Quotes and Comforting Bible Verses Ellen Carter,2017-04-20 The purpose of this book is to give comfort to the grieving families. This is a compilations of bible verses and inspiring quotes based on the Word of God. Comforting Words From Scripture for Mourners. Mourning a loved one is always a painful journey, perhaps painful is an understatement. When someone you dearly loved dies, you never quite get over it. You just slowly learn to go on without them. Grief is like living two lives. One where you act as though everything is alright, while the other is where your heart silently cries in sorrow and pain. Some people find the process more difficult than others, either becoming too distraught or holding too much emotion in. Focusing our mind to Jesus, helps mourners follow the normal path to healing. Although it is emotionally straining to cope with loss, it is not out of the ordinary to grieve. It is not a series of events or timelines. Some people get over the pain of losing someone quicker than others. When someone dies, it happens in a moment, but the aftermath lasts a lifetime. Grief has its own imprint, it is unique and distinctive as the person we lost.You may not know how to live through the pain as we struggle to comprehend the devastating loss, although life goes on, you realize nothing will ever be the same again.

Drawing On Grief Kate Sutton,2022-04-12 Drawing On Grief is a uniquely creative journal and mindful keepsake which draws on the soothing therapeutic power of drawing for self-care/to heal whilst going through the grieving process.

A Legend in Your Own Lunchbox T.J. Abney,2022-01-07 We are all being presented with a crucial choice on a daily basis—evolve or repeat. Remember when you were a kid, and your mom or dad or grandmother or aunt—whoever raised you—either did it for you or helped you pack your lunch box for school. Maybe you still do the same thing today when you are preparing to head out to work or school. Regardless, there is something that is so beautiful in that process that applies to everything that you will find in the pages of this book. Try and visualize the connection to such a simple activity and how it applies to the life that you are creating for yourself this very day. Like preparing your lunch box for the day ahead and the physical nutrition it will bring, you can and should do the same thing from a mental, emotional, and spiritual standpoint. If you want the absolute best day, then you need to prepare yourself for the thoughts you will allow into your mind, the emotions and behavior of others that you will allow into your heart, and the people and circumstances that you will allow access to your spirit. What's it going to be? Do you want to evolve beyond your current situation and circumstances, or do you want to continue to repeat lessons you're just so tired of seeing become a reality in your life? Today, and every day ahead, you get to decide. To be a legend in your own lunch box and in life involves dedication, practice, taking a very long look at yourself, and making the determined decision to change. It won't always be an easy road, but here's a truth that you can hold on to. Your life will improve exponentially! When you take the time and develop the strong habit of preparing your "lunch box," you can accomplish extraordinary things, and the landscape that you can actively create for your life will drastically change. Try it. See how you evolve. I dare you!

For Those of Us Waiting on That Day! Ann Dillon, 2015-08-20 Anyone that has had a loved one go home knows the pain and sorrow that can overwhelm them. The loss of a loved one can send you into a deep abyss of pain and sorrow. Do you wonder where your loved one is? What is he or she doing? What is Heaven like? How do you find comfort in the pain? Where is God when it hurts? This book was written as the author found herself asking the same questions when, while still grieving the loss of her dad, her strong, healthy husband had a sudden heart attack. On November 2, 2011, her husband of thirty-eight years was called home to heaven. Trying to hold on to her faith while reeling from shock and grief, she threw herself into studying Gods Word and holding on to her faith while she tried to seek answers and comfort. Being unable to find a devotional that was specifically for grieving Christians lead her to write her first book. You will find comfort and assurance that you will be reunited with your loved one in the scripturally based devotions as you read what God has laid on her heart. Ann gives you a daily devotional that helps you focus on heaven, Gods sovereignty and everlasting love, eternity, and that glorious day we will be reunited with our loved ones, and help you find comfort and an eternal perspective as you wait on that day.

Help! I'm Dying Again Britney Chesworth, 2025-08-21 Has a new and unexplained lump, rash, or pain ever sent you into a tailspin? Have you spent hours online researching symptoms of serious illnesses or nagging your friends for confirmation that you weren't dying? Written by a therapist who has been there herself with her own health anxiety, Help! I'm Dying Again walks you through what health anxiety is, how it disrupts your life, and how to overcome it with cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT). Living in constant fear of your health is exhausting, but you can retrain your brain to not jump into overdrive at every new body sensation. You can live more comfortably without knowing all the answers, and, as scary as it seems right now, you can even be a little less afraid of death. Each chapter gives you CBT strategies for developing healthier thoughts, beliefs and behaviors to help you begin to see health and disease from a more grounded, less dire perspective. You aren't alone. It can get better, and it involves making small but intentional and consistent changes in your thoughts and behaviors each day.

In A Road Too Short for the Long Journey, readers are invited to consider how we might travel this road of mourning with those who grieve and how we might join them as partners in a reorientation of the world experienced through loss.
