Matthew Barrett

Conflicting Mythologies John K. Riches, 2006-06-23 A cultural and anthropological interpretation of Mark and Matthew which examines their contribution to the formation of early Christian identity, world-view and ethos. John Riches studies the notions of sacred space and ethnicity in the Gospel narratives. He shows how early Christian group identity emerged through a dynamic process of reshaping traditional Jewish symbols and motifs associated with descent, kinship and territory. Ideas about descent from Abraham and the return from exile to Mount Zion are interwoven into early Christian traditions about Jesus and in the process substantially reshaped to produce different senses of identity. At the same time, he argues, the Evangelists were attempting to set forth a view of the world in a dialogue with the two opposing cosmologies current in Jewish culture of the time: one, cosmic dualist, the other, forensic. Riches shows how these two very different accounts of the origin and final overcoming of evil both inform Mark and Matthew's narratives and contribute to the richness and ambiguity of the texts and of the communities which sprang up around them.

The Infinite Nature of Man Rolf A. F. Witzsche, 2003

'The Son of Man' Edwin A. Abbott, 2014-07-17 Originally published in 1910, this book contains an exhaustive study of the use of the phrase 'Son of Man' in the Old and New Testaments. Abbott illustrates how Christian writers used the mystical trope present in many books of Jewish prophecy to convey their belief in Christ as an eschatological figure foretold by Scripture. This book will be of value to anyone with an interest in Christology and the use of this enigmatic title in Jewish and Christian theology.

Apocalyptic Sheep and Goats in Matthew and 1 Enoch Elekosi F. Lafitaga, 2022-03-25 An alternative understanding of apocalyptic eschatology in the Gospel of Matthew Matthew's eschatological imageries of judgment are often identified as apocalyptic and referred to as Matthew's apocalyptic discourses. In this volume Elekosi F. Lafitaga reexamines Matthew's vision of the sheep and goats in the judgment of the nations, which are often interpreted as metaphors for the saved and the condemned. Lafitaga views these images in the wider context of the rhetoric of apocalyptic communication stretching back to Matthew 3. This broader context reveals that the vision of Matthew 25 serves to exhort Israel in the here and now according to the torah, with salvation for Israel involving an indispensable responsibility to love and serve humanity. Central to Lafitaga's analysis is the highly probable scenario that the material in Matthew is dependent on the Book of Dreams (1 Enoch 83-90).

The Sheep and the Goats Chad Venters, 2022-08-09 Chad Venters argues that Psalm 80 (Psalm 79 LXX) is an important source for the composition of Matthew 25:31-46. Psalm 80 provides a religio-political background for understanding the devastation facing Israel at the hands of the Romans. Viewing Psalm 80 as a source for Matthew 25:31-46 accounts for the diversity of images found in the Sheep and the Goats and provides further insight into the meaning of the passage. Venters's reading of the Sheep and the Goats contends that the story is not focused on world-ending judgment but a cataclysmic shift in which Yahweh's vineyard has been taken from Israel and given to the church and the nations. This book augments the larger corpus of Matthean studies, contributing to the less prominent research of Psalm 80 as an influential text for multiple passages in the New Testament and other first-century literature. Various studies have proposed the prevalence of Psalm 80 through scriptural "echoes" and "allusions" in the New Testament. Venters seeks to solidify these hypotheses in favor of Psalm 80 as an important background text for the New Testament Gospels.

