Most Wanted Axel Heil, Wolfgang Schoppmann, 2005 The important German collector Thomas Olbricht presents a personal selection of his most recent acquisitions, including Maurizio Cattelan, Jake & Dinos Chapman, Larry Clark, Thomas Demand, Marlene Dumas, Carroll Dunham, Marcel Dzama, Isaac Julien, Richard Phillips, Alexis Rockman, Gregor Schneider, Taryn Simon, Hiroshi Sugito, Nicola Tyson and Barry X-Ball. As Olbricht writes in the epilogue, 'Collecting art, for me, is an elixir of life÷ Seemingly anything goes and nothing is sure. This productive restlessness makes collecting a great adventure-- that's one thing this picture book is meant to tell; another thing is that, for me, the variety of positions I'm continuously concerning myself with combines to become a cosmos full of life.' Contains an illustrated appendix and an introduction by Jean-Christophe Ammann.

Early Modern Things Paula Findlen, 2021-03-01 Early Modern Things supplies fresh and provocative insights into how objects - ordinary and extraordinary, secular and sacred, natural and man-made - came to define some of the key developments of the early modern world. Now in its second edition, this book taps a rich vein of recent scholarship to explore a variety of approaches to the material culture of the early modern world (c. 1500-1800). Divided into seven parts, the book explores the ambiguity of things, representing things, making things, encountering things, empires of things, consuming things, and the power of things. This edition includes a new preface and three new essays on 'encountering things' to enrich the volume. These look at cabinets of curiosities, American pearls, and the material culture of West Central Africa. Spanning across the early modern world from Ming dynasty China and Tokugawa Japan to Siberia and Georgian England, from the Kingdom of the Kongo and the Ottoman Empire to the Caribbean and the Spanish Americas, the authors provide a generous set of examples in how to study the circulation, use, consumption, and, most fundamentally, the nature of things themselves. Drawing on a broad range of disciplinary perspectives and lavishly illustrated, this updated edition of Early Modern Things is essential reading for all those interested in the early modern world and the history of material culture.

The Conservation of Medieval Polychrome Wood Sculpture Michele D. Marincola, Lucretia Kargère, 2020-08-18 The first English-language book to comprehensively discuss the history and methodology of conserving medieval polychrome wood sculpture. Medieval polychrome wood sculptures are highly complex objects, bearers of histories that begin with their original carving and adornment and continue through long centuries of repainting, deterioration, restoration, and conservation. Abundantly illustrated, this book is the first in English to offer a comprehensive overview of the conservation of medieval painted wood sculpture for conservators, curators, and others charged with their care. Beginning with an illuminating discussion of the history, techniques, and meanings of these works, it continues with their examination and documentation, including chapters on the identification of both the wooden support and the polychromy itself—the paint layers, metal leaf, and other materials used for these sculptures. The volume also covers the many aspects of treatment: the process of determining the best approach; consolidation and adhesion of paint, ground, and support; overpaint removal and surface cleaning; and compensation. Four case studies on artworks in the collection of The Cloisters in New York, a comprehensive bibliography, and a checklist to aid in documentation complement the text.

The Transformation of the Roman World AD 400-900 Leslie Webster, Michelle P. Brown, Michelle Brown, 1997 Book accompanies 5 exhibitions. Includes bibliographical references (p. 249-255) and index.

The Readymade Boomerang René Block, Art Gallery of New South Wales, 1990 This show takes with Duchamp, Picabia and Man Ray as its kernel a trio of Dada originators who are united by the fact that their iconoclasm was primarily aesthetic rather than political in its expression (unlike that of most of their peers) as well as by the fact that their metaphysics were shot through with an irreverent humour. With the nexus of these interconnecting ideas, art-objects, and artistic personalities as its starting point, the exhibition traces a number of moments when their impact has proven both particularly strong and highly stimulating for subsequent artists.--BOOK JACKET.

Neue Orte der Utopie Julia Bulk, 2016-12-15 Vielfach wurde bereits das Ende des utopischen Zeitalters ausgerufen. Dessen ungeachtet bilden sich seit Mitte der 1990er Jahre wieder vermehrt Künstlergruppen, die den utopischen Diskurs erneuern. Am Beispiel von Gruppen wie Atelier Van Lieshout, N55, Anke Haarmann und dem Institut für Paradiesforschung zeigt Julia Bulk, wie in der zeitgenössischen Kunst gemeinschaftliche Produktionsformen genutzt werden, um Möglichkeitsräume für einen ständigen Transformationsprozess zu schaffen. Anhand zahlreicher historischer Rückblicke wird dargelegt, wie die Entwicklung der Kunst vom Werkhaften zum Performativen neue Möglichkeiten für die einst rein literarische Gattung Utopie eröffnet.

Thomas Demand Thomas Demand, Nationalgalerie, 2009 Thomas Demand's work lures the viewer into a reality that is not what it appears to be. His images present scenes of political and social events, which the artist recreates out of paper and cardboard, in a scale that is true to the original size of the setting. Demand then photographs these sculptures, creating images in which specific traces of the events and the protagonists are removed, leaving possible evidence of a crime scene, one which appears familiar but yet out of reach. The exhibition and book Nationalgalerie brings together Demand's work of the last 15 years which is rooted in German imagery. Demand examines the Deutschlandbild, the German image in photographs from a variety of scenarios in the post-war period. From a selection both known and new of key images of decisive political events and private moments Demand offers a kaleidoscopic vision of a society.

Art in Reproduction Robert Verhoogt, 2007 This illuminating study examines the cultural meaning of artistic reproduction in a refreshingly new context through its consideration of how three artists managed the reproduction of their work.

Conservation of Easel Paintings Joyce Hill Stoner, Rebecca Rushfield, 2013-02-15 Conservation of Easel Paintings is the first comprehensive text on the history, philosophy, and methods of treatment of easel paintings that combines both theory with practice. With contributions from an international group of experts and interviews with important artists, this volume provides an all-encompassing guide to necessary background knowledge in technical art history, artists' materials, scientific methods of examination and documentation, with sections that present varying approaches and methods for treatment, including consolidation, lining, cleaning, retouching, and varnishing. The book concludes with a section featuring issues of preventive conservation, storage, shipping, exhibition, lighting, safety issues, and public outreach. Conservation of Easel Paintings is a crucial resource in the training of conservation students and will provide generations of practicing paintings conservators and interested art historians, curators, directors, collectors, dealers, artists, and students of art and art history with invaluable information and guidance.
