Nikki Moustaki

The Collected Poems and Selected Prose Stanley Burnshaw, 2010-01-01 Stanley Burnshaw began to publish poems in the 1920s and founded his own verse journal in 1925. After serving as coeditor and drama critic of the New Masses weekly (1934-1936), he entered book publishing, directing the Dryden Press until 1958, when he joined Henry Holt. The first of his nineteen earlier works, André Spire and His Poetry, appeared in 1934 and the last in 1990, A Stanley Burnshaw Reader, with an introduction by Denis Donoghue. The present volume—the definitive Burnshaw collection—offers all the poems he wishes to preserve and a full representation of his prose, including My Friend, My Father in its entirety. The Collected Poems and Selected Prose is vital reading for anyone wishing to be fully acquainted with the man whom Karl Shapiro called one of the best-respected men of letters of our time.

Graves and the Goddess Ian Firla, Grevel Lindop, 2003 Examines the language of ancient Celtic and Mediterranean poetic myths, probing the role of the all-encompassing female figure, the White Goddess, in the earliest forms of poetry.

Writing and Being G. Lynn Nelson, 2010-08-01 With powerful, practical, step-by-step writing exercises, a wealth of examples, and stories of personal transformation through journaling, Writing and Being demonstrates that intentional, guided journaling is a profound way to discover one's authentic self. Beyond mere diary writing, these creative journaling methods help readers chart a path for a better future. The book begins by providing tips for the logistics of journal keeping, and includes suggestions for getting started. It then explores the entire writing process and explains the distinctions between private writing and public writing. The book also explains the biology behind the powerful experience of journaling by laying out recent discoveries about the human brain, showing how journaling can heal psychological and spiritual wounds. Finally, the author shows how to make journaling both a voyage of self-discovery and a means of sharing one's journey and inspiring others in a caring community of expanding love, support, and positive energy.

The Spiritual Guidance of Children Jerome Berryman, 2013-10 This book is an important "history-of-traditions" work in which Godly Play founder Jerome Berryman re-visions religious education as spiritual guidance and traces the history of Montessori religious education through four generations. Berryman then highlights the development of the Godly Play approach to spiritual guidance within this context and concludes with thoughts about the fifth generation and the future of the tradition.

The Logic of the Spirit in Human Thought and Experience Keith J White, Dana R Wright, 2015-02-26 In March 2012 a small consultation convened on the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary, where James E. Loder Jr. had served for forty years as the Mary D. Synnott Professor of the Philosophy of Christian Education. Members from the Child Theology Movement had begun to read Loder's work and they wanted to go further. So they invited former students of Loder's to meet with them for conversations about things that really mattered to them and to Loder: human beings (and especially children), the church's witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ, and discerning the work of Spiritus Creator in the postmodern world. The conversations proved rich and rewarding and some would even say they took on a life of their own - serious scholarship set to the music of the Spirit's communion-creating artistry forming new relationships, inspiring new ideas, and sustaining all of it amid much laughter, joy, and hope. These essays, taken from the papers delivered at the consultation, are offered as a means of extending that conversation inspired by Loder's interdisciplinary practical theological science and his discernment of the Lyric Form Evolution Ophelia Montague, AI, 2025-05-05 Lyric Form Evolution explores the captivating journey of lyric poetry in classical literature, transforming from personal sentiments to structured public performances. Initially, lyric poems offered intimate expressions, but their evolution involved formalization influenced by social, political, and cultural factors. The book examines the origins of lyric as personal expression, its formalization for choral performance, and the impact of patronage. The book traces this evolution across chapters, beginning with early lyric examples expressing personal emotions. It then explores choral lyric, analyzing complex metrical schemes. The final section examines the Roman adaptation of Greek lyric models. Interestingly, lyric poems were initially sung with musical accompaniment, highlighting the connection to performance and public spectacle. This study provides invaluable insights into classical societies' values and beliefs, uncovering how these poems reflect the changing relationship between individual expression and community. The book's unique approach integrates historical context with analyses of classical poets like Sappho, Archilochus, Catullus, Horace, and Ovid, offering a comprehensive exploration of lyric form evolution.