The Testimony of the Son of Man and the Beginning of His Millennial Reign on Earth Dr. Solomon Udo Solomon , 2016-03-31 The Testimony of the Son of Man and the Beginning of His Millennial Reign on Earth Vol. II by Dr. Solomon Udo Solomon The theme of The Testimony of the Son of Man is the restoration of the everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God on Earth, as was brought down by Yeshua the Lamb of Yahweh, for the redemption of the entire humanity. The impetus to write this series of books came to the author by a dream of inspiration. In that dream, Dr. Solomon Udo Solomon was directed to preach only what Jesus taught the world. Dr. Solomon went through the Synoptic Gospels first, then the Epistles of the accredited witnesses, and finally the Book of Revelations. Dr. Solomon's understanding was quickened. Finally, he decided to read the letters of Saul of Tarsus. He saw a whole world of contradictions from what Jesus, as the Son of Man, taught the world. Dr. Solomon then understood why the Lord laid emphasis on what He Himself taught the world, as well as the very essence of the mandate given to him. Dr. Solomon understood the need to inform the world of his revelations. This is in keeping with what Jesus Himself said: "And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached to all nations as a witness against them, and then shall the end come." The Gospel of the Kingdom, which is the Gospel of 'Lawfulness and Peace,' is what Jesus Himself taught the world in His words, examples and customs. The present messages in churches and other organizations are composites of wheat and tares, because of their choice to flout the Lord's order in the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 28, verse 20, under the purported inspiration of their false prophet. This work is in strict consistency with the mandate that was given to Dr. Solomon. The readers will know that there was a gross distortion of the Mission of Yeshua the Lamb of Yahweh to the world, especially His actual work of redemption. The cross of the murderers, which is being extolled, has no contribution to make for the redemption of mankind. This work is intended to free those who care to accept it from the sin of accomplice, which has constituted a plague to the whole world. The false information peddled by the false prophet, will eventually be discarded to pave way for the New World Order, which rests squarely on what the Lamb of Yahweh bequeathed to the world. This is the much-needed foundation for the Lord's return to set His Millennial Government on Earth. This work shall awaken the consciousness in the elects to preach only what the Lord Himself taught the world, notwithstanding the temptation to believe and propagate the unscriptural letters of Saul of Tarsus.

Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible David Noel Freedman, Allen C. Myers, 2000-12-31 The Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible gathers nearly 5,000 alphabetically ordered articles that thoroughly yet clearly explain all the books, persons, places, and significant terms found in the Bible. The Dictionary also explores the background of each biblical book and related writings and discusses cultural, natural, geographical, and literary phenomena matters that Bible students at all levels may encounter in reading or discussion. Nearly 600 first-rate Bible authorities have contributed to the Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible. Intended as a tool for practical Bible use, this illustrated dictionary reflects recent archaeological discoveries and the breadth of current biblical scholarship, including insights from critical analysis of literary, historical, sociological, and other methodological issues. The editorial team has also incorporated articles that explore and interpret important focuses of biblical theology, text and transmission, Near Eastern archaeology, extrabiblical writings, and pertinent ecclesiastical traditions - all of which help make the Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible the most comprehensive and up-to-date one-volume Bible dictionary on the market today.

The Jewish Teachers of Jesus, James, and Jude David A. deSilva, 2012-10-23 Jews have sometimes been reluctant to claim Jesus as one of their own; Christians have often been reluctant to acknowledge the degree to which Jesus' message and mission were at home amidst, and shaped by, the Judaism(s) of the Second Temple Period. In The Jewish Teachers of Jesus, James, and Jude David deSilva introduces readers to the ancient Jewish writings known as the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha and examines their formative impact on the teachings and mission of Jesus and his half-brothers, James and Jude. Knowledge of this literature, deSilva argues, helps to bridge the perceived gap between Jesus and Judaism when Judaism is understood only in terms of the Hebrew Bible (or "Old Testament"), and not as a living, growing body of faith and practice. Where our understanding of early Judaism is limited to the religion reflected in the Hebrew Bible, Jesus will appear more as an outsider speaking "against" Judaism and introducing more that is novel. Where our understanding of early Judaism is also informed by the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha, we will see Jesus and his half-brothers speaking and interacting more fully within Judaism. By engaging critical issues in this comparative study, deSilva produces a portrait of Jesus that is fully at home in Roman Judea and Galilee, and perhaps an explanation for why these extra-biblical Jewish texts continued to be preserved in Christian circles.
