But Kai informs me that's not true at all. Yet, he can't remember what really happened that fateful night, leaving me scratching my head. If Kai's not responsible —then it has to be murder, right? But he was with his best friends in the world while filming. Surely, they wouldn't hurt him, would they? That leaves me with more questions than ever before. Now, add in a too-sexy-for-primetime demon who wants to snatch Kai's soul, casts a diabolical spell on my libido, and not-so-subtly threatens my family and friends if I try and prevent it, and I've got big trouble. My Aunt Tuppence casts her own spell of protection to keep my family, Cary, and BFF Fab safe, but she warns me to stay away from them until I solve the case which leaves me on my own to investigate. Alone. Outmatched. Terrified. But I've got the determination of a thousand witches and the heart of a thousand more. Will it be enough to catch a killer while saving a giving, sweet boy from the bowels of Hell?
