Allie Casazza

Maya Angelou's I Know why the Caged Bird Sings Harold Bloom, 2004 Includes a brief biography of Maya Angelou, thematic and structural analysis of the work, critical views, and an index of themes and ideas.

The 'Ism' Dilemma George I. Bailey, 2020-11-09 My wife and I have been born again saved Christians for over 20 years. We do have a non-denominational church home and we study The Holy Bible together regularly at home. We have a blended family with 3 adult children and 2 grandchildren. I have worked for 20 years in electric operations and transportation. I have a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and am currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Christian Apologetics. The book is primarily about relationship issues that result from illegitimate people groupings in modern day society. The book has an overwhelming focus on the spiritual impact on people, when pride based problems are not properly addressed with a biblical relationship with Jesus Christ. I have personally struggled with many of the people grouping issues discussed in this book; pride has been one such stumbling block for me. Creating this book has in part been a personal journey for me, helping me to heal some of the wounds inflicted upon me by others, as well as heal wounds I've caused others. It is my sincere hope and prayer that your journey through this book will heal you and your loved ones, as it has done for me and my family. With God's help, Christians and Non-Christians alike can all benefit from the experiences, tools, and methods in this book by improving themselves spiritually, and by improving the quality of their relationships with others

Maya Angelou Linda Wagner-Martin, 2020-12-10 A revised and updated edition of a comprehensive biographical and critical reading of the works of American poet and memoirist Maya Angelou (1928-2014). Linda Wagner-Martin covers all six of Angelou's autobiographies, as well as her essay and poetry collections, whilst also exploring Angelou's life as an African American in the United States, her career as stage and film performer, her thoughtful participation in the Civil Rights actions of the 1960s, and her travels abroad in Egypt, Africa, and Europe. In her discussion of Angelou's methods of writing her stunning autobiography, which began with the 1970 publication of I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings, Wagner-Martin writes about the influences of the Harlem Writers Group (led by James Baldwin, Paule Marshall, and John O. Killens) as well as Angelou's significant friendships with Malcolm X, Martin Luther King, Jr., and other leaders from both international and African American United States cultures. Crucial concepts throughout include the role of oral traditions, of song and dance, of the spiritualism of art based on religious belief, of Angelou's voiced rhythms and her polished use of dialogue to convey more abstract “meaning.” Wagner-Martin shows that, viewing herself as a global citizen, Angelou never lost her spirit of adventure and discovery as well as her ability to overcome. Named an Outstanding Academic Title of the Year by Choice in 2015, this new edition includes two new chapters on Angelou's connections to Africa and on her final years.

A Mother's Love Adams Media, 2017-02-07 Four hundred quotes from celebrities, athletes, authors, politicians, and others about a mother's power and love, and the gratitude and appreciation people have for their mothers--

Quotes to Live By Emma Careford, 2015-03-17 Women are strong, powerful, loving, caring, gentle, ruthless. We possess every strength and weakness you can think of. We are mothers, daughters, lovers, wives, sisters. We possess wisdom and wit. And you can see our wit, our wisdom, our capacity for life nowhere better than in these great quotations. 365 of them, split into months and days to live your life by. Inspirational quotes, motivational quotations, mother and daughter quotes, relationships, divorce, men, children; the power of women is served up in these life changing quotations. Racism, freedom, relationships, sex, family, mother daughter relationships and much, much more is covered in the pages of this gem. The first half of this inspirational book deals with family, with relationships, with mothers and their feelings. Agatha Christie on being a mother: “A mother's love for her child is like nothing else in the world. It knows no law, no pity. It dares all things and crushes down remorselessly all that stands in its path.” Jodi Picoult about her mother: “My mother... she is beautiful, softened at the edges and tempered with a spine of steel. I want to grow old and be like her.” JK Rowling on the love of a mother: “Love as powerful as your mother’s for you leaves its own mark ... to have been loved so deeply ... will give us some protection forever.” How about Florida Scott -Maxwell: “No matter how old a mother is, she watches her middle-aged children for signs of improvement.” Or Phyllis Diller: We spend the first twelve months of our children's lives teaching them to walk and talk and the next twelve telling them to sit down and shut up. The next 6 months gives you quotes from some of the greatest women that have ever lived. The great poet and advocate of women, Maya Angelou; the wonderful Germaine Greer, Susan B Anthony, Eleanor Roosevelt, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Helen Keller and Rosa Parks. There’s a mini biography to go with each one just in case you know nothing about them. Hang your head in shame! My thanks to Wikipedia for the mini biographies. Love quotes from Helen Keller: “The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched - they must be felt with the heart.” Inspirational quotes from Harriet Beecher Stowe; “The longest day must have its close - the gloomiest night will wear on to a morning.” Funny quotes from Eleanor Roosevelt: “I once had a rose named after me and I was very flattered. But I was not pleased to read the description in the catalogue: no good in a bed, but fine up against a wall.” Quotes about life from Maya Angelou; “I’ve learned that making a ‘living’ is not the same thing as ‘making a life’” and from Rosa Parks: “. Each person must live their life as a model for others.” And on sex and love from Germaine Greer: “I have always been principally interested in men for sex. I've always thought any sane woman would be a lover of women because loving men is such a mess. I have always wished I'd fall in love with a woman. Damn.” These only scratch the surface of the wisdom of women.365 great quotes to live your life by. Writers, artists, business women; women from all creeds, centuries and societies have their say. Oh, there is the occasional quote from a man but don't let that put you off. We do need them sometimes, after all!

