Prayer in Islamic Thought and Practice Marion Holmes Katz,2013-04-29 The five daily prayers (Salāt) that constitute the second pillar of Islam deeply pervade the everyday life of observant Muslims. Until now, however, no general study has analyzed the rules governing Salāt, the historical dimensions of its practice and the rich variety of ways that it has been interpreted within the Islamic tradition. Marion Holmes Katz's richly textured book offers a broad historical survey of the rules, values and interpretations relating to Salāt. This innovative study on the subject examines the different ways in which prayer has been understood in Islamic law, Sufi mysticism and Islamic philosophy. Katz's book also goes beyond the spiritual realm to analyze the political dimensions of prayer, including scholars' concerns about the righteousness and piety of rulers. The last chapter raises significant issues around gender roles, including the question of women's participating in and leading public worship. This book will resonate with students of Islamic history and comparative religion.

Islam William Russell,2017-03-24 Civilization Suffers Where Islam Rules When the terrible events of 9/11 struck New York City, I was astonished that there were such a large number of people in the Islamic countries of the Middle East who hate us, who danced in the streets and burned our flag shouting, "Death to America" when they heard the tragic news. The fact that our sovereign country was invaded, property destroyed, and thousands of innocent Americans were murdered by this sneak attack, this act of war stirred me to find out who did it and why. When we learned that 11 university-educated Muslim men (4 with PHD'S) performed this evil act simply because their God, Allah, the God of Islam, told them to do it, was disturbing enough but when further study revealed the fundamental objective of these Muslim fanatics is to take over the world with their philosophies, energized me to learn more about Islam and write this book. Muslim Prayer in American Public Life Rose Aslan, 2024 Drawing on a variety of literature, poetry, films, TV shows, and social media posts, and an original survey of 350 US Muslims, Muslim Prayer in American Public Life provides an in-depth examination of the lived experiences of Muslim prayer practices in the United States today.

Islamic Prayer Across the Indian Ocean Stephen Headley, David Parkin, 2018-10-24 In its attempt to squash the influence of animism and pantheism or polytheism and to promote the idea of the One and Only Absolute God, Islam has come up against a tendency within itself to incorporate certain local religious traditions and practices. This book shares that combination of universality and local particularity, exploring this paradox and the contradictory tendencies contained in it.

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 32:2 Sidek Bin Baba, Mohamad Johdi Salleh, Tareq M. Zayed, Ridwan Harris, Nuraan Davids, Mahdi Shafieyan, Abdul Rashid Moten, Muhammad Yaseen Gada, Khairudin Aljunied, Amr G. E. Sabet, Sophia Rose Arjana, Mourad Laabdi, Samy Ayoub, Liyakat Takim, Amar Sellam, Stephen Cory, Mustafa Gokcek, Amina Inoles, Hamid Mavani, Leyla Ozgur Alhassen, Yasmin Amin, Farid Senzai, Jay Willoughby, Busra Kukpinar, 2015-03-01 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences (AJISS), established in 1984, is a quarterly, double blind peer-reviewed and interdisciplinary journal, published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT), and distributed worldwide. Islam William F. Russell, 2013-06-11 We must ask ourselves, can we allow a group of fundamentalist Muslims following the culture of Islam to freely attack our country, our Democratic institutions, our freedom of speech, our freedom of religion, our very civilization and get away with it? This is a very controversial subject. Our president tells us, Islam is a religion of peace. Yet, we see many examples of the violence of Islam throughout the world and a long history of well documented Islamic violence for over 1400 years. What is the truth? Our country has always welcomed immigrants from all walks of life and from every religion. We protect religions in this country. But is Islam truly only a religion? Should Islam have religion status? That subject will be discussed in this book. Some exclaiming, fear of the threat of Islam, are accused of Islamophobia, but when you examine the historical facts, like the 9/11 attack in New York City by Muslims that destroyed the World Trade Center and killed nearly 3,000 Americans, what is actually happening? Daily, in Great Britain and numerous countries in Europe, fear becomes a reality, not a phobia. In the early 1930s, we were told by many soothsayers that the Nazis were not a threat. But some leaders, like Winston Churchill, knew the truth and eventually the world woke up to his call and was energized to action to stop the evil Nazi empire which nearly took over the world. It required a disastrous World War to do it. We do not want to repeat that error and wait until it is too late to stop this insidious invasion of Islam. What is the truth? What should be our position regarding Islam? Should we expose our culture to one which says it wants to dominate us and

bring to us a set of laws known as Sharia, which will make a mockery of our freedoms and subjugate women to second class status? This book details the many barbaric concepts of the philosophy of Islam and examines actions we must consider in defense of the cherished and hard-earned freedoms which are our right under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights in our democratic world. The author was born in New York City in November 1925 the eldest of three children of Dr. and Mrs. Frank H Russell. He graduated in 1950 from the University of Colorado with a Pre-Medical Major but spent much of his life in international business as a corporate executive and CEO. He has been an entrepreneur for the past 40 years. William is currently concentrating on writing. keywords: Islam, Threat to Civilization, Islam History, Islam Objectives, Violence, Sharia Law, Freedom, Invasion, Fundamentalist, Muslims

