Díaz and intends to find out how the language mirrors the transcultural identity of the characters. In order to do so, first the terms Identity and Transcultural Identity are defined and explained, followed by a subchapter discussing the relationship between the language a person uses and his or her identity. Following that, a detailed analysis of the language in the novel is made. This includes the two languages English and Spanish as well as the methods of mixing them and switching between them. Furthermore, there is a variety of speech registers to be found in the novel, two of which are discussed in detail, namely Nerdspeak and Academic English. The analysis includes the description of when and how specific words or registers are used, as well as the interpretation as to what this reveals about the sense of belonging or the confusion of identity found in the characters.

Global Matters Paul Jay,2014-02-15 As the pace of cultural globalization accelerates, the discipline of literary studies is undergoing dramatic transformation. Scholars and critics focus increasingly on theorizing difference and complicating the geographical framework defining their approaches. At the same time, Anglophone literature is being created by a remarkably transnational, multicultural group of writers exploring many of the same concerns, including the intersecting effects of colonialism, decolonization, migration, and globalization. Paul Jay surveys these developments, highlighting key debates within literary and cultural studies about the impact of globalization over the past two decades. Global Matters provides a concise, informative overview of theoretical, critical, and curricular issues driving the transnational turn in literary studies and how these issues have come to dominate contemporary global fiction as well. Through close, imaginative readings Jay analyzes the intersecting histories of colonialism, decolonization, and globalization engaged by an array of texts from Africa, Europe, South Asia, and the Americas, including Zadie Smith's White Teeth, Junot Díaz's The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao, Kiran Desai's The Inheritance of Loss, Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things, Vikram Chandra's Red Earth and Pouring Rain, Mohsin Hamid's Moth Smoke, and Zakes Mda's The Heart of Redness. A timely intervention in the most exciting debates within literary studies, Global Matters is a comprehensive guide to the transnational nature of Anglophone literature today and its relationship to the globalization of Western culture.

Linguistic Hybridity in "The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao" by Junot Díaz. To what extent does the Hybridity of Language also reflect Yunior's Cultural Identity? ,2023-12-12 Seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject Cultural Studies - Miscellaneous, Justus-Liebig-University Giessen (Anglistik), course: Contemporary Fictions of Migration, language: English, abstract: This term paper deals with the aspect of hybridity in Junot Díaz' novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao on the linguistic level. The first part of the term paper deals with the concept of hybridity by Homi K. Bhabha and Sten Pultz Moslund. Afterwards, the second part will focus on the narrative level in the writing of Yunior. The arguments will be based on a close look at the novel and the theories about cultural hybridity. Finally, the results of the chapters will be summarized to show and prove the hybrid point of view of the novel. The highly acclaimed novel was published in 2007 and won, among others, the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction 2008. It tells the story of Oscar, a Dominican-American boy, who grows up in the immigrant neighborhood of Paterson, New Jersey, influenced by U.S. society, the diaspora, and Dominican culture. The main conflict of the novel takes place between Oscar and the world. As an overweight, brown-skinned, fantasy-loving boy, Oscar tries to find a sense of love and affiliation in a society that mostly rejects him. However, the novel focuses not only on Oscar's life but it also deals with the history of three generations of families, all of whom struggle with their identities. The narration of the story effectively captures diasporic identity because of the narrative style in the novel. The English language is interspersed with Spanish colloquialisms. This hybridity of language reflects the world of the Caribbean, which shaped the author and, as it were, his characters. Hence, the 'in-betweenness' represents an important part of the book. The narrative style, namely the usage of Spanglish, also reflects in a certain way the own cultural identity since language can reflect a person's self-perception as well as their world view. Furthermore, these two languages represent both countries and cultures that are relevant to the characters of the novel and their identity. In addition to the use of multiple languages, Diaz's fiction deploys a range of different registers.
