book? Somewhere along the ordinary alleys you pass by every day, a mysterious shop appears between all the other familiar buildings. Surely, you didn't see it yesterday or the day before. A large sign reads 'The Moon Glow Bookshop' but it seems to have a smaller poster on its window saying, 'If only your life were like a book'. The faint glow of light from the shop somehow seems to offer you comfort. From just looking at the poster, you can't really tell if it's a bookstore, a bar, or a cafe. Upon opening the door and entering, the first thing that catches your eye are the shelves filled with bottles. It seems to be a bar, and as you take a sip of your desired cocktail, you feel yourself slowly entering a different world... Boreum, a moon rabbit, and Moon, the guardian of a magical library, have abandoned their jobs as celestial custodians and started operating a mysterious shop on Earth called The Moon Glow Bookshop. At the end of a weary day, around the time when the moon rises, people make their way into the shop and choose cocktails to relive their most regrettable moments. When guests choose a drink, they're served a matching dish as part of the magical experience. The dish that goes well with the cocktail you chose could be a simple egg omelette or perhaps a ripe, juicy tomato that you cannot bear to eat because of its perfect roundness. The result could be a coincidence or destiny. From a musician who lost her mother due to perilous mistake and is fated to lose her lover and father again, to a novelist who has become obsessed with success, and a working adult who, obsessed with making money, completely forgot their childhood dreams - everybody goes looking for answers in The Moon Glow Bookshop.

On the last day of her trip, when she's due to fly back to her real life, she loses everything: phone, credit cards, plane ticket. Wandering through a fishing village, she stumbles across a tiny photo studio. Staying to work there, she meets and photographs a young couple who are about to get married, an elderly ex-cop haunted by questions from his past, and the Jeju haenyeos, a group of

The Healing Season of Pottery Yeon Somin, 2024-10-22 Set for international release this fall, this cozy Korean bestseller invites readers into a warm, sunlit pottery studio where a burned-out young TV broadcast writer begins to heal, working the clay, piece by piece, season by season. After breaking down at the office and abruptly quitting her job, thirty-year-old Jungmin holes up in her apartment, speaking to no one for days on end. When she finally emerges, she stumbles upon a pottery studio in her neighborhood and is invited in by the mysterious workshop teacher. The smell of clay, the light filtering through the plant filled windows, the friendly cat, and the incredible coffee the students drink awaken her senses and make her feel alive and inspired for the first time in months. As the seasons change, Jungmin slowly returns to herself and builds a new community with the other members of the studio, who are all working through their own pasts at the pottery wheel. When the holidays approach and snow piles up on the studio windowsill, Jungmin realizes how much she has changed—with her hands busy and her mind clear, she may be ready to face the memories she's been running from and open her heart. For fans of What You Are Looking For Is in the Library and Welcome to the Hyunam-dong Bookshop, Yeon's charming English-language debut is a testament to the joy of slowing down in a fast-paced world, and an homage to the art of ceramics and the power of friendship.
