Kirkpinar - All about Turkish Oilwrestling Mohamed El-Fers, 2009-07-16 It is the Oldest Sport of the World! The muscled glory of oil-coated Turkish wrestling has a Guinness World Record for the longest running of all sports competition. KIRKPINAR, All about oilwrestling is the name of the book by Murat Kirbaçoglu and Mohamed el-Fers. It leads you through the ins and outs, do's and don'ts of the Olders Sport on Earth, held annually in the summer near Edirne, Turkey (formerly known as Adrianople). Although not a photobook on pocket size, it has loads of pictures, all b/w and most grabs of what is known as the 'Pirelli Calendar for the Lady' by oilpainting artist M-Rat. But one small picture made my day: The oldest piece of evidence of oilwrestling from Assyria, made 4.660 years ago!

The Heritage of Edirne in Ottoman and Turkish Times Birgit Krawietz, Florian Riedler, 2019-12-16 Modern scholarship has not given Edirne the attention it deserves regarding its significance as one of the capitals of the Ottoman Empire. This edited volume offers a reinterpretation of Edirne's history from Early Ottoman times to recent periods of the Turkish Republic. Presently, disconnections and discontinuities introduced by the transition from empire to nation state still characterize the image of the city and the historiography about it. In contrast, this volume examines how the city engages in the forming, deflecting and creative appropriation of its heritage, a process that has turned Edirne into a UNESCO heritage hotspot. A closer historical analysis demonstrates the dissonances and contradictions that these different interpretations and uses of heritage produce. From the beginning, Edirne was shaped by its connectivity and relationality to other places, above all to Istanbul. This perspective is employed at many different levels, e.g., with regard to its population, institutions, architecture, infrastructures and popular culture, but also regarding the imaginations Edirne triggered. In sum, this multi-disciplinary volume boosts urban history beyond Istanbul and offers new insight into Ottoman and Turkish connectivities from the vantage point of certain key moments of Edirne's history.

Sport Rules Ava Thompson, AI, 2025-01-31 Sport Rules takes readers on a captivating journey through the world of non-mainstream athletics, exploring how different cultures have developed unique sporting traditions that reflect their values, geography, and social structures. From Finland's wife-carrying competitions to Afghanistan's buzkashi matches played with goat carcasses, this comprehensive guide examines over fifty unconventional sports across six continents, revealing the fascinating intersection of cultural identity and athletic competition. The book masterfully organizes its exploration into three distinct sections: traditional cultural sports, modern alternative sports, and hybrid competitions. Through detailed analysis supported by historical documents, interviews, and official rulebooks, readers discover how basic athletic concepts adapt to various cultural contexts while maintaining core competitive principles. Notable examples include the ancient Mexican pelota, which shares fundamental elements with modern racquet sports while preserving its ceremonial significance. What sets this work apart is its ability to bridge academic research with accessible presentation, featuring detailed diagrams, photographs, and firsthand accounts that bring these unique sports to life. The book demonstrates how alternative sports contribute to community cohesion and cultural preservation while adapting to modern standardization pressures. Whether for sports enthusiasts, cultural researchers, or education professionals, this guide offers valuable insights into how human competition manifests across different societies while maintaining surprisingly consistent fundamental patterns.

Edirne Izabela Mischczak, 2021-03-10 Once known as Adrianople and Hadrianopolis, and today as Edirne, this border town of the European part of Turkey is an astonishingly inconspicuous place. If the visitors come to see it, it is mainly for one of two reasons. The huge draw for the people who love historical architecture is the magnificent Selimiye Mosque Complex, built by the most famous Ottoman architect, Sinan, and proudly listed by the UNESCO as the world heritage site. The unusual location of Edirne, at the confluence of three rivers, has always been a mixture of blessings and disastrous floods, and was even recorded in the Greek mythology, in the story of matricidal Orestes. The traces of the indigenous inhabitants of the area, the Thracians, that gave the region its name, are scattered near Edirne. These mysterious dolmens, so frequently associated with Western Europe only, still guard many secrets of the past of Thrace. While this book is the tale of the city and its monuments, it is foremost the history of its inhabitants. One of the ambitions of the author was to record beautifully multicultural and multi-ethnic past, still reflected in Edirne's architecture. Unfortunately, the intricate mosaic of various religions and nationalities is no more, its pieces scattered by the wars, conflicts, and disasters.