Mama Is Still Here! Norris Lee Roberts Jr. Ed.D.,2013-03-15 Mama Is Still Here! Is a true story of an educated and accomplished African-American woman who was raised in the state of Mississippi between the 1940's and 1960's. Daisy: a wife, mother, and everyone's favorite sister, aunt, and friend, is admired for her swagger and confidence. But she finds her life spiraling out of control because of impaired memory lapses due to Alzheimer's disease. The devastating diagnosis crushed Daisy and her husband's world, and the world of their adult children. Initially, the way each family member connected to her was at some level of denial and/or anger. The author, Daisy's son, shares their story and his personal grief. The author also shares his observations and the memory of his mother before and after Alzheimer's diagnosis. The scriptures and prayers at the end of the chapters are a very nice touch, and the epigraphs are very successful at conveying the tone of each chapter. SeniorAdvisor.com, the nation's largest reviews and ratings source, helps millions of consumers every year find the best resources and senior care for their loved ones. Professional assistance for caregivers and families experiencing the daily ups and downs of Alzheimer's disease is being provided - free of charge - to the readers of Mama Is Still Here.

Declutter Like a Mother Allie Casazza,2021-09-07 WALLSTREET JOURNAL BESTSELLER Live lighter. Live freer. Live a bigger life with less. In Declutter Like a Mother, Allie Casazza comes alongside you to explore: Why decluttering calms anxiety in your heart and lessens tension in your relationships. How to ensure your house is working for you, not against you. Why kids thrive when they're not overwhelmed with options. How to make time, when you feel you don't have time, to declutter. Allie Casazza was tired of feeling it was her against the laundry in her home. She wondered if somewhere beneath her frantic days and the mountains of toys in the playroom she would ever find joy and peace in motherhood. Then she discovered the abundance . . . of less. As she purged her home of excess stuff, Allie discovered a lifestyle that strengthened her marriage, saved her motherhood, and helped her develop her gifts in a way that no amount of new kitchen appliances or new organizing system ever could. Research studies show a direct link between stress levels and the amount of physical possessions people have in their homes, and Allie has seen that truth play out in her own life and in the lives of hundreds of thousands of other moms she has mentored through her business and online courses. She proclaims: You don't need a home that's perfect. You need a home that's lighter. Discover less stress, more space. Less chaos, more peace. Less of what doesn't matter, so you have room for what matters most of all.

Maya Angelou Mary Jane Lupton,2016-01-18 This book presents the extraordinary life and writings of Maya Angelou. It examines the changing viewpoints in her six autobiographies within the context of women's and African American autobiographies, with specific reference to the slave narrative and to contemporary fiction and film. Maya Angelou: The Iconic Self examines this iconic artist's work as an autobiographer, offering an up-to-date assessment of Angelou's contributions to American literature and to American and international culture. This is the only book to interpret Angelou's autobiographies as unique experiments in the history of black narrative. It attests to Angelou's creativity in transforming the typical single-volume autobiography into a six-volume personal and cultural adventure that tells the truth but reads like fiction. The narratives cover the years from the Great Depression (1941) to the days following the assassinations of Malcolm X (1965) and Martin Luther King (1968), emphasizing Angelou's roles as mother, daughter, granddaughter, wife, and friend. This revised edition also presents information about Maya Angelou's funeral and her continuing legacy since her death in 2014. The depth and scope of the book's observations regarding Angelou's autobiographies will be of great interest to readers seeking an analysis of the interconnections among Angelou's writings as well as serve students taking courses in women's studies or black culture studies.