Hashtag Islam Gary R. Bunt, 2018-09-25 Gary R. Bunt is a twenty-year pioneer in the study of cyber-Islamic environments (CIEs). In his new book, Bunt explores the diverse and surprising ways digital technology is shaping how Muslims across vast territories relate to religious authorities in fulfilling spiritual, mystical, and legalistic agendas. From social networks to websites, essential elements of religious practices and authority now have representation online. Muslims, embracing the immediacy and general accessibility of the internet, are increasingly turning to cyberspace for advice and answers to important religious questions. Online environments often challenge traditional models of authority, however. One result is the rise of digitally literate religious scholars and authorities whose influence and impact go beyond traditional boundaries of imams, mullahs, and shaikhs. Bunt shows how online rhetoric and social media are being used to articulate religious faith by many different kinds of Muslim organizations and individuals, from Muslim comedians and women's rights advocates to jihad-oriented groups, such as the "Islamic State" and al-Qaeda, which now clearly rely on strategic digital media policies to augment and justify their authority and draw recruits. This book makes clear that understanding CIEs is crucial for the holistic interpretation of authority in contemporary Islam.

Islamic Spirituality Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 2013-11-05 Originally published 1987. The first part of the volume is concerned with The Roots of the Islamic Tradition and Spirituality. These are seen to include the Qu'ran as the central theophany of Islam, the Prophet who received the word of God and made it known to mankind and the rites of Islam. The second part examines the divisions of the Islamic community with their distinctive pieties and emphases: Sunnism and Shi'ism and female spirituality. Part III is devoted to Sufism - its nature and origin, its early development, its various spiritual practices and its science of the soul.

Prayer David Marshall, Lucinda Mosher, 2013-12-12 Prayer: Christian and Muslim Perspectives is a rich collection of essays, scriptural texts, and personal reflections featuring leading scholars analyzing the meaning and function of prayer within their traditions. Drawn from the 2011 Building Bridges seminar in Doha, Qatar, the essays in this volume explore the devotional practices of each tradition and how these practices are taught and learned. Relevant texts are included, with commentary, as are personal reflections on prayer by each of the seminar participants. The volume also contains a Christian reflection on Islamic prayer and a Muslim reflection on Christian prayer. An extensive account of the informal conversations at the seminar conveys a vivid sense of the lively, penetrating, but respectful dialogue that took place.

Islamic Algorithms Gary R. Bunt, 2024-04-04 This book examines how Islam is digitally mediated at a time of technological change, enhanced digital literacy and proactive engagement in Islamic online content by authorities and influencers. What is the impact of this on societies, believers and understandings of Islam? Islamic Algorithms provides a thorough exploration of Cyber Islamic Environments (CIEs) through representations of significant historical and religious influences across contexts and diversities. This ranges from jinn and angels through to contemporary influencers. Gary R. Bunt raises issues of how digital content is embedded in contemporary understandings of Islam and their dissemination. Bunt shows how the interpretation of pivotal figures in Islam – including Muhammad and his family, scholars and imams – can be informed by new generations of digital influences, such as apps and social networking, which have become primary sources of information for many Muslims globally. Islam: Global Christian Perspectives Wageeh Mikhail, 2024-07-30 There are hundreds of books on Islam; after all, it is the second largest religion on the planet. Few, however, are the books written by Christian scholars of Islam who live and work in Muslim-majority countries. Here lies the value of this current volume. It addresses Islam, Islamic history, Islamic theology, and Christian-Muslim relations from global Christian perspectives where contributors describe experiences and narratives of conversations, obstacles, cohabitation, understanding, and cooperative efforts between Christians and Muslims in a variety of Middle Eastern, African, and Asian nations, including Egypt, Ghana, India, Jordan, Lebanon, and Nigeria. This book treats Islam academically and from a Christian standpoint. Authors discuss historical interactions between Christians and Muslims and, where relevant, current avenues for work for the common good.

Salvation Through of Repentance (An Islamic View) - ﺍﺑﯘ ﺍﻣﯩﻨﻪ ﺑﯩﻞ ﻓﯩﻠﯩﭗﺲ Abu Ameenah Bilal Philips,

Blasphemy, Islam and the State Stewart Fenwick, 2016-10-04 This book draws on the work of Rawls to explore the interaction between faith, law and the right to religious freedom in post-Soeharto Indonesia, the world's largest democracy after India and the United States. It argues that enforcement of Islamic principles by the state is inconsistent with religious diversity and the country's liberal constitution. The book thus contributes to understanding the role of religion in the development of democracy in the world's largest Muslim nation. A key objective is to test the argument that Rawls' thinking about public reason cannot apply to the case of Indonesia, and Muslim states more broadly. The book therefore contributes to emerging scholarship that considers Rawls in a Muslim context. In addition to examining public reason in detail and considering critiques of the concept, the work highlights the fact that the theory was created to deal with value pluralism and is therefore relevant in any religious setting, including an Islamic one. In doing so, it emphasises that Islam is multifaceted and demonstrates the difficulties, and negative consequences, of integrating faith and law in a liberal state.

