The Shy Stegosaurus of Cricket Creek Evelyn Sibley Lampman,1968

Murder by Madness 9/11 Rachel Verdon,2012-02-02 Murder By Madness 9/11 is not just the history of the most notorious attack upon American shores, it is a banking caper. Just who are the financiers of terrorism? As always, follow the money.

What We Found in the Sofa and How It Saved the World Henry Clark,2013-07-02 This clever comic adventure from debut author Henry Clark is a truly original and utterly wacky story about the importance of intelligence and curiosity in a complacent world. The adventure of a lifetime begins between two sofa cushions.... When River, Freak, and Fiona discover a mysterious sofa sitting at their bus stop, their search for loose change produces a rare zucchini-colored crayon. Little do they know this peculiar treasure is about to launch them into the middle of a plot to conquer the world! The kids' only hope is to trap the plot's mastermind when he comes to steal the crayon. But how can three kids from the middle of nowhere stop an evil billionaire? With the help of an eccentric neighbor, an artificially intelligent domino, a DNA-analyzing tray, two hot air balloons, and a cat named Mucus, they just might be able to save the planet.

The Evolutionary Road to Human Memory Elisabeth A. Murray,Steven P. Wise,Mary Kelly Lorene Baldwin,Kim S. Graham,2020 We tend to think about memory in terms of the human experience, neglecting the fact that we can trace a direct line of descent from the earliest vertebrates to modern humans. This book tells an intriguing story about how evolution shaped human memory.

Fish Out of Agua: Michele Carlo,2010-08-01 A voice from the loudspeaker blared, Will the family who brought the little redhead white girl to the Puerto Rican Day parade please come to the bandstand to pick her up. I looked around. Wait a minute. I am at the bandstand. I am that lost girl! Michele Carlo, a redhead, freckle-faced Puerto Rican raised in the Polish section of the Bronx, grew up as a permanent outsider. Too white for her proud, Spanish-speaking relatives and a mystery to her schoolmates, Michele braved a search for identity that was a long, rough and tumble ride. . . By turns heartbreaking and humorous, she recalls the family calamities, fumbling of first love, and all the people and events that shaped her. From her playground battlefield in the not-so-wholesome summer of '69 to many adrenaline-fueled, graffiti-filled afternoons and her emergence as an artist with a unique and alluring voice, Michele's story is an homage to a New York City gone by. . .and an iconically American, unforgettable portrait of growing up.

Endings - Houston 1951-1963 James Elliott McCall,

Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature, this timely, single-volume reference covers the books our children are--or should be--reading now, from board books to young adult novels. Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves, it is a cornucopia of delight. 23 color, 153 b&w illustrations.

Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, Vol 1 R. Reginald, 2010-09-01 Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, A Checklist, 1700-1974, Volume one of Two, contains an Author Index, Title Index, Series Index, Awards Index, and the Ace and Belmont Doubles Index.

Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape. This reference helps scholars, teachers, and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present, and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults. Included are entries for 51 writers, some of whom have nearly been forgotten, others who are just emerging. Each entry provides biographical, critical, and bibliographical information, while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book. Authors included range from the nearly forgotten, such as Laura Adams Armer, to the newly discovered, such as Graham Salisbury, winner of the 1994 Scott O'Dell Award for Historical Fiction. The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism, and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture. Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children's literature, lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself.

The Shy Stegosaurus of Indian Springs Evelyn Sibley Lampman, 2024-02-29 A supposedly extinct dinosaur, who looks like a mountain in motion, can be an alarming kind of friend. But Huck and his friends, Joan and Joey Brown, found that George, the shy stegosaurus, could be very helpful. Huck lived on an Indian reservation in Oregon with his great-grandfather Opalo, the tribe's former medicine man. He was a lonely boy until a banana and a resort vacation brought the four friends together. From that day on Huck had no time to be unhappy, the friends stayed busy with picnics, fishing, and Indian wrestling--which they always let George win! Join the friends on their adventures with George, the shy stegosaurus with the walnut-sized brain, in this sequel to The Shy Stegosaurus of Cricket Creek.

The Booklist, 1963

The Threshold of Forever: Essays and Reviews Darrell Schweitzer, 2017-03-24 Darrell Schweitzer's third collection of essays and reviews, a successor to the well-received Windows of the Imagination and The Fantastic Horizon, is a balanced mixture of scholarship and entertainment, ranging over the entire spectrum of imaginative literature, from the oldest novel in the world (1st century B.C.) to classic (and not-so-classic) pulp fiction, to childhood reading, to examinations of the works of such masters as H.P. Lovecraft, M.R. James, Robert Bloch, Stanley Weinbaum, John W. Campbell, and Thomas M. Disch. In between we encounter such surprising topics as a proposal for an H.P. Lovecraft biopic (The Whole Wide Lovecraft), the eccentricities of William Beckford (the author of Vathek), and even a report from Blobfest, an annual street fair devoted to the famous 1958 cult film, at which Schweitzer, as a member of the press, was allowed to touch the original Blob. Many of these pieces have been published in the prestigious The New York Review of Science Fiction. Schweitzer writes in an informative style that's knowledgeable, witty, and highly accessible. This is the finest kind of criticism -- it makes you want to read more, both of the critic's own prose and that of the writers he's discussing. Highly recommended! -- Robert Reginald. Darrell Schweitzer is a novelist, short-story writer and critic, a former editor of the legendary Weird Tales magazine, and a four-time World Fantasy Award finalist and one-time winner. His previous book of essays, The Fantastic Horizon, was a finalist for the Mythopoeic Award.

Children's Book-a-Day Almanac Anita Silvey, 2012-10-30 "An expert on children's literature . . . provides a worthwhile resource for teachers, librarians, and parents." —Booklist The Children's Book-a-Day Almanac is a new way to discover a great children's book—every day of the year! This fresh, inventive reference book is a dynamic way to showcase the gems, both new and old, of children's literature. Each page features an event of the day, a children's book that relates to that event, and a list of other events that took place on that day. Always informative and often surprising, celebrate a year of literature for children with The Children's Book-a-Day Almanac. "This has solid possibilities as a springboard for daily reading and writing activities in the classroom or as simply a book-focused way to start the day." —Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books
