Play the Easy Way! Lena Eckhoff, Thomas Balinger, 2017-07-22 Lena Eckhoff und Thomas Balinger Play the easy way! Easy color-coded children's songs for piano First easy steps on the piano. Making music is a fascinating experience. But having to master the cumbersome task of reading music can be demotivating and thus often spoils the party. To prevent this, this book features color-coded notes. Matching a note to the corresponding color of a piano key is easily done even by very small children - and it's fun, too! Playing by colors ensures lasting motivation while reading music comes playfully along the way. All the songs in this book have been compiled and arranged especially for young musicians and their first easy steps on the piano. Starting from middle C, each hand never leaves its five-note area, thus the note/color assignment stays the same throughout the book. Chord symbols are included so you can play these songs together with your child. And at the end of the book you'll find some colored labels to cut out and fit to your instrument (we suggest using adhesive tape so they can be removed easily later on). Songs - 99-bottles - All through the night - Cock a doodle do - Down by the station - Five fat turkeys - Hey, diddle, diddle - I had a little nut tree - Old Macdonald - One elephant went out - One, two, three, four, five - Rub-a-dub-dub - Skip to my lou - Ten in a bed - The farmer in the dell - This little pig went to market
