

Down The River Unto The Sea

Alexander Francis Kirkpatrick

Down the River unto the Sea Walter Mosley, 2018-02-20 Winner of the Edgar Award for Best Novel of the Year: bestselling author Walter Mosley is back with a whole new character to love...As gorgeous a novel as anything he's ever written (Washington Post). Joe King Oliver was one of the NYPD's finest investigators until he was framed for sexual assault by unknown enemies within the force. A decade has passed since his release from Rikers, and he now runs a private detective agency with the help of his teenage daughter. Physically and emotionally broken by the brutality he suffered while behind bars, King leads a solitary life, his work and his daughter the only lights. When he receives a letter from his accuser confessing that she was paid to frame him years ago, King decides to find out who wanted him gone and why. On a quest for the justice he was denied, King agrees to help a radical black journalist accused of killing two on-duty police officers. Their cases intertwine across the years and expose a pattern of corruption and brutality wielded against the black men, women, and children whose lives the law destroyed. All the while, two lives hang in the balance: King's client's and his own. A wild ride that delivers hard-boiled satisfaction while toying with our prejudices and preconceptions. —Steph Cha, Los Angeles Times

Individuals and Institutions in the Ancient Near East Uri Gabbay, Shai Gordin, 2021-10-25 This volume honors Ran Zadok's work by focusing on his sustained interest in Mesopotamian social history. It brings together a rich array of scholarship on ancient names, deities, individuals, and institutions, from Persepolis to the Levant. Building on Zadok's intellectual concerns, this book includes contributions that expand our understanding of the diverse tapestry of the peoples who inhabited the Ancient Near East.