Islamic Thought Abdullah Saeed, 2006-11-22 Islamic Thought is a fresh and contemporary introduction to the philosophies and doctrines of Islam. Abdullah Saeed, a distinguished Muslim scholar, traces the development of religious knowledge in Islam, from the pre-modern to the modern period. The book focuses on Muslim thought, as well as the development, production and transmission of religious knowledge, and the trends, schools and movements that have contributed to the production of this knowledge. Key topics in Islamic culture are explored, including the development of the Islamic intellectual tradition, the two foundation texts, the Qur'an and Hadith, legal thought, theological thought, mystical thought, Islamic Art, philosophical thought, political thought, and renewal, reform and rethinking today. Through this rich and varied discussion, Saeed presents a fascinating depiction of how Islam was lived in the past and how its adherents practise it in the present. Islamic Thought is essential reading for students beginning the study of Islam but will also interest anyone seeking to learn more about one of the world's great religions.

Islam and Muslim Resistance to Modernity in Turkey Gokhan Bacik, 2019-08-24 This book explores how traditional Sunni Muslim conceptions have informed or shaped Islamization strategies in contemporary Turkey. In particular, the author proposes to examine the teaching curriculum of the Ministry of Education, which oversees Turkish public religious education; the activities and teachings of Diyanet, the constitutional organ responsible for managing all religious affairs; and the ideas and activities of three Muslim religious groups currently operating in Turkey. The monograph explains how the interpretation and practice of Islam affects various situations in the Muslim world and analyzes the concept of nature in Islam, which has been an indivisible component of Islamic tradition since the beginning.

Islamic Spirituality Zeki Saritoprak, 2017-11-30 Islamic Spirituality: Theology and Practice for the Modern World examines and explores the inner dimension of Islam. The writings of important figures in the historical development of Islamic spirituality are examined, as well as the major sources of religious authority in Islam, the Qur'an and Hadith. Both classical Sufis and Sufism are explored as well as contemporary mystics. Key figures discussed include medieval Islamic theologian al-Ghazali (d.1111), and Said Nursi (d.1960), arguably one of the most important modern theologians in the Islamic spiritual tradition. Discussing both historical and contemporary dimensions of Islamic spirituality allows the author to ground classical Sufi texts in contemporary ideas and practices. Exploring spirituality in relation to key contemporary issues such as ecology, Zeki Saritoprak demonstrates how, when, and where people can practice Islamic spirituality in the Modern world. Providing an overview of the intellectual and theological basis of Islamic spirituality, and including the author's own translations of a selection of key texts, this volume is ideal reading for courses exploring Islamic spirituality and mysticism and anyone interested in the spiritual practices of nearly a quarter of the world's population.

What Kind of Friendship? Tom Wilson,2015-09-23 We sometimes say that Muslims and Christians are part of Abraham's family, but while you can choose your friends, you cannot choose your family. In a world filled with conflict, can Christians be friends with Muslims? When it comes to medical ethics, the economy, the environment, media, the arts, the place of women in society, political engagement, do Christians and Muslims have any views in common? Utilizing the writings of respected Muslim reformer Tariq Ramadan, Tom Wilson asks questions about what kind of friendship Christians and Muslims might have. While we disagree as to who Jesus is or how we can be saved, can we agree in our concern for a fairer, more just society? Can we work together for the common good as friends who disagree but remain respectful?

I Cry at the Feet of My Other Body Mustapha Enesi,2025-09-26 As far as modern Nigerian literature goes, I Cry at the Feet of My Other Body is undoubtedly one of the finest. It does not shy away from examining gendered violence and vulnerability, but at the same time, it appreciates the mercies of resilience, ritual, and solidarity. - The Moveee Every work in Mustapha Enesi's collection dazzles with the immediacy and flair of a natural storyteller. Both deft and enlightened, they reveal the cycle of life and death through the lives of women. Brilliantly interlaced stories of resilience, invention, and linguistic verve. - Catherine McNamara  Mustapha Enesi explores the lives of Nigerian women: their struggles, resilience, and the societal pressures that shape their existence. From the fiercely independent Simbi battling a life-altering diagnosis while confronting community expectations, to the ageing Mrs. Silifa grappling with an unexpected pregnancy and a complex relationship with a younger man, these stories paint a rich imagery of womanhood. Experience the quiet desperation of a woman losing her memory and reliving past traumas, the hidden sorrows of a mother whose palm-reading gift comes at a profound personal cost, and the journey of Immaculate seeking freedom and purpose beyond the confines of a religious institution. Through these 12 stories that touch on themes of loss, societal judgment, and the relentless search for happiness, Enesi crafts a compelling and deeply human portrait of women striving to define themselves amidst the complexities of Nigerian life.