FLA Poetry A Covid-19 Anthology B. Retang Wohangara, Human beings are embedded with various kinds of strong feeling, of passions that are often brought to life into words. In his poetry collection, Leaves of Grass, the American poet, Walt Whitman writes, "We don't read and write poetry because it's cute. We read and write poetry because we are members of the human race. And the human race is filled with passion..." Thus, I believe that the students, alumni, and the lectures of FLA who share their poems with us in this FLApoetry Anthology want to articulate their existence as parts of humankind.

Seamus Heaney and the Classics S. J. Harrison, Fiona Macintosh, Helen Eastman, 2019 The death in 2013 of Seamus Heaney is an appropriate point to honour the great Irish poet's major contribution to classical reception in modern poetry. This is the first volume to be wholly dedicated to this perspective on Heaney's work, focusing primarily on his fascination with Greek drama and myth and his interest in Latin poetry.

World Through Poetic Sensibility DR. SHRI KANT KULSHRESTHA, DR. RAJAN LAL, 2021-01-19 The anthology in hand epitomizes the unique personality and endeavor of each of the poets who have given shape to this poetic comprehensive venture. Their poems are what they mean them to be. They are unquestionably wedded to artistic creation, glibly thrown off. In the golden realms of art, after all, nothing remains corruptible and contemptible, nothing sinful and lustful. This is a unique creation of theirs, wedded in words and strengthened by genuine sentiments. Each contribution of theirs would make enthusiasts and avid readers feel to roam on the globe and in the cosmos. The anthology is an assortment of seventy three poems or verses. For thematic sampling, some of the poems of the anthology evince social hypocrisy, feminist voice, nature love, benevolence, nostalgia, love, paradoxical parallels, optimism, lockdown, covid-19, shades of existentialism, art of living, feminine fears, vulgarity, creativity, human relations, silence, duality of existence, etc.

Writing in Community Lucy Adkins, Becky Breed, 2013-04-18 Writing in Community is a book of inspiration and encouragement for writers who want to reach deep within themselves and write to their fullest potential. There is magic in a successful writing group. This book helps writers tap into that magic, and with gentle wisdom and humor, experience unprecedented breakthroughs in creativity.

Children and the Theologians Jerome W. Berryman, 2009-11-01 The long history of children in theology is told via analysis of some twenty-five theologians, grouped according to six historical periods. Each account examines what a particular theologian thought about children and the experience it was based upon. Four themes that have shaped our attitudes about children in the church emerge from this history: ambivalence, ambiguity, indifference, and grace. The result of this study is to promote a healthier church, which will respect and utilize the distinctive gifts of children. In so doing, theologians will be better able to help clear the way for grace in the postmodern church.

Critical Inquiry: Some Winds on Works □□□, 2009-03-01 Here is a collection of sixteen critical papers which inquire into literary problems found in works of eight British authors (Milton, Blake, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Shelley, Keats, Arnold, and Graham Greene) as well as four American authors (Emerson, Frost, O'Neill, and Hemingway). Each critical inquiry herein is imagined as a wind made up of the critic's breath while an author's work is imagined as an enduring rock on which the wind blows. Readers may get wind of the author or the critic and may know how the wind blows and where it lies, but they are expected not to expect any wind to change the rock noticeably. What we want is merely the readers' attention and we hope their own winds will duly come to help keep the world in winds.□□□□□□□□□□□□□□

HEART UPON SLEEVE Dr. Ashish Kumar Gupta,2020-08-14 Heart Upon Sleeve is exposition of everyone's heart wrapped in emotional words. Each poem is unique in itself and unfolds the various aspects of life and its consequences along with COVID mayhem. In addition to that, this anthology comprises the music of love, sweetness, and the scent of life with a focused use of language that stimulates aesthetic reflection and contemplation. It contains a varied range of poetry from eroticism to spirituality and from love and romance to harsh realities. The cardinal reason for the versatility is that the poets in this anthology are from the novice teenagers to the veteran retired Professors from India and abroad. Some are amateurs, and some are professionally sound enough to place their words on the international intellectual forum.
