7 Rules of Power Jeffrey Pfeffer, 2022-06-07 If you want to change lives, change organizations, change the world, the Stanford business school's motto, you need power. Is power the last dirty secret or the secret to success? Both. While power carries some negative connotations, power is a tool that can be used for good or evil. Don't blame the tool for how some people used it. If fully understood and harnessed effectively, power skills and understanding become the keys to increasing salaries, job satisfaction, career advancement, organizational change, and, happiness. In 7 Rules of Power, Jeffrey Pfeffer, professor of organizational behavior at the Stanford University Graduate School of Business, provides the insights that have made both his online and on-campus classes incredibly popular—with life-changing results often achieved in 8 or 10 weeks. Rooted firmly in social science research, Pfeffer's 7 rules provide a manual for increasing your ability to get things done, including increasing the positive effects of your job performance. The 7 rules are: 1) Get out of your own way. 2) Break the rules. 3) Show up in powerful fashion. 4) Create a powerful brand. 5) Network relentlessly. 6) Use your power. 7) Understand that once you have acquired power, what you did to get it will be forgiven, forgotten, or both. With 7 Rules of Power, you'll learn, through both numerous examples as well as research evidence, how to accomplish change in your organization, your life, the lives of others, and the world.

The 7 Rules to Success Alex Ogorek, 2018-10-05 One of the questions you're probably asking yourself is: Why these 7? What is so special and different about these specific rules to living life that warrants an entire program? There are countless other programs and books on the subject, and many different takes on how to best approach the way you live your life and achieve success, so why this program? Two words: Proven & Flexible. These 7 rules have been proven time and again with multiple individuals (both personally and professionally) to provide long-lasting, sustainable success. Some of the rules have changed over time, and others have dropped off the list entirely. But all-in-all, these final 7 remain the truly proven rules to achieve massive success in your life. These 7 rules have also been time-tested to be flexible enough to allow everyone from casual beginner to battle-hardened veteran to learn something valuable and to take quality action towards their own success. I hope this program takes you beyond your wildest dreams in every area of your life. If it doesn't, feel free to reach out to me and I'll get you your money back, if nothing else. There's nothing I hate more than charging someone for a product that they despise and regret purchasing. This program has a lot of content. Although the title says Simple, there are definitely many nuances and tiny configurations to each rule that I will go over with you as a part of this program. By the end of it, I hope to make you a fanatic about becoming amazing, as I know these rules have changed others' lives too. In Rule 1, I will discuss why continuing your education (formal or otherwise) and making sure to improve every area of your life simultaneously is the key driver in your success. I will also go over some various techniques and hacks you can use to further your rate of improvement. In Rule 2, I will show you why success is not about you or other people's opinions of you. I'll take you on a deep dive into techniques that will help curb your natural defensive human behavior and help you override your default reactions to others. In Rule 3, I will explain how luck doesn't exist, it is crafted, and why it's so important to make sure you jump at the latest and greatest of things presented in your life. In Rule 4, I will discuss the value of persistence and giving it all you got until the job is done, no matter what. This may sound counter to Rule 3, but that's where the nuances come in, and this part of the program will explain these differences in detail. In Rule 5, I will discuss why most people take their life in a nearly-endless downward death spiral because they fail to follow this rule, and continue purchasing and taking things and never giving back. I will also go into details with some simple ways you can produce in your life starting today. In Rule 6, I will explain the rarely-done truth about success in your life, with regards to yourself but especially when it comes to other people. If nothing else, this one rule, if done right, will change your life forever. I will also show you some action rules you can do right now to make sure your reliability and trustworthiness starts rising. Finally, in Rule 7, I will go into depth about why making excuses in your life is the biggest reason why you haven't really been pursuing your dreams. I will also go over some procedures you can follow to make sure you never make excuses again. So what are you waiting for? Regards, Alex Ogorek

At the same time, you do good and support sustainable projects. Because especially managers, who have often worked hard for their position, believe that they have to manage everything on their own and find it hard to give up work. At the same time they want to please everyone and can hardly say no. But this attitude is fatal for personal time management and work efficiency. And the consequences are unmistakable stress and excessive demands. What helps these people is to learn to give up work step by step, to trust other people and to realize that it is possible without them - but without making themselves replaceable. With its integrated knowledge system and Info on Demand concept, the publisher not only participated in an EU-funded program but was also awarded the Global Business Award as Publisher of the Year.
