Constantine and the Council of Nicaea David E. Henderson,Frank Kirkpatrick,2016-10-25 Constantine and the Council of Nicaea plunges students into the theological debates confronting early Christian church leaders. Emperor Constantine has sanctioned Christianity as a legitimate religion within the Roman Empire but discovers that Christians do not agree on fundamental aspects of their beliefs. Some have resorted to violence, battling over which group has the correct theology. Constantine has invited all of the bishops of the church to attend a great church council to be held in Nicaea, hoping to settle these problems and others. The first order of business is to agree on a core theology of the church to which Christians must subscribe if they are to hold to the “true faith.” Some will attempt to use the creed to exclude their enemies from the church. If they succeed, Constantine may fail to achieve his goal of unity in both empire and church. The outcome of this conference will shape the future of Christianity for millennia. Excerpt: ... he ejected him from the order of the presbytery, according to the precept of the word of God, -- If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out and cast it from thee. * CHAPTER IV.

INCREASE OF THE OPPOSITION TO ARIUS AND HIS HERESY. At this time the Church of Rome was ruled by Silvester, whose predecessor in the administration was Miltiades, the successor of Marcellinus * Socrates says that Alexander, the bishop of Alexandria, deposed Arius from his office and excluded him from the communion of the church, first at an assembly of the clergy in Alexandria, and then at a more numerous synod of Egyptian and Libyan bishops A.D. 321, composed of a hundred members. At this synod, however, the victory in the contest was claimed by both parties. Alexander published an epistle to his fellowministers everywhere, notifying them of the excommunication of Arius, in which he makes use of the following language: -- Know, therefore, that there have recently arisen in our diocese, lawless and anti-Christian men, teaching apostasy such as one may justly consider and denominate the forerunner of Antichrist I am constrained to warn you to pay no attention to the communications of Eusebius [of Nicomedia], should he write to you . The dogmas they assert, in utter contrariety to the Scriptures, and wholly of their own devising, are these: -- That 'God was not always a Father; that the Word of God was not from eternity, but was made out of nothing; for, that the ever-existing God (the I Am, the eternal One) made him, who did not previously exist, out of nothing.' t This was the 12th year of Pope Silvester's pontifical reign; perhaps I should say, rather, bishoprick, as the bishop of Alexandria was first called pope, and the Roman pope did not acquire...