Black Mother Educators Tamba O. Jackson, 2021-02-01 Drawing upon the theoretical frameworks of Beauboeuf-Lafontant (2002), Collins (2009), Crenshaw (1991), and Dillard (2012), this volume makes a case for centering the voices and experiences of Black women in the protection and educational uplift of Black children. While examinations of how Black educators articulate and enact a need to protect Black students from racialized harm exist (McKinney de Royston et. al., 2020), this book is a collection of autoethnographic narratives from Black mother educators who work at the intersections of their personal and professional identities to protect Black children. Intersectionality allows us to look at the nexus of our identities in regards to race, gender and occupation-- as Black, women and educators. Our goal for this volume was to bring together scholars who can support theorizing the intersectionality of our identities as Black mothers and educators, particularly its influence on our pedagogical practices and the safekeeping of Black children. This volume explicates stories of motherwork from Black mother educators whose professional spaces span K-12 to higher education contexts. Collectively, this volume expounds upon the dimension of "protector" within the literature on Black women teachers.

Jose Marti Daniel Coenn, 2014-05-23 This book is a collection of 91 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of Jose Marti: Others go to bed with their mistresses; I with my ideas. A selfish man is a thief. Peoples are made of hate and of love, and more of hate than love. But love, like the sun that it is, sets afire and melts everything. Liberty is the essence of life. Whatever is done without it is imperfect. Life on earth is a hand-to-hand mortal combat... between the law of love and the law of hate.

Sinful Paradise Ann Christopher, 2014 A taste of temptation... Cooper Davies doesn't need to look for his ideal mate. He's already found her. Thomas Edison Daniel Coenn,2014-05-23 This book is a collection of 92 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of Thomas Edison: I start where the last man left off. Everyone steals in commerce and industry. I've stolen a lot, myself. But I know how to steal! They don't know how to steal! All bibles are man-made. Great ideas originate in the muscles. I am proud of the fact that I never invented weapons to kill. Show me a thoroughly satisfied man and I will show you a failure. Anything that won't sell, I don't want to invent. Its sale is proof of utility, and utility is success.

Friedrich Nietzsche Daniel Coenn,2014-04-22 This book is a collection of 226 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of Friedrich Nietzsche: All I need is a sheet of paper; and something to write with, and then; I can turn the world upside down. That which does not kill us makes us stronger. You must have chaos within you to give birth to a dancing star. And once you are awake, you shall remain awake eternally. Become who you are! The world is beautiful, but has a disease called man. In heaven, all the interesting people are missing.

Charles Darwin Daniel Coenn,2014-05-23 This book is a collection of 105 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of Charles Darwin: I am not apt to follow blindly the lead of other men Intelligence is based on how efficient a species became at doing the things they need to survive. A scientific man ought to have no wishes, no affections, - a mere heart of stone. An American monkey, after getting drunk on brandy, would never touch it again, and thus is much wiser than most men. Besides love and sympathy, animals exhibit other qualities connected with the social instincts which in us would be called moral. Man selects only for his own good: Nature only for that of the being which she tends. Multiply, vary, let the strongest live and the weakest die. We stopped looking for monsters under our bed when we realized that they were inside us.

Francis Bacon Daniel Coenn,2014-05-15 This book is a collection of 250 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of Francis Bacon: God's first creature was light. It is impossible to love and to be wise. A prudent question is one-half of wisdom. A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds. Anger makes dull men witty, but it keeps them poor. Boldness is a child of ignorance. Opportunity makes a thief. Prosperity is the blessing of the Old Testament; adversity is the blessing of the New.

Edgar Allan Poe Daniel Coenn,2014-05-23 This book is a collection of 210 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of Edgar Allan Poe: I wish I could write as mysterious as a cat. I would define, in brief, the poetry of words as the rhythmical creation of beauty. Invisible things are the only realities. Perversity is the human thirst for self-torture. Poetry is the rhythmical creation of beauty in words. Stupidity is a talent for misconception. The boundaries which divide Life from Death are at best shadowy and vague. Who shall say where the one ends, and where the other begins? The plots of God are perfect. The Universe is a plot of God. We loved with a love that was more than love.

F. Scott Fitzgerald Daniel Coenn,2014-05-23 This book is a collection of 186 fundamental quotes and aphorisms of F. Scott Fitzgerald: Show me a hero and I will write you a tragedy. You don't write because you want to say something, you write because you have something to say. Action is character. Forgotten is forgiven. There are no second acts in American lives. Optimism is the content of small men in high places. First you take a drink, then the drink takes a drink, then the drink takes you. The two basic stories of all times are Cinderella and Jack the Giant Killer — the charm of women and the courage of men.