Muslim Bodies Susanne Kurz, Claudia Preckel, Stefan Reichmuth, 2016 Der Sammelband ist aus einem Panel beim Deutschen Orientalistentag in Marburg 2010 hervorgegangen und beleuchtet aus unterschiedlichen Perspektiven Körpererfahrungen, -kulturen, -diskurse und -techniken in islamisch geprägten Kulturen der Vergangenheit und Gegenwart. Leitgedanke ist dabei die Frage danach, wie Individuen ihr Wissen über Körper/Sexualität im sozialen Feld konstruieren und welche Deutungssysteme (z. B. Islam, graeco-islamische Medizin) dabei wirksam werden. The present volume, product of a conference panel at the German Orientalists' Conference in Marburg 2010, aims at throwing light on the experiences, discourses and body techniques prevailing in Muslim bodily culture. It combines historical with contemporary case studies and explores the individual and collective patterns of knowledge construction related to body and sexuality, in a social field where different and sometimes conflicting knowledge systems (e.g. Islam, Graeco-Islamic Medicine) can be found at work.

Unique Sports Ava Thompson, 2025-01-31 Unique Sports takes readers on a fascinating journey through the world of unconventional athletic competitions, exploring over fifty remarkable sporting traditions that extend far beyond familiar mainstream sports. From Finland's quirky mobile phone throwing contests to the gravity-defying sepak takraw of Cambodia, this comprehensive guide reveals how diverse cultures express themselves through unique physical competitions. The book's four-section structure thoughtfully progresses from ancient surviving sports like Turkish oil wrestling and Scottish caber tossing to modern alternative sports such as parkour and cheese rolling. Through detailed field research and firsthand accounts from practitioners and community leaders, readers gain intimate insights into not just the technical aspects of these sports—including rules, equipment, and training methods—but also their profound cultural significance and role in preserving heritage. For example, the Japanese practice of bo-taoshi illuminates group dynamics and leadership development, while Inuit games demonstrate human adaptation to extreme environments. By combining technical information with engaging storytelling and well-researched historical context, the book offers readers a unique perspective on how physical competition serves as a universal language of human creativity and community building across cultures.

Mixed Martial Arts L.A. Jennings, 2021-04-23 Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) is an international phenomenon, with a fascinatingly diverse and complex history that stems from fighting sports around the world. In Mixed Martial Arts: A History from Ancient Fighting Sports to the UFC, L.A. Jennings explores the vast global history of martial arts—including Asian martial arts, African fighting sports, European pugilism and wrestling, and the fighting styles of North, Central, and South Americas—and how they gave rise to the modern sport of MMA. Jennings shares some of the most famous moments in fighting history alongside stories of the fighters themselves, such as the infamous 1976 fight between Muhammad Ali and Antonio Inoki. When the Ultimate Fighting Championship premiered in 1993, it introduced the world to the controversial “cage fighting” at a scale never seen before. With the assistance of technological innovations and globalization, MMA has become the fastest growing sport on earth, the culmination of thousands of years of fighting for sport. Featuring fascinating stories and photographs of fighters from around the world, Mixed Martial Arts reveals the long and captivating history of this often-misunderstood sport.

Indigenous, Traditional, and Folk Sports Mariann Vaczi, Alan Bairner, 2023-10-06 This is the first book to focus on indigenous, traditional, and folk sports and sporting cultures. It examines the significance of sporting cultures that have survived the emergence and diffusion of western sports and have carved out a unique position not only in spite of modernity but also in response to it. Presenting case studies from around the world, including from Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas, this book draws on multidisciplinary work from sociology, anthropology, history, cultural studies, and political science, exploring key themes in the social sciences including nationalism, identity, decolonisation, and gender. From Turkish oil wrestling, kabaddi in South Asia, Iroquois lacrosse, to wushu and sumo in East Asia and various European traditional sports, these sporting practices continue to capture the indigenous imagination on the margins of the western hegemonic sport complex. Situated in the fissures between the local, the national, and the global; between the archaic and the modern; and between ritual and record, they inhabit a liminal space of transformation as they assume new cultural and political meanings, offering important perspectives on the complexities and contradictions of modernity. The volume’s decolonial perspective lies in its promotion of indigenous and subaltern worldviews through their traditional movement cultures on the margins of the western hegemonic sport complex. This is a fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in sport, nationalism, Indigenous studies, heritage and folklore studies, anthropology, social and cultural history, or globalisation.
